MAUDE ADAMS DUE SOON

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN COMING OF CLEVER ACTRESS.

"Quality Street," to Appear at Heilig Theater, Will Prove Novel Play to Many of Patrons.

There is always interest in the appearances of Maude Adams. In the first place, there is always interest in the little actress herself, and in the second she usually has something to offer that is worth while. There probably is more than the usual interest being displayed just now in the engagement of Miss Adams at the Heilig next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, owing to the fact that the play in which she is to be seen is J. M. Barrie's comedy, "Quality Street." To many people this play will have all the freshness of novelty. Miss Adams first gave it in this country 14 years ago, and it will always be remembered by those who saw it then as one of the most charming of all the Barrie plays. In addition it gave to Miss Adams a role in which she won a success that did much to establish that enormous following which has caused her to be counted as the most popular actress in this or any other country.

A critic once wrote of "Quality Street": "It is a play of sentiment with a touch of comedy and a dash of the Georges in England and introduces you to two of the most delightful young women that you ever met. They are sisters. One, Susan Throssell, is an old maid, and Phoebe threatens to follow in her footsteps. But a manly young doctor comes into her life and she falls in love with him. But the big goose goes off to the Napoleonic wars and it is five years before he returns. Then poor Phoebe, whose life has been very gay, has to win him back. In the doing of this you have your play."

Miss Adams' rendition of Phoebe is considered one of her most artistic accomplishments. The sale of seats for the engagement of the actress, which is to be of half a week with a matinee on Wednesday, is to open this morning.

ORDERS GIVEN THEATERS.
 MUSICIANS DRAW UP NEW SET OF REGULATIONS.

Number for Each House Decided On and Everything Arranged Except Owners' Consent.

Theatrical managers and owners of moving-picture shows in Portland are to be relieved of some of their duties. The Musicians' Union is to tell them precisely how many men they must employ under every possible condition and also how much they must pay those men.

At a recent meeting of the Musicians' Union it was ordered: "After September 1 the Heilig Theater shall employ no fewer than 10 men in its orchestra at shows for which it charges $2 or more; no fewer than eight men at $1.50, and no fewer than seven men at $1 shows."

"After the same date the Empress and the Pantages theaters shall employ no fewer than six men in their orchestras."

"The 16-cent moving-picture houses must employ four musicians and the 5-cent houses two musicians."

Should any of the theaters elect to employ fewer than the scheduled number of musicians the scale of wages for those actually employed is to be increased in fixed proportions with the decrease in numbers.

Neither was "The Oaks" forgotten. It was decreed that hereafter no non-union musician is to be employed at "The Oaks" at all, but exception was made for the Luther College Band, of Norway, which now is touring the country.

STRONG WORDS

—from a strong paper about the wisdom of securing title insurance when you make a real estate deal.

"The advantage of a policy, when a man wishes to convert his property into cash quickly or to make loans upon it, has been proved a gain and again by experience. The man with a guaranteed title finds that he can borrow money with as much ease as if he—had stocks and bonds."—Chicago Tribune.

employ fewer than the scheduled number of musicians the scale of wages for those actually employed is to be increased in fixed proportions with the decrease in numbers.

Neither was "The Oaks" forgotten. It was decreed that hereafter no non-union musician is to be employed at "The Oaks" at all, but exception was made for the Luther College Band, of Norway, which now is touring the country.

And whenever a traveling band or non-resident band, although its members be unionized, is employed to play at "The Oaks," the same number of local musicians are to be employed in the same band must be engaged for the same day and paid for whether they play or not.

Thus, when Sousa's Band comes here next month with its 60 musicians, all of whom are union men, 60 Portland musicians must be hired at the regular scale of wages for the same day.

John P. Cordray, manager of "The Oaks," declared last night that he will not agree to any such regulations.

It is understood that the moving-picture people are preparing to dispense with their orchestras altogether.

BORROWING IS DOWNFALL
 Dismissed Policeman Tells Board How He Became Bankrupt.

Borrowing of money led to the downfall of L. A. Daugherty, a policeman, according to testimony introduced yesterday before the Municipal Civil Service Board in a hearing of charges preferred by Mayor Albee against the policeman. The board took the case under advisement.

Mr. Daugherty said he was deeply in debt and borrowed money on salaried keepers on his beat. Finally he had to go into bankruptcy to ward off lawsuits. He was dismissed by Mayor Albee "for the good of the service."

The Civil Service Board sustained Mayor Albee in his dismissal of Policeman R. R. Bailey.

The board also sustained the dismissal of Charles Harbick and J. H. Armstrong, laborers in the public works department.

"Mr. Jaeger, I'm Surprised!"

Why Are You Selling Things So Cheap?"

—This remark was made yesterday by the wife of one of Portland's most prominent city officials.

—She was surprised, just like thousands of others, to find prices upon high-grade jewelry so low.

—The fact that she purchased solid silverware to the amount of $325, and many other articles throughout the store expresses best how appreciative this lady was of the wonderful opportunity to save.

—Now we mention this little occurrence just to show how people feel about JAEGER BROS.' REMOVAL SALE.

—If YOU haven't attended the sale you must come now. If you figure it to be just a commonplace affair or an ordinary sale you, too, will be surprised, just like Mrs. —

—Every article from the smallest to the largest, including Diamonds, Silverware, Watches, etc., all greatly reduced.

—Especially attractive prices on gifts for the blushing bride and the sweet girl graduate.

E. H. Holt Piano Company Seeking Cash

Retiring $40,000.00 worth of preferred stock in our company to satisfy stockholders. I am positively selling pianos, and good pianos, and player-pianos at prices never before offered to the public. I have Sohmer's, Behning's, both in uprights and grands. I have Chase & Baker's, M. Schulz, Strohber's and many other pianos and players of the highest standard makes. Surely if you ever expect to buy a piano you cannot afford to allow this great opportunity to pass by unnoticed.

This is not an ordinary every-day advertised sale, as you will note from the prices I am making; it is cash that I am seeking; therefore, prospective buyers who have the cash can now make that money go further to- wards the purchase of a standard instrument than ever before, and for a very small increase in price I have made arrangements with the bank to accommodate you by giving you a reasonable length of time to pay for the instrument you may choose.

For instance, I have a number of second-hand pianos—old, but in good condition, good makes, consisting of Steinway, Chickering, Kimball, Marshall & Wendall, etc., ranging in prices from $75.00 up. I have three pianos manufactured by one of the most famous manufacturers, brand new, but shop-worn, which will be sold for $143.00, $165.00 and $185.00. I have several splendid player-pianos, finest makes, brand new, that will be sold for $250.00 each, including player music.

I have grands and player grands; in fact, I do not want to boast, but I can truthfully say that my stock has always been considered of the highest class and one of the largest carried in the City of Portland. It has been, and is still my aim, to maintain a house of quality, and, while this financial depression has caused me to make a great sacrifice on this beautiful stock of goods, I am going to remain in business, and my customers will receive the same attention as though they had paid the full price, for I appreciate to the fullest extent the meaning of satisfied customers.

Give me a call and you will buy. E. H. HOLT, President.
