

SHRINERS ARE BUSY

Elaborate Preparations Made for Conclave at Seattle.

PORTLAND TO BE INVADED

Hundreds of Delegates From Various Parts of Country With Many Brass Bands Will Visit and Be Entertained Here.

If you see a man with a hunted look in his eye, his sleeves rolled up, his collar off and his shirt unbuttoned, fearing wildly down the street any time between noon and 3 P. M. pay no attention to him at all.

If you see two such men, it will be two Shriners. And if you see a whole army of them, it will be an army of Shriners.

Every day is the Shriners' "busy day" now, and will be until the big Seattle meeting, July 12, 14 and 15.

Those poor Portland fellows have undertaken a big contract. In the first place, they have agreed to have 1000 members in the parade in Seattle on Thursday, July 15.

The meeting in Seattle this year will be most notable, and will likely be largely attended on account of the exposition in San Francisco.

Al Kader Temple, band and patrol will leave Portland at midnight Sunday, July 11, accompanied by Potentate George W. Stapleton and his divan.

Local Man Prospective Officer. It is more than likely that Past Potentate W. C. Bristol, of Al Kader, will be elected Imperial outer guard.

On Sunday, July 11, on the way to the meeting in Seattle, six temples will visit Portland: Bahia Temple, of Reading, with 200 people; Pyramis Temple, of Bridgeport, Conn., 125 people; El Kalah and El Korah temples, of Boise and Salt Lake, with 125 people; Panzer Temple, of Omaha, and El Jaber Temple, of Denver, each with 150 people.

Communities Are Named. To entertain the visiting Shriners Potentate Stapleton has appointed a number of committees, consisting of:

W. J. Hoffman, general chairman; J. E. Werlein, vice-chairman; J. P. Menefee, secretary; Ira P. Powers, treasurer; automobile committee: W. L. Morgan, chairman; reception committee, who will have as his aides A. L. Fahley and H. W. Foster; George E. Ralston, chairman of the ladies' reception committee.

Headquarters for the organization that week will be at the Imperial Hotel, with W. H. Galvan in charge and Phil Mettschman, Jr., as his assistant.

Other cities in Oregon between Portland and San Francisco are making strenuous efforts to have the train halt there, and John M. Scott, passenger agent of the Southern Pacific, is making an effort to satisfy as many of these towns as possible.

A partial list of the candidates who will be initiated tonight into the White Shrine of Jerusalem is given below: Mrs. Mary E. Houck, Roseburg; Mrs. Sarah B. Guehn, Charles B. McGill, Mrs. Lily B. McElroy, Mrs. Charles McElroy, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Lillian E. Daniel, Portland; Mrs. Pearl Grover, Toney, Herbert L. Toney, Hays; Holmes, Mrs. Minnie V. Edward Cookingham, Chairman, and Governor Member of Board—Dr. Bullitt Points Out Need of Work.

In announcing the personnel of the Oregon committee of the Navy League of the United States, Dr. James B. Bullitt, Pacific Coast field secretary, said yesterday that the committee's choice for state secretary, whose duty will be to build up the league membership in Oregon, will be made public in a few days.

The Oregon committee is composed of the following: Edward Cookingham, chairman; Governor Willycombe, J. C. Ainsworth, Colonel Henry Cabell, C. C. Cobb, Harry L. Corbett, Franklin T. Griffith, W. M.

The Navy League has adopted for the Pacific Coast states the state committee plan of organization," said Dr. Bullitt yesterday. "In each of these states a strong committee of representative citizens will be formed, who will stand back of the work of the league and in effect make certification to the citizens at large of the great importance of the purposes of the league and the fitness and ability of the organization to render the patriotic service which it offers to the people of the United States."

The announcement from historic Independence Hall regarding the launching of the "League to Enforce Peace, American Branch" with ex-President Taft at its head as permanent chairman, accentuates the necessity of preparedness on the part of the United States, for the proposal is that the statutory powers shall jointly use forthwith both their Manning, secretary of the Associated Charities, 411 Commercial block, or to R. S. Howard, treasurer of the Associated Charities, at Ladd & Tilton Bank.

Donations amounting to $30, reported from the Associated Charities yesterday, brought the total of contributions to its maintenance fund past the $1500 mark.

The total which must be obtained to enable the organization to keep its office open for relief work among the poor throughout the Summer is $5000, and officials now believe that there is a probability that the generous people of Portland will make up the entire amount necessary.

Two donations of more than $100 have been received from individuals and many gifts of from $10 to $25 have been sent in, while there is a list of many scores of donations of from $1 to $5. The campaign has been on only about three weeks, and the average returns each week have been about $500. Among the interesting donations sent in yesterday, aside from the cash given, was a watch donated by the Sanitary Beauty Parlor to a woman who wanted to make herself presentable enough to go out in search of work. Following are a few from among the many cases that appealed to the charities yesterday for help: 1. Young woman of 19, deformed; deserted by her husband. She is alone in the world and has no means of earning a livelihood. Efforts are to be made to procure a position for her as a ticket seller in a motion picture show or at some other work of that nature, which she will be able to do. 2. Man, wife and three children; man has been out of work most of the Winter and family is in serious need. Has nothing with which to cook except a small gas plate. Stove needed. 3. Boy of 13, only support of his mother and small brother; out of work.
