ADDITIONAL SCHOOL TEACHERS CHOSEN

Swimming Among New Departments for Several Sectional Institutions.

PUPILS ASKED TO MARCH

Mayor and Chamber of Commerce Request Co-operation of Board in Public Events-Many Matters Under Advisement.

Additional teachers for Portland schools for the coming year were chosen by the School Board yesterday. R. Q. Steele was elected principal of Highland School to take the place of J. H. Stanley, recently chosen for the position but who resigned because of

A Jeanette Paddock was elected history instructor at Jefferson High School and Marguerite Rohse was elected teacher in German and English. George H. Buxton was chosen to direct manual training work at the same school

Stanley Borieske was elected instruc-tor in physical training and mathe-matics at Lincoln High School and Mrs. Anna Shillock was chosen assistant supervisor in music. Mrs. Georgia Swafford, Lottie Milam and Clara Pierce were elected cooking supervisor and assistants at Lincoln.

Girls' Trades Teachers Named. Teachers for the Girls' School of Trades vacation school were elected as follows: Sewing, Grace Fields, Nellie Gaffney, Katherine McDonald, and Mrs. Lucy E. Thomas; millinery, Grace Fer-guson and Mrs. Margaret Walker; do-mestic science, Grace LaBrie and Laura Recommendations of Robert H. Krohn, physical director of the Portland schools, that Miss Millie Schloth be employed as swimming instructor for the girls, assisted by Miss Lucile Bronaugh, and that Robert Krohn, Jr., be placed in charge of gymnastic work at Jefferson High School, were referred to the teachers' committee.

Now that swimming pools have been provided in the new Couch and Shattuck schools, swimming has come to be regarded as a part of an education and Dr. Alan Welch Smith, member of the School Board, has offered a trophy which will be given to the novice pupil who learns to gwim in the school tanks most quickly and makes the most progress in a given period.

Departments Added to Schools. The Board decided yesterday that the Allen School will be provided next year with manual training equipment and rooms for backward children will be installed in the Albina, Couch and Shattuck schools. Domestic science classes will be added in the Ladd, Richmond, Shattuck, Couch, Montavilla, Sellwood and Allen schools.

Requests that school children participate in two affairs after the schools close this Summer were embodied in letters received yesterday by the Board from Mayor Albee and the Chamber of Commerce. The Mayor said that the Liberty Bell will reach Portiand July 15, and it was desired that the school children participate in the welcome. Suggestions and co-operation were asked. The Board members expressed approval of the idea, even though the event will occur after the schools have been dismissed for the year.

The Chamber of Commerce advised that on June 28 there will be a party of prominent Chinese visitors in the city and it was desired that Chinese school children march in a parade in school children march in a parade in honor of the visitors. This was re-ferred to the teachers' committee. Two delegations visited the School Board yesterday, the first to ask that the Directors provide improvements for Hawthorne School. The matter was taken under advisement.

Mrs. W. I. Swank, accompanied by a committee representing the Holladay Parent-Teacher Association, asked that the manual training work at that school be continued as a part of the Summer school. She presented a peti-tion to this effect, signed by 81 stu-dents. This and similar applications from other sections of the city were re-ferred to Superintendent Alderman.

Woodstock Women Make Request. A request came from Mrs. Leander Martin asking that the people of Wood-stock be allowed the use of the school building throughout the Summer and that lights be provided for the school and the playgrounds. The matter was

Saturday afternoon and a time for canvassing the vote. It was arranged that
