Conspiracy to Commit Election Frauds Charged by Grand Jury at Indianapolis.

MAYOR IS INVOLVED ALSO

Bribery, Blackmail, Voting Machine Tampering, Importing of Repeaters Allegations; Several Surrender to Sheriff.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 22 .- One hun dred and twenty-eight men were indicted today by the Marion County grand jury on charges of conspiracy to commit election frauds.

Fewer than half of the indicted men, many of whom are high in political party councils, had surrendered to sheriff Coffin and given bond tonight.

The indictment, which is in 18 counts, charges that the conspiracy began prior to the primary of May 5, 1914, and extended through the election of November 3, 1914. It charges illegal voting, intimidation, false registration, padding the tally speets, stuffing the ballot boxes, illegal manipulation of voting machines, blackmailing of saloonkeepers and resort owners, bribery and vote-buying.

Conviction of the charge of con-more than 14 years.

All the men—Democrats, Republicans and Progressives—are named in a single item. Included among those indicted are said to be a number of primary, registration and election officials. The indictment charges certain of these officials with continuous. of these officials with conspiracy to permit persons to register falsely and to vote falsely in the primary and in the election. Another count charges re-

CHICAGO, June 22 .- An Impromptu discussion of temperance was greeted with cheers by delegates to the 11th annual convention of the Advertising Clubs of the World here today.

"The applause given the idea of temperance by the country's advertising men is significant of the National trend of thought," commented H. S. Houston, of New York, whose name has been mentioned as next president of been mentioned as next president of the associated clubs. He said: "These men are in closer touch with public feeling and desires than any public feeling and desires than any other class except newspapermen. They reflect a general state of mind on a grave problem and conclusions may be drawn from their attitude."

Henry D. Estabrook, of New York, added to the comment: "If it be true that accredited church organizations are not as careful as the secular press in what they publish," he said, "and that they accept advertising rejected by their worldly contemporaries, then they have much to learn from business in the matter of every-day morals and in the matter of every-day morals and ethics." Newspaper Standard Adopted.

In the newspaper section, the follow-ing standard of practice was adopted it represents the alms and purpose of most of the newspapers of the United States. The standard binds the mem bers:

"To make none but true statements of circulation.
"To maintain advertising rates as published.

"To reject fraudulent advertising.

"To reject fraudulent advertising.

"To oppose free publicity."

Present day newspapers are a better advertising medium than ever because they have a more gripping National power—a power that should be studied by every thinking advertiser. Joseph H. Finn, of Chicago, told the delegates.

Mr. Finn spoke of "The Newspaper, the Advertisef and the Advertising Agent." He declared that advertising is the news about merchandising and is the news about merchandising and that there was nothing closer to the hearts of the reading public than the "live news concerning buying opportunity.

"I believe in the efficiency of news-paper advertising because I have seen what it can do in such a variety of covering such a divergency propositions that the possibility of luck or accident must be eliminated from consideration.

NEW YORK, June 22 .- Confirmation of the much-discussed French credit by American bankers was received to-day, when J. P. Morgan & Co. an-nounced the virtual completion of a one-year loan to the Paris branch of the Rothschilds, the latter acting for the French government and the Bank of France, as well as a syndicate of French bankers.

The amount of the losa and its an extended tour of the National forests, during which he studied at close range forestry problems, Secretary Houston, in a letter to Chief Forester Graves, made public today, described his experience as "invaluable." He also expressed approval of the work of the forest service.

To familiarize himself with the management and development of forest resources, Secretary Houston visited typical forests in each of the six great districts of the West and came into personal contact not only with the rangers and guards, but with the homesteaders, cattlemen and lumbermen.

The smount of 'the losn and its interest yield are yet to be determined, but it is intimated that the sum is not likely to exceed $50,000,630, at approvimately 5 per cent. It will be secured by collateral in the form of high-grade American railway bonds, to be placed with Morgan & Co. These bonds include some of the senior securities of America's premier roads, worth are owned by French investors. The proceeds of the loan will be used by the French government for payment here of its heavy commercial obligations incurred in the purchase of war supplies and foodstuffs.
