

WOODARD GRADUATE HIGH

Dr. Luther R. Dyott Delivers Annual Commencement Address.

35 ARE HONOR STUDENTS

Young Men and Women Are Advised to Be True to Selves in All Contingencies; Principal Says Class Is Unusual.

"Life is a sifting process," said Dr. Luther R. Dyott, pastor of the First Congregational Church, in his address delivered before the graduating class of the Lincoln High School last night at the annual June commencement exercises in the auditorium of the school.

The address was to have been given by Dr. H. D. Sheldon, of the University of Oregon, but he was unable to be present.

"This relentless process of sifting and elimination," continued the speaker, "seems almost cruel at times."

Dr. Dyott urged on the graduates the necessity of belonging to the class that can endure the sifting—to those that can live their life and be true to themselves no matter what may happen.

Requirements of Success Pointed Out. He pointed out that the great men are not always those whom the world considers successful.

There are two things which are necessary for success of the worldly kind," he said, "ability and opportunity. If Lincoln had had the same opportunity as some other time or in some other place, he would have been great nevertheless, but the world would probably have never learned of his greatness."

The speaker urged the members of the class to go to college. He said that he did not consider time spent in attending an education time lost, even though no definite training of a practical character was secured.

"A man can be efficient along some particular line," he said, "and still be ignorant."

Honor Pupils Reflect Credit. T. T. Davis, who has just completed his 15th year as principal of the Lincoln High School, said that the school was proud of the class which was being graduated.

"We are proud of it because of the ability of the members and what they have done. Out of the hundred members of the class, thirty-five, or more than a third, graduated with honor pupils. This is an unusual thing."

The importance of the study of the German language was the subject of a brief address of Gus C. Moser, who presented on behalf of the Federated German-Speaking Societies the German prize to Edward Bohman, one of the graduates.

"Next to the English the German language is the most widely spoken tongue in the United States," said Mr. Moser. "A knowledge of German is also necessary to be able to appreciate the German literature."

Among the musical numbers which gave variety to the programme was a selection by a girls' chorus, a cello solo by Richard Montgomery, a vocal solo by Miss Gertrude Moore, a violin solo by Miss Alice Green, and a piano solo by Miss Dorothy Dunaway. The Lincoln High School orchestra gave several selections.

The diplomas were presented by Dr. Alan Welch Smith, of the Board of School Directors, assisted by the Chairman M. C. Munly. Those receiving diplomas were:

DON'T USE SOAP ON YOUR HAIR

When you wash your hair, don't use soap. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle. The best thing to use is just plain mulled coconut oil, for it is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap, and it's soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff.

a rope made from knotted bed sheets, which he gutted the store and their living quarters above at an early hour yesterday morning.

The firemen were living in rooms above the store, were awakened shortly after 2 o'clock by smoke. When they arose they found escape by the stairs already had been cut off by the flames, but coolly knotted bed sheets together, tied one end to a balcony post and slid 20 feet to the street.

The windows of the building were broken by an explosion which occurred shortly after the firemen had arrived, and probably was caused by the explosion of gasoline and benzine stored in a grocery store which was practically a total loss. Milton Hager, a fruit grower of Montavilla, was owner of the two-story frame structure, which was valued at $4000. The grocery stock was worth $3069 and insured for $2700.

ADMEN INSIST ON TRUTH College Courses in Publicity Predicted in Near Future. CHICAGO, June 23.—Philadelphia was the unanimous choice of the nominating board for the next convention of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World at a session today. The educational movement in the line of advertising was the principal subject of discussion today. Harry Tipper, chairman of the committee on colleges and universities, said that from correspondence with 60 institutions he believed the time had arrived when definite outlines for an advertising course could be made. All institutions would have courses in advertising within a few years, he believed. Frank Stockdale spoke briefly on "How Truth in Advertising Wins." He said: "I hear a great deal of talk about 'strong ads' and 'ad being stronger than the good behind it.' Newspapers seem to suffer most from objectionable advertising. This is no fault of the Arrests May Result for Violation of Corrupt Practices Act.

Failure of three candidates and the proponents or opponents of a number of ballot measures at the recent election in this county, showing their expenditures may result in warrants being issued for arrest of these persons for violation of the act.

POST TO BE FILLED TODAY

Southern Oregon Candidate for Position Is Himself Ardent Sportsman; F. M. Brown Also Has Strong Backing for Place.

Indications point to the selection of Carl Shoemaker, editor of the Roseburg News, as State Game Warden, at the meeting of the State Fish and Game Commission at Salem this morning. It is understood that his appointment is favored by Governor Withycombe.

The appointment of a Game Warden to take the place of A. H. Lea, of Portland, who was appointed several weeks ago, but has since declined to accept, as published in The Oregonian, and the appointment of about 50 deputy game and fish wardens, is the principal business to come before the meeting. Who will take office on July 1, at which time William L. Finley, of Portland, the present Game Warden, will become State Biologist.

Mr. Shoemaker is an enthusiastic sportsman himself, and ever since his name was mentioned for the place, remains open to the idea of accepting the appointment, there has been much activity in his behalf by sportsmen. He is understood to have received strong endorsements from many sources.

It is also understood that R. W. Ewing, of Medford, who has been the choice of Commissioner Stone, of Klamath Falls, has withdrawn from the race.

Another candidate who has strong backing for the wardenship is F. M. Brown, of Brownsville, who now has the appointment of chief deputy game warden.

C. K. Cranton, of Pendleton, former member of the Fish and Game Commission, and J. E. Cullison, of Portland, are believed to be the next most formidable candidates.

Following this morning's meeting at Salem, members of the Fish and Game Commission will leave Salem for Portland, with Governor Withycombe. Secretary of State Olcott, Attorney-General Brown, George P. Putnam, secretary to the Governor, and other state officials for a trip through Central and Southern Oregon.

TRIBUNE RETRACTS STORY

Erroneous Information Led to Publication of Meyer-Gerhard Report.

NEW YORK, June 23.—(Special)—The Tribune says today: "The Tribune within the last few days published a story to the effect that Meyer-Gerhard, Ambassador von Bernstorff's emissary to Germany, and Dr. Alfred Meyer, of the German War Office, were one and the same. It asserted that the real business of this joint personage in this country was the purchase of war munitions, though this purpose was cloaked by the pretense of representing the Red Cross, and the Tribune, showing that the Meyer, or Meyer-Gerhard, activities were carried on with the knowledge of Ambassador von Bernstorff.

It published this story in good faith, believing it to be true, and only after a long and conscientious investigation. One of the witnesses on whom it relied, a local agent of the Germans, has now given a totally different version of the affair from the one he gave to the Tribune, namely, that instead of Dr. Alfred Meyer posing as Meyer-Gerhard, some one unnamed posed as Dr. Alfred Meyer. The Tribune's story, therefore, has no support in the shape of evidence which we thought it had when we published it, and accordingly, because we believe in dealing fairly and frankly with our readers, we withdraw it. And in doing so, we express regret for the distress which the publication during the present tense international situation has caused to Ambassador von Bernstorff."
