

LEO FRANK MAKES HIS LAST APPEAL

Governor of Georgia Takes Petition for Commutation Under Advisement.

DEATH DATE DRAWS NEAR

Attorney for Convicted Man Says Murdered Girl Not in Employers' Office at Time State Says She Was Attacked.

ATLANTA, Ga., June 16.—Leo M. Frank's final appeal for commutation of his death sentence to life imprisonment was completed here today...

Governor Asks Many Questions. The session today was occupied by William M. Howard, in his closing argument...

Presence of Girl Questioned. Howard declared that by the testimony of the state's witnesses the record showed Mary Phagan was not in the pencil factory at the time the prosecution contended Frank killed her...

WEST CASE NOT APPEALED. Copperfield Saloonkeeper Not to Carry Suit to Higher Court.

BAKER, Or., June 16.—(Special.)—No appeal will be taken in the damages case of William Wiegand, Copperfield saloonkeeper, against ex-Governor West, James H. Nichols, attorney for Wiegand, announced today...

SHRINERS USE 100 TRAINS. Delegates to Council Meeting to In-vade Seattle.

SEATTLE, Wash., June 16.—(Special.)—Special trains from every part of the country will arrive in the Northwest in a few weeks bringing the hosts of the Myatic Shrine to the imperial council meeting in Seattle...

JUD BY MAIL ADMITTED. Washington Timber Cruiser Pleads and Is Sentenced.

TACOMA, Wash., June 16.—In the Federal Court D. R. Collier, timber cruiser, indicted April 25 in connection with his brother, C. E. Collier, an attorney, for using the mails to defraud 25 people of about $100,000...

COMMERCIAL CLUB ELECTS. W. M. Hamilton Chosen to Head Salem Organization.

SALEM, Or., June 16.—(Special.)—Salem's rejuvenated Commercial Club, having a membership of 304, has elected officers as follows:

W. M. Hamilton, Salem superintendent of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, president; Joseph H. Albert, banker, vice-president; David Eyre, banker, secretary, and William Walton, banker, treasurer. Directors of the seven bureaus and their assistants are: Social department—C. L. Dick, director; H. H. Olinger, M. L. Meyers, D. I. Howard, Oliver J. Meyers. Civic department—O. M. Elliott, director; R. N. Avison, George G. Brown, Frank B. Southwick, Fred Mangels. Agricultural department—W. I. Staley, director; L. J. Chapin, Robert Paulus, W. T. Jenks, Seymour Jones. Publicity and conventions department—F. G. Deckabach, director; P. H. D'Arcy, W. M. Hamilton, Robert S. Gill, Paul B. Wallace. Learning and taxation department—Thomas B. Kay, director; E. T. Barnes, Joseph Albert, Charles W. Galloway, Charles L. McNary. Industrial department—August Hucklestein, director; S. B. Elliott, C. M. Epley, W. A. Marshall, Theodore Roth. Sanitary department—Henry Meyers, director; Fred W. Steusloff, Hal D. Patton, C. E. Bishop, C. S. Hamilton.

BENTON FACTORY PAYS DIVIDEND OF FIVE PER CENT DECLARED BY ASSOCIATION.

Profits of $1830 Earned Since January 1 on Business of $25,000—Representative Hawley Speaks.

CORVALLIS, Or., June 16.—(Special.)—The Benton County Co-operative Association, in annual meeting here today, declared a 5 per cent dividend on all business transacted since January 1. This is the first dividend ever declared by the organization...

More Space Needed Badly. "The housing problem is becoming serious. One building has been authorized for the next two years, but it will be more than filled by the school of education alone. Space must be provided for the journalism and commercial law and other departments...

PHILOMATH HAS CLOSING EXERCISES COMMENCED JUNE 10 ARE CONCLUDED.

Last Day Devoted to Field Meet, Address by Dr. Schell and Banquet of Alumni Members.

PHILOMATH, Or., June 16.—(Special.)—Commencement exercises at Philomath College opened with a glee club entertainment by Mrs. Gertrude Fisher June 10.

The remainder of the exercises were as follows: June 14, chapel, conducted by senior class; meeting of board of trustees at 2 o'clock and anniversary of literary societies at 8 o'clock; June 15, meeting of board of trustees; chapel exercises at 11 o'clock; commencement exercises at 2 o'clock; address by Rev. William E. Schell, general secretary of Education, Dayton, O. At 3 o'clock there was a field meet and at 8 o'clock the alumni banquet was served.

PORTLAND SONGSTRESS AT EMPRESS THEATER.

Fifty or more at the Portland Press Club will attend the first show at the Empress Theater to-night in honor of Leah Cohen, Portland songstress, who is the extra added attraction of the show. Miss Cohen is a favorite of the Press Club and has scored triumphs at several jinks and luncheon programmes given by the newspaper men.

CLONDBURST TEARS ROAD Highway Near Chelan Is Being Opened Up as Fast as Possible.

WENATCHEE, Wash., June 16.—(Special.)—A clondburst at the head of Knappa Coulee, on the road to Chelan, has temporarily blocked that highway. The clondburst swept out first, second and portions of the third switchback and the pumphouse at the bottom of the coulee. Dirt is piled up at the mouth of the canyon 20 to 30 feet high.

WENATCHEE, Wash., June 16.—(Special.)—A clondburst at the head of Knappa Coulee, on the road to Chelan, has temporarily blocked that highway. The clondburst swept out first, second and portions of the third switchback and the pumphouse at the bottom of the coulee. Dirt is piled up at the mouth of the canyon 20 to 30 feet high.

VARSITY CALLS ON ALUMNI FOR GIFTS

President Says Oregon Not to Have Money Enough From Millage Tax.

EX-STUDENTS AT BANQUET

Portland Schools Are Soon to Have Funds for Scholarships, Woman Regent Announces to Gathering; Mr. McArthur Talks.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, June 16.—(Special.)—Before 450 alumni and commencement guests President Campbell announced that returns from the millage tax would not be sufficient to meet the growing needs of the University and declared a campaign for private donation must be started at once.

Scholarships Soon to Be Offered. President Campbell's declaration came at the alumni banquet following the granting of degrees to the 59th class to leave the University, Mrs. G. T. Gerlinger, of Dallas, and the only woman on the board of regents, announced that due to work done among the high school students, each one of the Portland high schools in another year will have sufficient money in its Oregon scholarship fund to send a student to the University.

CHERRIES SOLD IN EAST CAR FROM KENNEWICK BRINGS $2847 AT PHILADELPHIA. Fruit Is Declared Finest Received This Season, but Packing Held Inferior to California.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 11.—(Special.)—A car, loaded with cherries from Kennewick, Wash., was sold at public sale today by the Philadelphia Auction Company for $2874.40. This was the first car of cherries to arrive at Philadelphia from the Pacific Northwest during the season.

LOAF DROPS IN MILWAUKEE Bakers Reduce Price to Keep Pace With Cheaper Flour.

MILWAUKEE, June 16.—The former price of bread and 12 cents a loaf instead of 6 and 12 cents, in Milwaukee, will govern, beginning tomorrow, according to a decision of the Milwaukee wholesale bakers.

MEN'S SUITS FOR LESS.

Jimmy Dunn, the upstairs clothier, sells $20 and $25 men's suits for $14.75. No high rent profit. Take elevator to 3d floor, Oregonian bldg.—Adv.

CLEANSE THE LARGE INTESTINE

Present War Cry of Advanced Physicians. Some of the leading surgeons of the world have gone so far recently as to regard part of the great intestine as so serious as that of tuberculosis and related the patient to perfect health by so doing.

THE USE OF SOAP SPOILS THE HAIR

Soap should be used very sparingly. If at all, it should be used very sparingly. If at all, it should be used very sparingly. If at all, it should be used very sparingly.

News of a Sacrifice in Men's Suits

My genuine reductions on men's suits are bringing scores of customers, old and new. Every suit I have is included—the finest ready-for-service garments in America.

- Men's $35 Suits Now $27.50
Men's $30 Suits Now $23.50
Men's $25 Suits Now $19.50
Men's $20 Suits Now $14.85

Main Floor

BEN SELLING

Morrison at Fourth

HEALTH WORKERS ELECT NEW DIRECTORS AND OFFICIALS REPRESENT SCATTERED POINTS.

Cincinnati Is Recommended as Next Convention City of Association for Prevention of Tuberculosis.

SEATTLE, June 16.—A contest between members desiring to place a number of prominent physicians and laymen on the board of directors to popularize the organization and its work and those desiring to keep representation on the board divided geographically developed in the closing session of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis today.

SEATTLE, June 16.—A contest between members desiring to place a number of prominent physicians and laymen on the board of directors to popularize the organization and its work and those desiring to keep representation on the board divided geographically developed in the closing session of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis today.

SEATTLE, June 16.—A contest between members desiring to place a number of prominent physicians and laymen on the board of directors to popularize the organization and its work and those desiring to keep representation on the board divided geographically developed in the closing session of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis today.

SEATTLE, June 16.—A contest between members desiring to place a number of prominent physicians and laymen on the board of directors to popularize the organization and its work and those desiring to keep representation on the board divided geographically developed in the closing session of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis today.

SEATTLE, June 16.—A contest between members desiring to place a number of prominent physicians and laymen on the board of directors to popularize the organization and its work and those desiring to keep representation on the board divided geographically developed in the closing session of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis today.

SEATTLE, June 16.—A contest between members desiring to place a number of prominent physicians and laymen on the board of directors to popularize the organization and its work and those desiring to keep representation on the board divided geographically developed in the closing session of the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis today.

SALOONMEN ASK FEE CUT

St. Johns Council Defers Action on Issue Over Annexation.

ST. JOHNS, Or., June 16.—(Special.)—St. Johns saloonmen appeared before the Council last night, through their attorney T. T. Parker, and asked that the license fee, now at the rate of $1200 a year, be reduced to $800 to conform to Portland rates.

LOAF DROPS IN MILWAUKEE

Bakers Reduce Price to Keep Pace With Cheaper Flour.

MILWAUKEE, June 16.—The former price of bread and 12 cents a loaf instead of 6 and 12 cents, in Milwaukee, will govern, beginning tomorrow, according to a decision of the Milwaukee wholesale bakers.

MEN'S SUITS FOR LESS.

Jimmy Dunn, the upstairs clothier, sells $20 and $25 men's suits for $14.75. No high rent profit. Take elevator to 3d floor, Oregonian bldg.—Adv.

CLEANSE THE LARGE INTESTINE

Present War Cry of Advanced Physicians. Some of the leading surgeons of the world have gone so far recently as to regard part of the great intestine as so serious as that of tuberculosis and related the patient to perfect health by so doing.

Advertisement for Ben Selling men's suits, featuring a man in a suit and hat, and text about 'News of a Sacrifice in Men's Suits'.

Brother, 9, Wounds Boy of 14. VANCOUVER, Wash., June 16.—(Special.)—Albin Frosch, 14-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Frosch, a mile west of Sara, was shot accidentally and dangerously injured by his brother, 9 years old. Albin was passing through a door and his younger brother was carrying a shotgun which was accidentally discharged.

Advertisement for 'GOOD CARS CHEAP!' with large text and a small illustration of a car.

Advertisement for 'The Wintner Company' located at Twenty-Third and Washington Streets, Portland, offering 'NOW!' deals.

Advertisement for 'Changes in Train Time---Astoria Division and Inauguration of Clatsop Beach Summer Schedule Saturday, June 19' with a circular logo for Spokane, Portland, and Seattle.