

FIRST CHOICE VOTES ELECT G. L. BAKER

Official Count on Election of Commissioners and Auditor Is Completed.

METERS ARE LOST BY 3237

Majority Against Sunday Closing of Grocery Stores Is More Than Two to One—Tabulation of Other Measures Is Continued.

George L. Baker was elected a member of the City Commission on first choice votes. He has 529 votes over the majority necessary for election. Commissioner C. A. Bigelow was re-elected on first and second choice votes. He secured 652 more votes than William Adams, his nearest opponent. With his first and second choice votes he received 201 more than the majority necessary to elect. These are the figures shown by the official count completed yesterday by City Auditor Barbur. They differ little from the unofficial count as reported immediately after the election.

Commissioner-elect Baker is the first man to be elected to the position of Commissioner on first choice votes since Portland has had the preferential voting system. In the first election, two years ago, all of the Commissioners were elected on second choice votes. The counting of the votes for the officers was completed, but the task of counting the vote cast for the various measures was only partially finished.

Meters Lost by 3237 Votes.

The official count shows that the water meters were defeated by 3237 votes. There were 15,844 votes for the meters and 19,121 against them. The Sunday grocery store closing ordinance received 19,244 favorable votes and 592 against. These two measures were as far as the count ran up to closing time last night. Other measures will be tabulated today.

The official count shows that there were a total of 66,841 first choice votes cast. The majority necessary to elect therefore was 16,711. Mr. Baker exceeded this number by 239, having received a total of 17,521 first choice votes. Mr. Bigelow exceeded it by 117, his second choice votes to get the majority necessary. Mr. Adams was only 652 votes behind on first and second choices. Boon Cason was the last candidate in the race. He got a total of 795 votes of all kinds. He ran below the two Socialist candidates.

Barbur Is First Choice.

Auditor Barbur was re-elected on first choice votes. He received a total of 25,336 first choice as compared with 2314 for Monroe Goldstein and 1451 for Emma Golub.

Following is a tabulation of the candidates for Commissioner in the order in which they received the first, second and third choice votes received by each:

	First Choice	Second Choice	Third Choice
Baker	17,521	2,090	2,090
Bigelow	17,789	1,117	1,117

RURAL CREDITS TOPIC

W. H. H. DUFUR ADVOCATES ISSUE OF NON-INTEREST-BEARING BOND.

Marion and Linn County Granges Hear Address and Adopt Resolutions Advocating Plan.

W. H. H. Dufur, of this city, addressed a joint meeting of Marion and Linn County Pomona granges Wednesday at Marion, on "Rural Credits." Farmers filled the hall to its capacity and many prominent business men were present. Mr. Dufur explained the plan of rural credits based on non-interest-bearing bonds and contended that this plan will place the hands of the farmer cheap money for improvements, for clearing lands and opening up new districts now idle for lack of money for development. He declared that the back-to-the-soil movement will never succeed as long as farmers have to pay the present heavy rate of interest, as improvements and clearing of land cannot go forward.

Mr. Dufur condemned the disposition on the part of cities and states to issue bonds for everything, and declared unless checked the result will be disaster.

"I do not expect rural credits to come quickly," said Mr. Dufur, "but this will come as rural free mail delivery came, as the postal savings banks came and as the agricultural secretary came—by keeping hammering. Rural credits will benefit not only the farmer, but all classes of business. It will help the banker; it will help bring prosperity to this country and it will help solve the taxation question."

At the conclusion of Mr. Dufur's address a resolution was adopted endorsing the plan for rural credits suggested, and Mr. Dufur was thanked for his address.

PENNSYLVANIA LINES WIN

Portland Employes Notified System Gets Grand Prize at Fair.

Local representatives of the Pennsylvania Railroad system yesterday were glad to receive by telegraph the tidings that the grand prize has been awarded to the Pennsylvania system by the international jury of awards at the Panama-Pacific Exposition at San Francisco.

"This is the greatest honor within the grant of the jury," says the message. "Nearly all the important roads in the country competed for the prize. The Pennsylvania exhibit is reported to be a comprehensive one, being both entertaining and instructive.

E. W. Mosher, city passenger agent for the Pennsylvania in Portland, has been appointed to take charge of the company's San Francisco exhibit for the month of November. Each of the Coast passenger agents will be assigned to similar duty for a month at a time.

LEADER IS HONORED

Oddfellows Present Chair to Robert Andrews.

NEARLY 250 AT RECEPTION

Grand Patriarch of Grand Encampment Literally Covered With Roses Showered on Him as He Receives Gift.

High honors were paid Robert Andrews, grand patriarch of the Grand Encampment of Oregon and past grand master of the Grand Lodge of Oddfellows of Oregon, last night at the reception held in the hall of Orient Lodge, East Sixth and East Alder streets, given by Golden Rule Encampment No. 28 and Ellison Encampment No. 1, Golden Rule Encampment held a brief session, after which the lodge hall was thrown open for the reception. Ellison Encampment came in a body from the West Side.

The reception was one of the most delightful held, and it closed with a banquet, attended by nearly 250 members. C. C. Brown, N. P. Tomlinson and A. K. Carrier were the committee of arrangements. N. P. Tomlinson presided during the open meeting.

A musical and literary programme was rendered, including selections by Finley's quartet and readings by J. A. Finley and J. Shepherd. The interesting feature of the evening was the presentation to Grand Patriarch Andrews of a beautiful leather rocker, which part of the programme was a surprise to him. Chief Patriarch A. S. Sturr summoned Grand Patriarch Andrews before him and then recounted the various accomplishments of the grand patriarch during his official life, for the Oddfellows and Grand Encampment, and as each accomplishment was mentioned a bouquet of roses was presented to him. Chief Patriarch A. S. Sturr rolled into the hall concealed with roses so it looked like a bower of flowers and the grand patriarch was placed in the rose chair. As he took his seat there came a shower of roses from all over the hall. Roses literally showered on and over him until the grand patriarch was nearly hidden under the blossoms.

Grand Patriarch Andrews was deeply affected by the demonstration. He responded to the presentation speech of the chief patriarch, expressing his appreciation of the high honors given him. Mr. Andrews said that if he had been able to do anything for the Oddfellows of Oregon and the grand encampment of Oregon, his services had been more than compensated by the honors tendered him. Then came short talks, when the entire audience repaired to the banquet hall, where the remainder of the evening was spent. Many spoke briefly and a reunion held.

Grand Patriarch Andrews was elected grand master of the grand lodge of Oregon in 1902, during which time the order made rapid progress and he was called on to make important decisions. He was elected grand representative to the sovereign grand lodge in 1903, and trustee of the Oddfellows' Home in 1909 and 1915, and has served as president of the board since 1912. This home is considered one of the best managed of its kind in the United States. Mr. Andrews was elected grand patriarch of the grand encampment of Oregon in 1915.
