COMING as a genuine surprise was the wedding yesterday of Miss Edith Gray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edith Gray, to William Lee Powell, Jr., which was solemnized at the First Congregational Church, Rev. Luther H. Dyott officiating.

The bride is a charming and attractive belle, and popular in the Irvington set. She has been engaged for some time, but as she especially dislikes pomp and ceremony, she decided to keep the date of her wedding a secret until the arrival of her fiancé from San Francisco. He returned here on Friday, and the simple marriage was arranged for yesterday at 5 o'clock, with only the members of the bride's immediate family and a few intimate friends in attendance.

DAUGHTER OF PORTLAND MERCHANT SURPRISED FRIENDS BY WEDDING YESTERDAY.

Mrs. William Lee Powell (Edith Gray)

She wore a smart white serge tailleur, with chic transparent black hat, and a corsage, blue and pink of the valley. Miss Beulah Hayes was her bridesmaid, and John F. White, Jr., acted as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Johnstone at dinner last night following the ceremony, and will at present be in temporary housekeeping in the Lois Apartments.

Mr. Powell formerly lived in this city, and with his family moved to San Francisco several years ago, where the bridegroom was engaged in the automobile business. He has succeeded in being transferred to the San Francisco office of the firm to the Portland office, and has already entered on his duties in the motorcar field.

He also is popular with the younger set of this city and undoubtedly he and his charming little bride will be extensively entertained.

In addition to the parents of the bride, the wedding guests were: Miss Edna Gray, sister of the bride, and her brother R. M. Gray, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Johnstone, Miss Hayes, Mrs. S. S. Hayes, Mr. White, Miss Neva Bonneville, Henry W. Wagner and Miss Pearl Shaw.

Miss Mary Brownlie and Miss Hanita Friedenthal will leave tomorrow, with a party of college friends, on the Northern Pacific for the coast and California. While there they will take advantage of the Summer lectures at the university and will also pass a great deal of time in San Francisco at the Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Cranston returned yesterday from a fortnight's visit in the South.

Misses Grace and Lucile Radcliffe, who have been visiting Miss Bernice Jaeger, left this morning for their home in Walla Walla.

Dr. and Mrs. Byron E. Miller left Monday for San Francisco. Dr. Miller will attend the medical convention in that city and the ladies will visit the fair, after which time Dr. and Mrs. Miller will also visit Salt Lake City, Denver and St. Louis, where the former will attend another convention as delegate. The American Institute of Homeopathy, of which Dr. Miller is president, will meet in Chicago from June 23 to July 2.

Dr. Miller has arranged for and will accompany a special party of at least thirty cars which will leave Chicago at the close of the convention, traveling over the Canadian Pacific and reaching Portland July 5 for a stop in this city. The party will consist of the following: Byron E. Miller, Portland, president; John J. Detweiler, Boston, honorary president; Harris H. Baxter, Cleveland, first vice-president; Mary E. Mosher, Boston, second vice-president; Sarah M. Hobson, Chicago, secretary; Frank J. Smith, New York, treasurer; William O. Forbes, Hot Springs, Ark., registrar.

Mrs. George J. Frankel and Mrs. Herbert Gaar Read have issued invitations for a dramatic reading of Victor Hugo's 'Les Misérables', to be given by the French Festival committee, at the Hotel Monmouth, on Monday morning, June 21, at 11 o'clock, in the ballroom, of the Hotel Monmouth.

Mrs. Haskell is the house guest of Mrs. Frankel during her visit here and she will be entertained by many prominent matrons.

Dr. and Mrs. E. DeWitt Connell left Wednesday for San Francisco to attend the fair and also to permit the doctor to attend to his professional duties in that city. Later they will make a month's tour of the southern cities.

Dr. E. M. Rice left for the East to take up post-graduate work in New York, Boston and Chicago. He also will visit his home in New York for six months, returning to this city the latter part of the year.

Miss Cora Rasmussen, of Everett, Wash., is the house guest of Mrs. E. P. Keller, 191 Marshall street. She attended the Rose Festival, and during the week was entertained extensively. One of the recent events in her honor was the musical for which Mrs. Keller was hostess Saturday evening. Contributing to the programme were Mrs. Keller, who sang several solos; Miss Rasmussen, who is a clever pianist; Miss Nona Lawler, whose vocal solos were greatly enjoyed; and Mrs. Adeline Bowls, pianist. Miss Lawler's Chalklock played several violin solos. Miss Rasmussen will leave Wednesday for her home.

Mrs. Mary McKinley entertained at her home near Gresham on Saturday for the Past Matrons' Club of Portland Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. After viewing the grounds for a short session was held. Cards and an elaborate feast were enjoyed later.

Mrs. J. P. Jamison received high score at cards. Those present were: Mesdames Sarah Moore, Fred I. Reynolds, E. W. Ring, B. McKinley, P. Bannan, P. A. Nichols, Kate M. Debbitt, W. R. Graden, Doach, Parker and Miss Nellie McKinley.

Waldemar P. Galley, of Amity, is passing the week-end as the guest of Gus Rosenblatt at the Seward Hotel.

Mrs. Wilbur W. Wood, of Amity, is the guest of Mrs. May C. Weaver, Mrs. Beaver will accompany Mrs. Wood to Amity on her return home.

Miss Jennie Hartman, of Scotts Mills, is the guest of Mrs. May C. Beaver.

Miss Helen E. Sweeney and Miss Katherine H. Sweeney accompanied by their aunt, Mrs. J. H. Hanlon, of Chicago, left Saturday for San Francisco for a visit to the Panama-Pacific Fair.

Misses Martha and Louella Suker, of Spokane and Davenport, Wash., attended the Rose Festival as house guests of Mrs. Edgar L. Young.

Miss Frieda VanBenscoten and Miss Helen Wilson left last week for an extended visit, the former to the East and the latter to California.

The June meeting of Ecclesia Circle of the First Christian Church was held at the home of Mrs. G. P. Alexander, 422 East Forty-eighth street North, with a goodly number in attendance. Mrs. W. W. Crittenden, Mrs. Roy Thompson, Mrs. W. O. Flack and Mrs. Alexander being hostesses.

This being the closing meeting of the year, Mrs. Alexander had provided a musical for the entertainment of the members and their guests, and the following programme was rendered: Vocal duet, the Misses Crittenden; piano solo, Miss Elizabeth Boone; contralto solo, Miss Emma Klippie; vocal trio, Mrs. Thompson, Miss Boone and Miss Klippie; violin solo, Fred Bacon. Rhododendrons and Caroline Testout roses were used in the decorations, and the color scheme of pink and white was also carried out in the refreshments.

The Circle will resume its work early in September.

The G. N. C. B. Girls will hold their closing shirtwaist party Thursday evening at the Cottillon Hall.

Mrs. John Benoit, deputy auditor of Astoria, returned home after visiting home Festival week in this city visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Plagemann and daughter left for San Francisco Saturday to visit the exposition as well as to enjoy a vacation at the various California Summer resorts.

In San Francisco Mr. Plagemann will devote some of his time to receiving his friends at Liebes & Co.'s exhibit at the exposition.

Miss Gladys Graham, society and dramatic editor of the Astoria Budget, has been a guest in Portland over Rose Festival week. She will return to Astoria this evening.

Honored on the grounds, the "sweepstakes" prize for horticultural installation and a whole regiment of gold medals besides, makes the "Oregon First" spirit particularly in evidence just now.

A wedding of unusual interest was that of Sidney McKinnon and Miss Florence Pufter, who were married Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Girard at Cathlamet, Wash. Both Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon were a number of friends here.

Mrs. McKinnon has been principal of the Skamakawa School for the past three years and is secretary of the County Board of Education.

The service was read by the County Superintendent of Schools, Rev. W. W. Head.

The bride was attired in an elaborate white satin and chiffon gown and wore a veil of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses. Mrs. Anna Elliott was the matron of honor and the bridesmaids were the Misses Jennie Risk, Bertha Higbie, Inez Granberg, Ellen Abrams, Florence Dawson and Grace McIntire.

Miss Ellen Venable sang "I Love You Truly."

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. McKinnon left on the launch Adeline for their new home in Skamakawa, where they will be at home to their friends July 1.

Mr. and Mrs. George Waters, of Salem, returned home after a visit in Portland with relatives during the Rose Festival.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 13.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Clark left Saturday for Portland after eight weeks of strenuous Exposition life. The last week in San Francisco was a full one. There was the Japanese dinner and concert, Friday evening given by the resident commissioner-general, Haruki Yamawaki, and his associates, Baron T. Shijo, Sokichi Ichi and Harada Ichi. The other American guests in addition to the Clarkes were Senator Kuhb and Mr. and Mrs. Isberg, of San Francisco. The dinner, wholly Japanese, was followed by a concert on Japanese instruments. It was an evening in Japan.

Hawaiian festivities, honoring Governor Luce E. Pinkham and his staff, just arrived from Hawaii, held the center of attraction all day Friday, closing in the evening with a grand reception and ball in the California building, at which Oregon was represented by William Hanley, governor; Mrs. O. M. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. George Hyland and the Misses Crystal and Constance Hyland. It was a beautiful affair, the Hawaiian music being the dominating chord. At the dinner given at the Old Faithful Inn on the zone in farewell to Colonel Marjorec, Commissioner from New York, which was represented by Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Clark, Mrs. Charles A. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. George Hyland and the Misses Hyland.

At a newspaper men's luncheon on Saturday at the Oregon building there assembled Mr. F. Patton of the Examiner; Mr. Saunders, of the Examiner; K. M. Anderson, of the Chronicle; "Scoop" Gleason of the Bulletin; L. E. Dunbar, of the Call; O. E. Lucas, special events publicity; Hamilton Wright, manager Exposition editorial bureau; Ed Blakeslee, of the United Press; and Frank Morse, of the Associated Press, from Oregon; O. M. Clark, C. L. Hawley, George M. Hyland, Ralph J. Staehli.

William Hanley gave a luncheon and supper party Friday evening, honoring the Oregon Agricultural College seniors and the instructors Miss Bertha Davis and Miss Ruth Smith. Later they were taken on a tour of inspection of the St. Francis kitchens and grills, especially guided by the manager of the hotel, it was a most interesting experience for the students of scientific cooking.

General and Mrs. Arthur Murray were hosts for a pretty reception at their home at Fort Mason on Thursday, at which Mrs. O. M. Clark and Mrs. Charles A. Gray were guests.

Tomorrow evening in honor of all-Oregon day there will be a reception and ball in the Oregon building, to visiting Oregonians and Fair Commissioners. The building will be fairly smothered in roses, roses will be given to every guest the Oregon band will play and it will be a general jubilee. WIFE IN BOTH PORTS ACCUSATION AGAINST OFFICER OF BEAR.

J. Ellisson, When Accused by No. 2 in Portland, Disappears and Whereabouts Are Unknown.

Charges of bigamy yesterday were preferred against J. Ellisson, second officer of the steamer Bear, who is said to have a wife and three children in Oakland, Cal., and another wife, whom he married last March, in Portland. Ellisson has disappeared.

The Portland wife was formerly Miss Anna Kalmer, a nurse. She discovered Ellisson's alleged dual life last week, and confronted him with information from San Francisco when the Bear reached port Friday. Saturday morning Ellisson asked for a leave of absence, saying he was going to take a day's trip. He has not been seen since. Photographs and descriptions of him are now being circulated by the Sheriff's and Constable's offices in Portland.

The first wife, with three children, the oldest of whom is 4 years of age, is said to live at 228 Sixty-sixth street, Oakland. In March Ellisson was married to Miss Kalmer at Vancouver by Rev. H. H. Sawyer. Previously Miss Kalmer had lived at Gresham.

An article appearing in the Gresham Outlook, giving an account of Miss Kalmer's marriage to the second officer of the Bear, came to the attention of some of the ship's crew. Ellisson was questioned by his fellow officers. He declared that a mistake had been made, and that someone with the same name had been married and had been mistaken for him.

Yesterday morning Mrs. Ellisson had met the second officer on a trip up the coast and believed he was already married. The girl then wrote to San Francisco, and an investigation was made with the result that the first wife was discovered.

The Boomerang Club has appointed the following committee to arrange for its participation in the picnic: Mrs. D. C. Burnttrager, Mrs. A. C. Marsh and Mrs. L. G. McAloney.

The special train carrying the members of the Oregon Agricultural College Club and guests will leave from the Union depot Sunday morning at 9 o'clock, and will start back in the afternoon at 5 o'clock. E. C. Brownlee is general chairman, and reservations are received by him at 300 Chamber of Commerce building.

"I'LL BE PROUD OF YOU, HARRY," MY WIFE TOLD ME

"In the New Suit You Bought ON CREDIT!"

And believe me, Jack, that's high praise from Margie, for she never says anything she doesn't mean, and she's extremely finicky about appearances. Frankly, I used to be stubborn about clothes, and I guess Margie got mighty provoked at me for refusing to go up to CHERY'S and see what handsome Suits I could buy ON INSTALLMENTS.

"But tomorrow we're going on a motoring trip with my ever-paid chief, and I really wanted to look as smart as possible. All the fellows are getting new duds, and it seemed I heard 'CHERRY'S' on every hand.

"So I joined a bunch on their way to CHERY'S CREDIT CLOTHING STORE. I bought a corking good Suit for less money than I ever paid before, and the MONTHLY PAYMENT TERMS are going to make it seem as if I'm getting my Suit for just about nothing. Margie was so delighted that she even forgot to say, 'Why didn't you go sooner? CHERY'S FOR MINE, Jack, next time and all the time! Better follow suit.'

Their place is at 389-391 Washington, in the Pittcock block.
