Swimming Tank Is Asked For.—
Petitions are now being circulated in Montavilla asking the Council and Park Department at once to erect in the Laurelhurst Park a swimming tank and playgrounds. It is set forth in this petition that there are no swimming facilities within five miles of this central district, which is heavily populated. It will accommodate for the present, says the petition, Sunnyside, Laurelhurst, Mount Tabor, Montavilla, Rose City Park, Kern School district, Hawthorne, Richmond, Giencoe and other schools. It is asked that the Park Board "curtail expenses in other directions and provide this swimming tank for the many thousands of school children." The nearest swimming tanks are located at Sellwood and Peninsula children." The nearest swimming tanks are located at Sellwood and Peninsula parks. The Park Board plans contemplate making a lake of that part proposed to be used for a swimming tank and playground. The Sunnyside Improvement Club has been asking for several years for a playground in the Laurelhurst Park, but the board declined to change its plans.

Pastor Bids Farewell.—Rev. J. E. Youel, who has been pastor of the Spokane-Avenue Presbyterian Church, spent his last Sunday at that church spent his last Sunday at that church spent his last Sunday at that church specified by Children's day exercises in Portland vasterday and passed.

"Quality Street" is best described as a study of youth and spinsterhood, with a love affair as its basis. There is an added charm to the play in the fact that it is laid in the long ago, at a time when England's shores were threatened by Napoleon. And while the comedy was written 14 years ago, it is decidedly timely and opportune. The curtain arising on the first act of the
