

BOY OVERBUSES FINE GOOF MATCH

Russell Smith Forced to Better Own Record to Beat Forest Watson.

FOUR YET IN TITLE RACE

M. H. Hartwell, Rudolph Wilhelm and C. H. Lewis Others Who Will Appear in Semi-Finals Today for State Championship.

Under clear skies and with a fair south wind blowing, the race in the Oregon state golf championships simmered down to four stars yesterday out at the Waverly links, Russell Smith serving in the role of the headliner. Mr. Smith eliminated the 7-year-old phenomenon, Forest Watson, but it required a 75 and a 77—the most sensational golf of the tourney—to turn the trick.

Match Hard Fought.

They halved the first: Smith won the second and fourth; Watson won the third; they halved the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth; Smith won the ninth, despite a wonderful styrie shot by the loser. Mr. Smith had him aimed about 15 inches from the hole, but Watson used a mallet and holed out nicely, the ball dropping into the cup on the fly. They halved the tenth, Smith won the 11th and the next four holes were halved, making further play unnecessary.
