SOCIETY NEWS

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

R fairs yesterday that the afternoon was entirely devoted to the parade. Prominent society matrons and maids who are members of the Portland Hunt Club, mounted on beautiful animals, added to the success of the parade. Other society fork not only entered Other society fork not only entered their motor cars, but in many instances were surrounded by groups of friends attired in gala dress. All along the route of march they were cheered for their artistic festal garb. There will be few social diversions until after the Festival.

Miss Catherine Russell, one of the most popular of the debutantes, was honored at the delightful dance for which Mrs. Henry E. Jones was hostess last night for her granddaughter. Miss Margaret Mears, at the Jones residence on Portland Heights. About 50 of the younger set were present, and the af-fair was among the notable and most delightful of the season.

The drawing-room and dining-room were brilliantly decked with fragrant garden flowers, which made an effective foil for the pretty frocks of the belles

News of Portlanders at home or abroad is interesting to their friends, abroad is interesting to their friends, and the following from San Francisco concerns well-known Portlanders:

Mrs. Charles A. Gray, official hostess at the Oregon building, at the Exposition, serves tea each afternoon, and this delightful custom is bringing together many Oregonians who have not met in years, as well as making an informal social hour each afternoon that is truly charming in the midst of Exposition sightseeing. Mrs. Gray is a native daughter of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Clark, who leave the Exposition this week for their home in Portland, have been much entertained while in the city by the Numanos, the Spreckelses, the Gatches tertained while in the city by the Numanos, the Spreckelses, the Gatches of Berkeley, and by the Exposition of-ficials. A delightful reception at the home of Mayor Rolph was a notable home of Mayor Rolph was a notable recent affair.

Mrs. H. C. Wortman, with her daughter, Miss Helen Wortman, en route home from Bryn Mawr, and Miss Wortman's friend, Miss Kent, are now at the Palace, but pass considerable time at the Exposition. Mrs. Wortman has found the palace of fine arts particularly rich in treasures for her enjoyment. She has been asked to give a series of art talks at the "studio" of the Oregon building, taking the Expoesses on the Exposition grounds, having been entertained over the weekned at the Maryland building. Miss Genevieve Halley is visiting friends in San Francisco.

Monday evening Mr. Charles A. Gray made her formal debut as Oregon's hostess. Invitations had been issued to Fair officials, commissioners and visiting Oregonians. Nearly 500 people called in the course of the evening. Assisting Mrs. Gray in receiving from Oregon were Mrs. H. C. Wortman, from the top floor was used as a reception-room, the guests going directly from there to the balfroom adjoining. Re-freshments were served in the large there to the baltroom adjoining. Refreshments were served in the large reception-room on the first floor, where many lingered to enjoy the huge log fire for which the building is famous. Many Portland people now in San Francisco were present. It was an evening of delightful reunions for Elizabeth and Josephine, are house

evening, remaining for the reception

music, and the great rustic building will add to its delightful woodsy effect with millions of Oregon roses, which the commissioners have arranged to have shipped down. Every one that day will wear an Oregon rose.

Edith Knight Holmes is passing a few days in San Francisco attending

ALBANY, Or., June 10.—(Special.)— Two of the most prominent pioneer families in this vicinity were united in the marriage of Clair D. Haight and Miss Edna A. Cox in this city yester-

Japanese lanterns.
Miss Axa G. Paget, a prominent dan-

OSE FESTIVAL activities so completely overshadowed social af-CLUB.

On the evening of June 15, the Oregon day at the Exposition, there will be a large reception, with dancing, in the Oregon bullding. The Oregon Agricultural College Band will furnish music, and the great route bullding.

families in this vicinity were united in the marriage of Clair D. Haight and Miss Edna A. Cox in this city yesterday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. Howard Fagan, pastor of the Pirst Christian Church.

Mr. Haight is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Mr. Haight is a son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Haight, who reside five miles northeast of Albany, and Mrs. Smith Cox, who lived for many years in the same vicinity, but who now reside in Albany.

H. D. Haight was born on the farm where he now lives and has spent his entire life there. His son and daughter-in-law will reside on a part of the same place.

The O.-W. R. & N. Company is entertaining during the Rose Festival 40 young women from the principal cities along its lines who are in its employment or are members of the family of an employe.

The San Francisco & Portland Steam—

of their popularity.

Of special interest to Portland club-womens of the predicate the profile of the profile of the profile of the profile of the Pioneer Press, of St. Paul, found herself at Vancouver, B. Clubs in Portland, by way of vancouver.

Her act of taking a picture of a Government bridge aroused the suspicion of a conscientious immigration of the water like a knife. But as he turned to go the fairy called him back. The Pioneer Press obtained at the convention but written by German women advocating an English trade boycot.

The Pioneer Press obtained the convention of the American vice-consult and, Miss Dillon's innocence being specially established, she was released after a few hours' detention under the arrow and its fortune until just on the very day he was 15, and then happened to find it on a shelf in series of art talks at the "studio" of the Oregon building, taking the Exposition art as her theme.

Miss Anne Shannon Monroe spent May at Palo Alto, resting from Exposition activities, and enjoying the clossing affairs of Stanford University. On Friday she addresses the high school English classes on vocations, particularly on the mights when Art Smith's filuminated biplane loops many loops, leaving a trail of fireworks behind.

Among the notable arrivals of the entire high school was assembled for the address, and it was a most responsive and appreciative audience.

Mrs. Thomas G. Halley, whose term of office as hostess of the Oregon building at the Exposition expired June 1, is now visiting various host-esses on the Exposition grounds, having been entertained over the weekend at the Maryland building. Miss Genevieve Halley is visiting friends in formal "members' evening," which had

The Sandman Story By Mrs. F. A. Walker.

many, and a thoroughly gala event for all.

Mrs. H. C. Wortman. Miss Helen Wortman and Miss Kent were dinner guests of the Alaska to join Lieutenant Mears, who is a member of the Alaskan Railroad Commission.

A Piece of the Sum.

ITTLE Hama lived in the beautiful tablishment. Interment will be made in Riverview Cemetery.

Lisland of Hawaii a long time before any white people had ever seen the country. The green lane sloping the country. The green lane sloping the country of the recentless. down to the sea was full of wild fruits PROTEST IS SENT MR. LANE women's Clubs.

Women's Clubs.

Women's Clubs.

Women's Clubs.

In that warm climate the boys wore so few clothes that there was no few clothes that there w > abandoned or postponed for some less festive day, and prominent clubwomen appeared in gayly decked floats representing the various clubs of the city, or were a part of the admiring throng that hovered about the Festival Center after the parade.

>
> One day he took his little stone hatchet and went into the forest to cut a tree out of which to hollow a nice canoe. He found a pretty one with smooth bark and began to cut. But hardly had he struck a blow when he heard a faint cry and a beautiful wood center after the parade. throng that hovered about the Festival Center after the parade.
>
> The women's rest rooms which are being maintained by the leading women's clubs in various parts of Portland are also taking much of the time that is usually devoted in meetings. The large number of women and children who have utilized these rest rooms this week are a substantial evidence of their popularity.
>
> This tree is my home, little Hama, "she said, smilingly, "and I would not slong its lines who are in its employment or are members of the family of an employe.

The San Francisco & Portland Steamship Company will give them a lunchecon on the steamer Bear Saturday at 1
P. M., together with their chaperons and sponsors.

One of the prettiest dencing parties
of the asson was given in Irvington by Miss Marie Dooley, at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. George S.
Breitling, Saturday evening. The house was decorated prettily with roses and Japanese lanterns.

Miss Axa G. Paget, a prominent dan operation of the American vice-consul
and, Miss Dillon's innocence being
speedily established, she was released
after a few hours' detention under squard.

Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, state regent of the Daughters of the American the Daughters of the American the Washington State Federation of Hama went home with his new cance. Full of play he forgot all about the arrow and its fortuse until just the arrow and its forstone under the arrow and its forms under the arrow and its forms under the her play he was 15, and then he happened to find it on a shelf in his grass hut. So he stepped outside,

and, Miss Dillon's innocence being
speedily established, she was released
after a few hours' detention under
the arrow and its fortuse until just
on the very day he was 15, and then
he happened to find it on a shelf in
his grass hut. So he stepped outside,
and, Miss Dillon's innocence being
speedily established, she was released
after a few hours' detention under
the arrow and its fortuse until just
on the arrow and its fortuse until just on the arrow and its for under the arrow and its forms cance. Full of play he was 15, and then he happened to find it on a shelf in
his grass hut. So he stepped outside,
and, Miss Dillon's innocence being season was lived and the arrow and its for under
the arrow and its foreston.

In the arrow and its foreston in
the arrow and its foreston.

In the arrow and its foreston.

In the arrow and its foreston.
In the arrow and its foreston.

In the arrow and its foresto

Japanese lanterns.

Miss Axa G. Paget, a prominent dansense of the city, assisted by Walter Christensen, demonstrated the Pavlowa Gavotte, after which supper was served. Miss Margaret Myers assisted the hostess and additional guests were: Misses Louise Mueller, Helen Little, Grace Hoch, Lucile Baumer, Axa Paget, Mae Gleason, Ruth Dickerson, Helen Sundt, Edna Crary, Gladyse Crary and James Hefty, Walter Christensen, Ephralm Montgomery, Nelson Mongomery, Clarence Schmidt, Ray Dooley, James Keating, Eiwyn Marston, Lawrence Cunningham, Merle Dickerson, Dr. Harry Hall, J. O'Connor and Ho Murfield.

The after-dinner joy zone party has taken its place as a fixed daily social event with hosts and guests in the exposition city. The American Beauty dining-room of the Hotel Plaza in San Francisco is noted for its many merry.

Shur-on Eyeglasses Crookes Lenses Kryptock Invisible Bifocals

THOMPSON OPTICAL INSTITUTE

209-10-11 Corbett Building 5th and Morrison

the old chief sending him for a piece of the sun,
"Wait a bit," she said, as she disappeared into the tree, but in a moment
she was back with a big bowl and two dry sticks. "Now watch me," she comdry sticks. "Now watch me," she com-manded, as she began to rub the sticks briskly together. Then Hama saw a wonderful thing, for out from the sticks crept a tiny flame and a curl of smoke and the sticks began to burn brightly. The wood nymph had taught bim now to kindle fire.

brightly. The wood nymph had taught him now to kindle fire.

"Oh! that is a piece of the sun," he cried, as the nymph placed the burning sticks in the bowl, and, heaping on more wood, made the warm, bright flame leap high. So he took the bowl and setting off on a fast run, soon reached the chief's tent.

"I have brought you a piece of the sun," he cried, as he placed the bowl full of burning wood at the old chief's feet.

So Hama married the beautiful princess and was very soon made the head of the tribe, because he had brought them a plece of the sun by teaching them to make fire.

VANCOUVER SENDS MANY Completion of Bridge Expected to Make Ties Even Closer.

VANCOUVER, Wash., June 10 .-(Special.)—Vancouver is sending hundreds daily to see the annual Portland Rose Festival, and her citizens take as much interest in it as the Portland residents do themselves. Vancouver residents do themselves. Vancouver feels she is a Portland suburb, and in reality is closer than some of Portland's suburbs.

Before the Festival is held in 1917 the Columbia River interstate bridge will have been completed, bringing Portland considerably closer.

The Fortland Railway, Light & Power Company has provided an ample number of cars to accommodate the large crowds, three trains of two cars

Six prominent marine men have been selected to act as pallbearers at the funeral of Captain William H. Pope, which will be held tomorrow morning from Finley's undertaking establishment. They are Captains A. L. Pease, A. E. Cann, John Peterson, J. J. Anderson, J. S. Cochran and L. Shaver.

Captain Pope, veteran river man. from Finley's undertaking establishment. They are Captains A. L. Pease, A. E. Cann, John Peterson, J. J. Anderson, J. S. Cochran and L. Shaver.
Captain Pope, veteran river man, died Wednesday at Sellwood Hospital. Funeral services will be held at 11 A. M. Saturday at the undertaking establishment. Interment will be made ously followed up in an endagence to

Removal of Reclamation Office

The Chamber of Commerce has taken wome up the matter of protesting against the Lents.

From Portland Opposed.

have the decision of the department re-

Man Scares Happy Hollow Women. Roy Beegle, said to have been an in-mate of the insane asylum, was ar-rested in Lents last night by Patrol-man Drapeau on a charge of insanity. A man answering Beegle's description, the police say, has been frightening women in Happy Hollow, east of

Ask for "HOLSUM"

HOLSUM means certain cleanliness—that's the difference between HOLSUM and mere "bread."

HOLSUM is MADE CLEAN

to start with. Cleanliness is a religion in the HOLSUM bakery. Walls, ceilings, ovens, machinery and utensils are always spotlessly clean. Practically from beginning to end the baking of HOLSUM is done by sanitary machinery, the ROLSUM bakers scarcely ever have occasion to touch the bread. And then ROLSUM is

SOLD CLEAN

As HOLSUM comes fresh and clean from the ovens it is slipped into a dust-proof, germ-proof, waxed wrapper that protects it against contact with anything unclean in stores and delivery wagons.

DELIVERED CLEAN

So when you unwrap ROLSUM in your kitchen, your hands are the first that have touched it since

Stop the careless practice of asking for just "bread" and ask for HOLSUM.

At Your Grocers

Double Size 10c ROLSUM Jr.5c

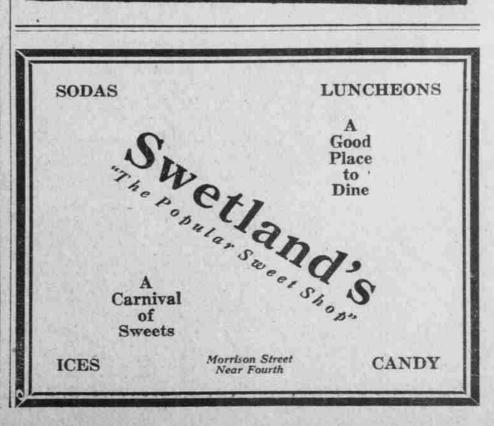

Log Cabin Baking Company

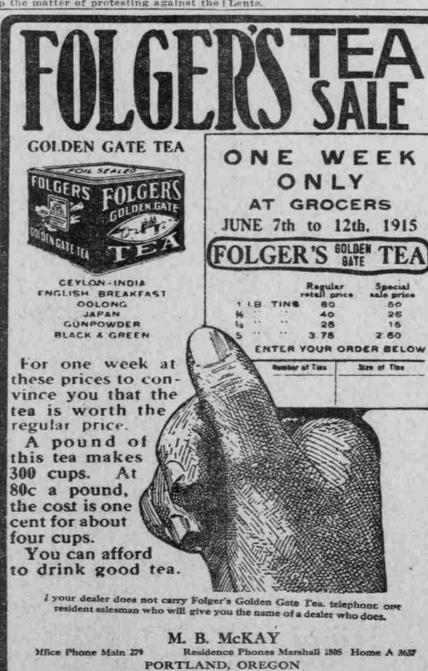

Try Tea Garden Syrup on Your Breakfast Cereals

Better than sugar and it adds a distinctive flavor-differently delicious!

Don't Forget the $100 Prize Recipe Contest $75.00 First Prize for the best

J. A. FOLGER & CO., San Francisco