BUREAU HEADS STAY

No Administration Changes by Mayor Expected.

FORMAL NOTICE WITHHELD

Installation of Mr. Baker in Department of Public Affairs Only Shift Considered Likely; Agreement With Mr. Daly Reported.

Although no formal announcement has been made by Mayor Albee, it became practically certain yesterday that he will make no change in the administration of the city departments and bureaus by reason of the recent election. Outside of assigning Commissioner-elect Baker to the Department of Public Affairs, now in charge of Commissioner Brewster, it is said no change will be made.

The arrangement said to have been worked out by the Mayor would give Commissioner-elect Baker the Park Bureau, the Legal Bureau, the City Hall Bureau, the Free Employment Bureau and the proposed public auditorium. It would continue the other Commissioners in their present places.

Mr. Bigelow has the Department of Finance, including the Purchasing Bureau, the City Treasurer's office and the public markets; Mr. Dieck is in the Department of Public Works, including the City Engineer's office and the Building Inspection Bureau; Commissioner Daly manages the Department of Public Utilities, including the Water Bureau, the Street Cleaning Bureau, the Sprinkling Bureau and the Incinerator, and Mayor Albee has the Department of Public Safety, including the Fire, Police and Health Bureaus.

Announcement Expected Today.
Mayor Albee has announced that he will withhold his formal announcement of assignments until the completion of the official count of votes in the recent election. This work will be completed some time this afternoon and the announcement by the Mayor is expected to follow.

When it became known first that George L. Baker had been elected to succeed Commissioner Brewster it was rumored that the Mayor perhaps would take the Water Bureau from Commissioner Daly because Mr. Daly said that without a meter system the Water Bureau was drifting toward the rocks. The meter plan was defeated, leaving the operation of the Water Bureau in Mr. Daly's hands with no change of a meter system. The meter issue was marked at the outset by a personal feud between the Mayor and Commissioner Daly, the latter having attacked the Mayor for taking a public stand against the meter scheme.

JUNIOR POLICE GIVE AID

SERVICE DURING ROSE FESTIVAL LONG AND ARDUOUS.

Chief Bennett Thanks Young Workers and Regular Officers for Co-operation in Efforts.

Boys of the Junior police force, 15 in number, performed long and arduous service during the Rose Festival last week. Their chief, Forrest Bennett, called at the Oregonian publicly to express his appreciation of their efforts. The young chief also wishes to thank Chief of Police Clarke, Captain Moore, Sergeant Lyon and other members of the Portland police force for their co-operation. He also wishes to thank Emory Olmstead and John F. Carroll, of the Rose Festival committee.

For the most part the Junior police found their badges respected wherever they were placed on duty. The Junior police patrolled the line of march during the school children's parade, helped the little ones who struggled and assisted in getting them on the cars when the parade disbanded. Then they were on duty at the grandstand in Festival Center every day from the time Queen Sybil was crowned.

During the second day of the festival they were on duty from 10 o'clock in the morning until 11:30 at night. On the last day of the festival the Junior police were on duty from 10 o'clock in the morning to 1 o'clock the next morning. They assisted the regular police in keeping order.

TRACT NEAR FALLS SOUGHT

Property Adjacent to Benson Park To Be Asked From Government.
Senator Chamberlain and Representative McArthur agreed in letters sent to the City Council yesterday to take up as soon as they go to Washington the proposition of securing for Portland a tract of 249 acres adjoining Benson Park, a tract of ground on Columbia Highway surrounding Gordon Falls, which was given to the city recently by S. Benson.

At the time Mr. Benson gave the tract to the city he suggested that an effort be made to get an adjoining tract from the United States Government. Commissioner Brewster took the matter up with Senator Chamberlain and Representative McArthur, and both agreed to do what they can to get the tract for the city. Enactment of a bill by Congress will be necessary, it is said.

CHURCH WOMEN RECEIVE

Hawthorne Presbyterians Are Entertained by Third Members.
Women of the Third Presbyterian Church gave the women of the Hawthorne Park Presbyterian Church a reception Tuesday at the home of Mrs.

John Watt, 121 East Sixteenth street North, in return for a similar reception given by the women of Hawthorne Church last week, preparatory to the merger of the congregations of these churches into the Central Presbyterian Church of Portland. More than 100 attended.
A brief musical programme was rendered. Miss Eva Johnson sang a solo and Miss Edna Agler gave a piano solo. Roxanna Wommelsdorf rendered a violin solo, with Miss Erna Everts as accompanist.

Telegraph Company Presented.

To test the legality of the city ordinance of November 11, 1914, providing for a quarterly license of $75 on telegraph companies, O. F. Schulz, manager of the Postal Telegraph Company, was served with a warrant yesterday on the charge of conducting a telegraph business without a license. The case probably will be waived in the Municipal Court and sent up to the Circuit Court for an opinion. J. H.

Hutchinson, license collector, appears as prosecutor in the case.
