Mrs. Geddes Says She Told Mormon Bishop of Polygamous Marriage.

OLD TESTIMONY IS READ

Move Toward Excommunication for Refusal to Reveal Parentage of Child Is Disclosed-Proceedings Afterward Dropped.

OGDEN, Utah, June 23.—Transcripts of testimony given, by Mrs. Margaret Geddes, when she appeared at Washington, D. C., in the course of the United States senatorial investigation. as to polygamy in 1804, when a fight was made against the seating of Reed Emoot, were introduced in the case of Albert Geddes, or Eccles, against the David Eccles estate today. The mother of the boy, who lays claim to a thirty-third of the $6,000,000 estate, was questioned from the documents as to the exact wording of the questions and answers at the inquiry.

In the course of the cross-examinain the course of the trosevential tion Mrs. Geddes was asked if she did not attempt to evade direct answers at the senatorial inquiry, which question she was required to answer, despite the objection of her attorneys that it was an "insult to the witness." She replied: "It is not true."

Woman Never Excommunicated. The reading of the records showed that Mrs. Geddes had testified that "I that Mrs. Geddes had testified that "I have no second husband" and that she answered a query as to whether "Mr. Eckels" was the father of her youngest child by saying, "No."

It was disclosed today that Bishop Bramwell, of Plain City, took steps to have Mrs. Geddes excommunicated from the Mormon church when she would not reveal to him, as the head of the local church, the fatherhood of her child. She was not excommunicated. her child. She was not excommunicated. No evidence as to why these proceed-ings were dropped has been given. Mrs. Geddes testified that she told Bishop Bramwell there was "not a legal marriage" and that she said "I did wrong in not following the man-ifeato (Issued by the church and for-

Tallach, from Philadeiphia, for San Francisco (issued by the church and for-bidding polygamous marriages), but I did not do wrong as a fallen woman."

Story of Love Affair Refold.

In reply to questions, Mrs. Geddes, rehearsed in detail love affairs with mr. Eccles, who had aiready married from Portland; Admiral Farrages, but the Mormon manifesto, and did not vary in any degree from portland; from Banden, Venture, continued regularly through her alleged marriage period until the sudden death of the Utah capatalist.

Many of the heirs of the late mil-Honaire, particularly the sons and daughters of his first and only legal wife, Mrs. Bertha Eccles were in the Entries were made today on the court record that Joseph F. Smith, president of the Mormon Church, and Reed Smoot, United States Senator and apostle of the church, have been cummoned as witnesses for the plaintiff.

A Quick Impulse

Wonderful Activity Imparted by a Famous Remedy.

The appearance of pimples, boils, skin eruptions and all evidence of impure blood, calls for S. S. S., the famous blood purifier. Catharties, purges, bowel movers and laxatives won't do.

No amount of bile will destroy certain germs which cause blood and skin eruptions. They are away down deep in the tissues, perhaps in the very marrow of the bones. And such a condition calls for the searching influence of S. S. S. It is indeed a remarkable remedy, since it is taken up by the blood stream and never loses its medicinal influence. On and on it goes, through and ence. On and on it goes, through and through the entire system and always with the same definite action to disiodge germs, destroy their activity and stimulate the liver.

lungs, kidneys, bowels and skin to threw them out completely.

It stimulates stagmant blood, provides a rational exhibitaration to the nerve centers and thereby the natural functions of the body are aroused to cast out intruders, no matter how strongly intrenched they may be. It refutes the ancient theory that to destroy within us the germs that eat into our vitals calls for drugs that destroy our very existence. Get a bottle of S. S. S. today of any druggist and for special advice on severe blood disorders write at once to the Medical Adviser. The Swift Specific Co., 103 Swift Bidg., Atlanta, not accept a substitute.
