MISS ADAMS GIVES EXPECTED DELIGHT

Star at Her Best in "Quality Street" and Play is Fragile Masterpiece.

WOMANLY CHARM SHOWN

Barrie Drama Presented at Heilig by Company That Ably Supports Opportunity for Her.

CAST OF "QUALITY STREET."

Valentine Brown......Charles P. Hammot Ensign Blades Stafford Windsor Major Linkwater Morton Selten Lieutenant Spicer Willard Barton Major Budd......Fred Tyler
A Recruiting Sergeant.....

Old SoldierJames L. Carhart DickeyLionel Hogarth Master Arthur Wellesley Tomson...Brownle Burke

GeorgieO'Ella Dunn Byron Silvers, Theodora De Combo Miss Susan Thressel...Angela Ogden Miss Phoebe Thressel...Maude Adams Miss Willoughby-Leonere Chippendale

Young Ladies Paula Matzner Anna Brewer, Edith Butts

BY LEONE CASS BAER.

BY LEONE CASS BAER.

We go to see Maude Adams with expectations keyed to the highest pitch and with Joyous anticipation of an evening of sheer delights. All of which must be set down as tributes to the powers of star and dramatist.

In "Quality Street" there is abundant opportunity to see Maude Adams at her best. The comedy is charged with delightful atmosphere that Barrie knows so well how to create, it has fine literary quality and unfettered fun; and it has Maude Adams the sweetest and most winning of exponents. Possessed of unusual and widely attractive personality, she has the eider than the other, both gentle women in moderate circumstances, live in Quality street. Miss Phoebe Throssel. Maude Adams, is a light-hearted creature with bewitching ringlets and an inclination to fliratiousness as it was then understood. For those Regency days Phoebe is a creature of delicious boildness.

She is in love with Valentine Brown

Sinnott, of the Second District, who arrived in Portland with the Congressional committees on appropriations.

Senators Chamberlain and Lane said also that they would be eager to take whatever action is necessary.

BEAVERTON VOTES BONDS his enlistment and goes off to war to fight Napoleon. Phoebe and her sister, Susan, are left disconsolate, and by a

Under the spell of her witchery Valentine comes to his senses, and by contrast between the vivacious manner of the assumed hoyden and the simple side of Sultan Mehmed at Constanti-

The engagement continues tonight, tomorrow night, and there will be a matinee tomorrow afternoon.

CENTRALIA PLAYS HOST Advance Guard of Cenvention Delegates Is Greeted.

to the auditorium, where a short propramme of reception will be held, after which they will commence their business sessions.

The official programme does not open until tomorrow. The auditing committee of the Women's Relief Corps met this afternoon and the council of the Ladies of the Grand Army tonight. Headquarters for all of the orders have been established by their respective officers, who came in yesterday, and everything is in readiness for the registration of the army of delegates tomorrow. With the completion of the hippodrome ground tonight the finishing touches were put to the preparations for the city's entertainment of the visitors. The State Training School Band today furnished music for the early arrivals.

The remainder of Grand Army of the Republic department officers with exception of Addition Walker of Bremer-

Republic department officers with ex-ception of Adjutant Walker, of Bremer-ton, who is critically ill, arrived late today with delegations from Puget Sound territory. Fifty Wenatche veterans and their wives, accompanie by a drum corps, came in special cars. Special cars bearing Grays Harbor and Willapa Harbor delegates will ar-rive early tomorrow morning. On ar-rival of the Tacoma delegation it was announced that L. D. Beary will be nominated for department commander. Representative Humphrey will be here Thursday to deliver an address,

CUNARDER IN IRISH SEA ES-CAPES SUBMARINE ATTACK.

Captain of Cameronia Turns Vessel at Enemy, Which Dives and

The Cameronia arrived in Liverpool

Sunday.

Mr. Fletcher says that during the run through the Irish Sea a submarine came out of the water, showing the top of her conning tower. To save the Cameronia, Captain Kinnard headed his vessel for the submarine, which dived. After passing over the spot where the underwater boat went down without finding any evidence that the steamer had collided with it, Captain Kinnard changed the course of the Carranza cabinet whose resignations have been accepted, were cognizant of efforts to be made for a solution of Mexican difficulties.

General Carranza, who has thus far declined to accept Villa's offer for a conference to devise a plan for re-es-dignity of the real woman he falls in hople, according to the Tageblatt. Prolove with the real and so tells the false. Then Phoebe knows she is loved for what she is and not for what she pretends.

The Cameronia sailed from New York June 11 for Glasgow by way of Liver-pool. She had on board about 40 first cabin passengers and a large number of persons in the second cabin.

With alluring dexterity Miss Adams with alluring dexterity Miss Adams allment has not been disclosed.

with alluring dexterity Miss Adams and the author skirt along the line over which the fantastic and the actual exchange friendly nods. Throughout its stelling is scattered delightful touches, little glimpses of life and character potently charming.

Miss Adams' support is evenly good, the artistry of Angela Ogden, as the pathetic and prim Miss Susan Throssel, is an exquisite remembrance. Charles P. Hammond as Valentine gave a portrayal of notable excellence.

The engagement has not been disclosed.

Germans Build Warships.

LONDON, June 23.—The Daily Mail's naval correspondent, commenting on the reports from Holland that the Germans are rushing to completion several new battleships armed with guns up to like the pathetic and prim Miss Susan Throssel, is an exquisite remembrance. Charles P. Hammond as Valentine gave a portrayal of notable excellence.

The engagement has not been disclosed. LONDON, June 23 .- The Dally Mail's

He urges that the British Admiralty under no circumstances allow the Ger-mans to gain any ascendancy in this respect.

Youth Alleged Masher.

Benson Wahlley, 19 years old, was too eager last night to secure someone to go "Joy-riding" with him, according to Officer E. L. Nelson, who arrested the young man at Twelfth and Wash-

LEADERS IS PU77LF

Villa's Chief Aide Comes to America and Carranza Ministers Resign.

PEACE REGARDED LIKELY

Obregon's Reported Split With His Superior Gives Washington Hope of Definite Movement for Restoration of Government.

WASHINGTON, June 21 .- The unexpected arrival in the United States of pected arrival in the United States of General Felipe Angeles, who has been General Villa's principal military ex-pert since the split in the Mexican con-stitutionalist movement; and persistent reports, despite denials, of friction be-tween General Carranza and his fleid leader, Obregon, have given rise to speculation in official circles here as to whether certain elements in the con-tending factions are about to inaugutending factions are about to inaugu-rate a definite movement to bring about peace in Mexico as urged by President

Peace Plan Possible.

Villa's spokesman intimated that Angeles had been commissioned to dis-headed his vessel for the submarine, which dived. After passing over the spot where the underwater boat went down without finding any evidence that the steamer had collided with it, Captain Kinnard changed the course of his vessel and got away safely.

Mr. Fletcher added that the passengers on the Cameronia, although many of them saw the periscope of the submarine, were cognizant of afforts to be made for a solution of Mexican difficulties.

General Carranga, who has thus far declined to accept Villa's offer for a conference to devise a plan for re-establishment of a constitutional government, formally notified his Washington representative today that reports of a break beween himself and Obregon were without foundation. However, officials here were inclined to the belief that Obregon and other constitutions. belief that Obregon and other constitu-tionalist leaders who thus far have stood with Carranza in his uncompro-mising attitude, were now ready to talk

Portrayal of Character of Valiena Leaves Impression With Hearers nt Multnomah Ballroom.

A great vocal authority once observed that a public speaker, one with a real message, to succeed and to reach have a persuasive, appealing voice like ber that of an acolian narp.

Such a vocal gift is that poby Mrs. Fenetta Sargent I expects, this enlistment and goes off to washing sellistment and goes off to washing sellistment and goes off to washing such as the sellist of the property of the same time through value as sellistment of the vivacious girl he left behind him, he finds Phoese with her pringlets under a cap and worn out with toil. His lack of warmth at the reuning energy of the loved for herself and not for her wind and to he loved for herself and not for her with the loved for herself and not for herself and not for her with the loved for herself and not f

If you have read that French novel,
"Les Miserables," you remember the unhappy man who became a thief in stealing a loaf of bread to relieve hunger—the prison bird, the brutish galley slave, Jean Valjean.
When Mrs. Haskell pictured Jean asking food and shelter of the good bishop, who described his house as "the house of Christ," the effect was elec-trifying. It was like a play in a thea pleasure. It is an education.

EXAMINATION THEFTS YEAR AFTER YEAR MADE KNOWN.

Information Declared Given by Midshipman is Repeated at Annapolis Inquiry.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 21 .- Testimony tending to show that for at least a year Naval Academy examinations and midshipmen's rating on examinayear by Ralph McK. Nelson, of New York, a "star" man of the first class, who is one of the seven midshipmen recommended for dismissal by Superntendent Fullam. Nelson on one occasion had asked Waddell, according to the story Graham said he was told, how to get in a window of the steam building and sewindow of the steam building and se-cure ratings on examinations. At an-other time the two met in the same building and Nelson showed him ad-vance examination ratings, together with two slips of paper containing sub-jects to be given for a day's work in classroom.

DRUGS

DRUGS

classroom,
Ensign E. B. Hough, who was made a defendant after the court had begun its investigation, was further implicated by the testimony given by Graham, who later mentioned three more of his classmates, Ensigns Overesch, King and Barnett, as having had dealings with Nelson. Waddell also had told him, Graham said, that Moss had nearly a whole examination in calculus nearly a whole examination in calculus on one occasion, which he said he re-ceived through the mails. Moss is the youth who said he had received through the mail from an anonymous source papers which the academy au-thorities assert were actual examina-tion papers stolen from the department of modern languages.

PORTLAND DELEGATION PROMI-NENT AT CHICAGO.

Greatest Pageant in History of Advertising Reviewed by Half Million. Coast Men to Hold Reception

LONDON, June 21.—The Anchor Line steamer Cameronia, under charter to the Cunard line, had a narrow escape from a submarine in the Irish Sea on her voyage from New York to Liverpool, according to Peter Fletcher, of New York, one of the saloon passengers.

Wilson in his recent statement.

General Angeles, passing through Chicago today, en route to Boston, denied there had been any break between himself and Villa. This was asserted also by representatives of General Villam Woodhead, of the Associated Advertising Club of the World. More than two hours tonight the greatest pageant in the history of advertising rolled past the reviewing stand of President William Woodhead, of the World. More than two hours tonight the greatest pageant in the history of advertising rolled past the reviewing stand of President William Woodhead, of the World. More than two hours tonight the greatest pageant in the history of advertising rolled past the reviewing stand of President William Woodhead, of the Associated Advertising Club of the Story of the Associated Advertising Club of the Story of the Story of the Associated Advertising Club of the Story of the Story of the Associated Advertising Club of the Story of the S known advertised articles were symbolized by a series of unique floats.

The opening day of the 11th annual convention of the Associated Advertis-ing Clubs of the World found dele-gates present from every corner of the continent, as well as Hawaiian Islands, Menlla, Australia and England. In the crowds of advertising men which thronged the convention hall and which thronged the convention hall and lobbies of hotels, the white suits and familiar ensign of the Portland Rosarians were recognized.

The Portland delegation consists of George W. Kleiser, Marshall N. Dana, George D. Lee, David M. Botsford, Glenn E. Miller and Hy J. Ellers.

Tonight the Portland delegation occupied a place of hoter on the review. upied a place of honor on the review ing stand with President Woodhead. Tomorrow night at the Auditorium Hotel the Pacific Coast delegations, consisting of Portland, Spokane, Seat-tic Los Angeles and San Francisco, will hold an informal reception to the convention. Mr. Dana is scheduled to address the division of community ad-vertising and vigilance Wednesday.

sweetest and most winning of expose of personal in the ascond cabin, y stractive personality, she has the sweetest arm of the second cabin, y stractive personality, she has the sweetest arm of the second cabin, y stractive personality, she has the sweetest arm of the second cabin, y stractive personality, she has the sweetest arm of the second cabin, y stractive personality, she has the sweetest arm of the second cabin, y stractive personality, she has the sweetest arm of the second cabin, y stractive personality, she has the sweetest strategy and the second cabin, y stractive personality, she has the sweetest strategy and the second cabin, y stractive personality, she has the sweetest strategy and the sweetest ditions of membership in the associa-tion, the substance of the article on membership in the constitution of the association is reprinted. It is as fol-lows: "Anyone who came to or was born in any part of the original Oregon country in all the years up to 1859 is entitled to membership in the association upon application. And it is further set forth that anyone born in any of the Pacific Coast states, now a resident the hearts of an audience, ought to of Oregon, is entitled to become a member of the association upon application to the secretary. The year 1859 was chosen as the closing year of ploneer life, because that year ended the ter-ritorial life of Oregon and was the be-

Spouse's Escort; Takes Her Away.

MARSHFIELD, Or., June 21.—(Special.)—Pursuing his wife and Ben Hyde in a wild auto chase through the streets and finally overtaking them. Charles Tower last night compelled the protesting woman to enter his car and speeded away toward Roseburg after branishing a pistol before numerous persons to whom Mrs. Tower appealed in vain for aid.

Mr. Depoe play wife is an accomplished pianist. Only classical music was on the programme. There were recitations, declamations, solos, chorus songs in a number of different tribal Indian languages. Many of the selections and dances were given in genuine Indian costumes and marked the contrast between the savage and the civilized ages of Indian life.

Mr. Depoe play Tower was arrested at Florence a few weeks ago and tried here after a similar occurrence. He was acquitted by a jury. District Attorney Liljeqvist today refused to take any action with the view to returning Tower for last night's affair.

of Indian life.

Mr. Depoe was educated in the East and is highly esteemed in this locality for his efficient work in educating his own people.

GALENA STRIKE REPORTED

Property Near Colville Said to Give Good Silver Returns.

CENTRALIA, Wash., June 71.—(Special.)—The delegates to the state conventions of the Grand Army, Women's Relief Corps, Ladies of the Grand Army, Romen's Spanish War Veterans, Spanish Auxillary, Sons of Veterans and Daughters of Veterans began arriving this afterno's visitors. At that time all but the distant delegations will have arrived. A special train bearing the Puyallup and Orting veterans and women was among the diegations will have arrived. A special train bearing the Puyallup and Orting veterans and women was among the first to arrive today.

The Spanish Veterans will practically the Underwood-Simmons acts, extends also to goods imported in ships of falso from the first to arrive tomorrow morning. Headed by the Vancouver band they will march COLVILLE, Wash., June 21 .- (Spe-

A Shipment of Likly Famous Luggage Just Received

HERE ARE SOME LAWFUL COMBI- | DOUBLE NATIONS for TODAY-TOMORROW

136 A 15c bar Wildflower Mount Hood Complexion Soap.

496 A 75c Vulcanized Rubber - Cushion Hair Brush.
A 25c box Wood-Lark Brush Powder. No. 3 for A 10c Stiff-Bristle Nail Brush, A 10c Nail File.
A 10c Toilet Pumice.

A 15c Sanitary Tooth - Brush Holder free with any tooth brush you select. No. 4 for 5 for A 25c Cla-Wood Tooth Brush.

A 25c box Listerated Tooth Powder,

250 A 25c box U-AR-DAS Powder for the complexion.

A 10c Complexion Velvet Chamols. No. 7 for A full pound of Oregon Lawn, 24 Envelopes, 10c, A 25c Pocket Shoe Polisher. A 10c box Polish, tan or black.

One pair Tweezers.
One pkg. Emery Boards.
One Orangewood Stick.
One Blackhead Remover.

850 Two Japanese Fantail Gold Fish, regularly 50c.
One Globe Aquarium, regularly 50c.
One box Goldfish Food, 10c.

for A $1.50 Hot - Water Bottle, one year $1.48 A 50c Combination Attachment.

$1.48 A $1.00 Zinc Douche Pan. A $1.00 Fountain Syringe. No. 13 for A 75c Bath Cap.
A 25c pair Bathing Slippers. No. 14 for A 25c can White Enamel.
A 10c Bristle Varnish Brush.
A 25c bottle "Wood-Lark" Forniture
Polish.

YES, SIR! WE SELL PATENT "CUT" PRICES Prices as low, or lower, than any store in Portland and, what's more, we will not try by "skilled salesmanship" to sell you something else—just as good, better or different.

ORDER YOUR DAILY NEEDS BY PHONE, FREE DELIVERY. OPEN A MONTHLY ACCOUNT.

ALWAYS A SAVING FOR YOU AT EVERY COUNTER. 25c Rosewater....17e
One pound Epsom
Salts......6e
One pound Hospital Cotton....19e

Woodard, Clarke & Co.

Alder at West Park

OFFICERS OF OREGON CITY LODGE OUT AND LIQUOR TRIAL ENDS.

Demands of Council Met; Mayor and Other Officials Are on House Committee to Regulate.

cial.)—Upon the resignation of C. S. Noble, dictator; W. Renolds, steward, and George Young, chairman of the house committee, City Attorney Schuebel today dropped the cases against the officers of the Moose Lodge, No. 961. The case was set for trial this morning before Peccorger Loder.

Mr. Schuebel Issued the following statement this afternoon:

"I dismissed the complaint against the officers of the Moose Lodge, as recommended by the Council, because I am satisfied that there will be no more violation of the liquor law by the lodge. Renolds pleaded guilty to sell-

BANKS CLUB REORGANIZED Formation of Union High School

District Is Advocated.

BANKS, Or., June 21. — (Special.) — The Banks Commercial Club was re-are that the club will be active henceforth.

The following officers were elected:
Dr. W. B. Munford, president; W. O.
Galaway, vice-president; L. A. Fernsworth, secretary; George H. Pryor, treasurer. A committee was appointed to take steps for the formation of a union high school district, with the school at Banks. On the committee are Charles T. Powne, C. C. Ailer and L. A Fernsworth.

Fernsworth.
Steps for obtaining lower freight and passenger rates and for an improvement of the telephone service were

INDIANS HAVE EXERCISES

Classical Music and Unique Features on Siletz Programme.

NEWPORT, Or., June 21.—(Special.)

—One of the most interesting commencement exercises in the United States was held Saturday at Orton, Or., at the Upper Farm Day School, Siletz Reservation, the pupils and faculty of which are sindians. Robert R. Depoe and Mrs. Depoe teach at the school. Mr. Depoe plays the violin and his wife is an accomplished pianist.

Only classical music was on the programme. There were recitations, decia-

LAWYER IS NOT BARRED

Plea to Prevent Water Superintendent From Practice Denied.

LA GRANDE, Or., June 21 .- (Special.) -George T. Cochran, State Water Superintendent, has been allowed by Circuit Judge Knowles to continue in law been practicing law a good many years and that, though not much of late, the persons who deemed themselves injured by Mr. Cochran had the recourse of proceeding against him direct.

KLAMATH CLUB PROPOSED

Formation of Commercial Organization Discussed by Civic Association.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., June 21. OREGON CITY, Or., June 21.—(Special.)—At a meeting held Saturday night by the Chamber of Commerce, Klamath Falis Business Men's Associa-

POSTAL EMPLOYES TO RISE

Unexpected Balance Permits Promotion of More Than 12,000.

organized at a meeting of citizens held here today, and plans looking to the improvement and prosperity of Banks were launched. The meeting was the first held since 1910, but the prospects are that the club will be active hence-

BIG PATRIOTIC DEMONSTRATION AT GLADSTONE FOR JULY 5.

Representative Hawley to Speak and Visitors From All Parts of Clackamas Are Expected.

OREGON CITY, Or., June 21 .- (Speal.)-If the plans of the joint committee of the local Moose Lodge and the citizens of Gladstone are carried out the Fourth of July celebration to be held July 5 at Gladstone Park will be by far the largest affair of its kind ever held there. Members of the committee said today that all parts of Clackamas County would send delegations, that all Oregon City would participate, and that a large portion of the Moose Lodge of Portland, with their wives and families, would join in the big celebration. ittee of the local Moose Lodge and

The Fallsarians, of Oregon City, have

The Fallsarians, of Oregon City, have been invited to act as a bodyguard for Representative Hawley, who will be the speaker of the day.

A big chorus, in which all singers of Gladstone and Oregon City have been asked to take part, will appear on the musical programme to be given preceding Mr. Hawley's address. The first meeting of the chorus will be held Thursday night at Gladstone school-house, and it will be trained by Nieta Barlow Lawrence, of Oregon City.

Mrs. Lawrence will get the singers in shape during the present week, although she will not appear on the prothough she will not appear on the programme, as she will be absent at the

BAG GOES UP 28,900 FEET

Exposition Balloonist Declares His Feat Is Record.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 21 .- Edward SAN FRANCISCO, June 21.—Edward Unger, in the balloon Jewel City, which rose from the Panama-Pacific Exposition grounds today in an attempt to break the world's altitude record, landed at Centerville at 5:35 o'clock. Unger says he reached an altitude of 28,900 feet, which he said is a record. Official records, however, show that Berson and Suring at Berlin June 30, 1961, reached an altitude of 35,420 feet, Unger landed without injuring himself but in his descent his balloon Unger landed without injuring him-self, but in his descent his balloon struck an electric light wire and broke it, plunging Centerville into darkness for the night. Clarence Drake, of Spokane, the sec-ond one of Unger's companions to cut loose in a parachute, dropped into San Francisco Bay, but was rescued unin-Centerville is in Alameda County, about two and a half miles from Niles and 31 miles from San Francisco.

The afhairons is the largest of sea birds. Cats were domesticated in Egypt as early

