The board of directors of the Cowlits County Fair Association, which will hold its annual fair at Woodland, Sep-tember 23, 24 and 25, has chosen a Cowlitz silo, made by the Ostrander Rall-road & Timber Company, which oper-ates a plant at Ostrander, four miles north of Kelso, for the major prize at the fair. This slio will be given to the dairyman whose herd of five dairy cat-tle is selected as the choicest exhibited. There are no qualifications as to breed but the herd must contain at least five head to qualify for the competi-tion.

FOSSIL, Or., June 20-(Special.)-Sharpshooter Finds Periscope. I have been too deliberate. A good glass has detected the periscope and a sharpshooter has hoped to find a weak spot where the officer's head is. "Fooled again," I think, with unreason-able spite, as I move on. Shells are failing to our left. It is as noisy as a battle scene in a theater pests also are being tried. Sharpshooter Finds Perlacope.
