Large Attendance at Encampment and Convention, Respectively, Assured.

Many Seeking to Join.

The 30th grand encampment of the Indian War Veterans of the North Pacific Coast will be held in Portland today, to be followed tomorrow by the 43d annual meeting of the Oregon Pioneer Association...

A banquet at the Woodmen of the World Hall, Eleventh and Alder streets, will be the principal feature of the encampment today.

George M. Himes, secretary of the Oregon Pioneer Association, reported last night that 498 pioneers had registered for Thursday's gathering.

"During the year," said Mr. Himes, "70 deaths occurred among those attending last year's reunion."

"All sections of the West are to be represented at the gathering. Among the cities which I know are to be represented are Walla Walla, Boise, Pasadena and San Jose. All sections of the state are also to be represented."

Mr. Himes said that he received many inquiries as to who was eligible to join the association and attend the reunion.

"Any one coming West in 1859 or before is eligible," he said.

"Charlie Chaplin," Arrested, Goes Meekly to Jail.

Impersonator of Comedian Arouses Wrath of Police Sergeant When He Filtrix With Maids on Street.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN in "reel" life can flirt with strange women, insult officers of the law and get away with it; but when actually introduced on Portland streets the career of a slapstick comedian is not a happy one.

Police Sergeant Lyons watched the proceedings for some time with increasing disapproval. Finally he decided upon intervention.

"You're awfully funny on a screen, but not loose on Washington street," spoke the enforcer of the law, as he collared Goldstein. The crowd on the sidewalks watched breathlessly to see what would happen to the legend of the "reel" Charlie Chaplin...

But nothing like this happened, and the unfortunate imitation of Charlie Chaplin followed the officer meekly to jail. He was released shortly on his own recognizance, and will face the charge of disorderly conduct in Municipal Court today.
