Oakland, Cal., June 24.—(Special.)—Invalid Harry Krause gave evidence on the Oakland diamond today that he is rapidly improving and will soon be able to contribute some valuable support to McCredie in his efforts to land another pennant for Portland. For the week past, the famous southpaw has been fighting off an attack of pneumonia and it was only the presence of some sunshine and a lack of hurriers that accounted for Krause's taking the stand on the mound.

Krause's performance in holding the Seals scoreless and six hits in 10 innings, banging out a double and a single, and scoring the only run of the game, made him a hero today.

Game Is Pitching Battle. If he was pleased with full health Krause may have done better, but he had the satisfaction in all events of administering a 1-to-0 beating to the Seal crew in extra innings. It was really a pitchers' duel, in which both Krause and Baum saw the bases filled a couple times and they set about to get the side out without any material damage to the run column.

Up to the turning-point of the game, there had been nine innings of scoreless ball. In the 10th Cunningham, the local outfielder, threw a ball which grounded out weakly to Baum for the first out in the 10th. Harry Krause, who had singled back in the third inning, bunted the ball to the leftfield fence for two bases. Considering that the wind was blowing a gale in the face of the ball, it was quite a man-sized hit for an invalid. Davis infield out advanced Harry to third.

Then came Derrick, who bounced one of those slow rollers over Baum's head. It was labeled a sure hit, but Corhan tore in well to the other side of second base, scooped it up and by a lightning-like throw got the ball over to first ahead of the runner. Hellmuth was forced to stretch for the ball, but it bounced out of his glove for an error. It would have retired the side, but Krause was over the plate and the Beavers had at last broken the ice.

The Seal crew in their half of the 10th, but it was no use, as Krause gave no indications of weakening. Score: San Francisco 0, Beavers 1.

SACRAMENTO FAILS TO SHOW INTEREST IN BALL

Only 250 Attend Exhibition Game at Which Beavers Appear—Judge McCredie Wants Seattle in Coast League.

By ROSCOE FAWCETT. (URING the intermission between the Oakland and San Francisco series Monday the Portland Coastlers journeyed up to Sacramento and defeated a local team named the Jovians. According to Walt McCredie the experiment did not work, for the attendance was under 250, which would hardly go far toward paying the taxicab and tip bills. The shuttle calls for eight or ten more Monday games at Sacramento. Apparently the Coast Magnates are feeling out sentiment at the California capital so that if the Northwestern League hits the chutes an eighth club could be dumped into the burg to match Seattle if prospect looks good.

In the event of disorganization Judge McCredie thinks it would be easy to take over Seattle and that this should be done.

In any event, it doesn't look as if there is enough life in Sacramento to warrant a Pacific Coast club, and it may be years before the Senators gain admission again into the charmed circle. Exhibition games are not the best evidence in the world, but there isn't any reason to believe that conditions have changed since last year or the years previous.

To make matters more muddled, the Portland players were handed a nice grilling after the game because they took things too easy and did not play tight baseball.

One who had plugged along and played real baseball, wrote one of the men to a friend here. "It would have been a procession. So we took things easy, made a good exhibition of it, and for our pains we got roasted good and hard."

WHITE SOX WIN 19-NING CONTEST

Eddie Collins' Batting Contributes to Sixth Victory Over Cleveland.

CLEVELAND, June 24.—Weaver's single and Eddie Collins' double with two out in the 19th inning, gave a victory over Cleveland today, 5 to 4, its sixth straight win from Cleveland. Cleveland looked like the winner until the eighth inning when a rally consisting of Blackburn's single, Felsch's double, Weaver's single and E. Collins' triple gave Chicago one-run lead.

Cleveland came right back, and with two out bunched Chapman's double and singles by Jackson and Graney for two runs. These were made off Felsch. Roth began the ninth for Chicago with a single and Schalk walked. Blackburn bunted and was safe on Mitchell's fumble. With the bases filled, Morton replaced Mitchell and Hooper, in a run by passing Felsch. That was all that counted, as the side, as Felsch, who replaced Cicotte, allowed only three hits and struck out nine, while Morton was aided by some fast double plays. Base running caught Cleveland to throw two runs away in the first inning. Score: Cleveland 5, Chicago 4. R. H. E. Cleveland 5, Chicago 4. HAYNE WINS FROM MACAN OF VICTORIA

H. Chandler Egan and Jack Neville Meet Today in Golf Semi-Finals.

MRS. BEAN HAS 89 CARD

Neville and Miss Temple Carry Off Mixed Foursomes From Egan and Miss Maise MacMaster, of Portland, by Two Strokes.

BY H. CHANDLER EGAN, Ex-National Amateur Golf Champion. TACOMA, Wash., June 24.—(Special.)—There were no great surprises or upsets in the match play rounds today in either the men's or women's championship of the Pacific Northwest Golf Association. The weather was light yesterday, a cool, gray day with light showers after luncheon.

The hardest and closest battle was the one between A. V. Macan, of Victoria, and H. Y. Hayne, of San Francisco, who is the champion of North-east California. Hayne has been playing erratic golf since his arrival in Tacoma a few days ago, and his success largely depended on whether he was on one of his good streaks or not. Macan was about 6 feet short all the way round, and the match when following wind, squared the match when Macan played several shots in the woods in the seventeenth. Both drove well for the eighteenth and after poor play before losing by 3 down in the nineteenth, both sent off long balls and Hayne secured the better second hole, Macan was about 6 feet short on his third and Hayne laid him an extremely difficult styler. Macan made a desperate effort with his masher but narrowly missed the cup and lost the match.

Neville Given Hard Rub. Young Leroy Pratt, Jr., of the Tacoma Club, played a splendid game against Jack Neville, of San Francisco, and carried the match to the seventeenth hole before losing by 3 down and 1 to play. He suffered some hard luck on that hole when his tee shot, played with an iron on account of the stiff wind, was so long as to land in the sand pit which crosses the fair green about 360 yards from the tee. Howard Wright, the Lochburn player who gained reputation by defeating Homer Bankard yesterday, was not able to keep up his champion-eating pace and lost to Paul Ford, of Seattle, 4 down and 2 to play. My own match with O. W. Potter, of Seattle, was disappointing in that Potter was so badly off his game that he did not begin to do himself justice. Outside of three poorly played shots I was playing well and finally won by 6 up and 4 to play.

The semi-finals are played tomorrow at 35 holes. Hayne plays Paul Ford of Seattle, who defeated McKenry in the first round, and Egan plays William Jones, of Tacoma, in the other match by 7 up and 6 to play. Mrs. Bean scored a remarkable 89 and should win the championship if she keeps up that pace.

Portland was pitted against Portland in the second round of match play for the second time when Ellis Bragg defeated Colonel J. J. Morrow by 5 up and 4 to play. Bragg won again in the afternoon on the same score from Pratt, of Tacoma. This puts him in the finals for that cup, his opponent being C. G. Burnett of Bellingham.

Everything gave way to the mixed foursomes this afternoon. The finish was close. Jack Neville and Miss Temple won with a fine 86, handicap 5, net score 77. Miss Maise MacMaster, of Portland, and I were second with 87, handicap 8, net score 79. I am still regretting that two putts I missed on the last two holes.

Portland and Medford's other entry was defeated this morning in the second round for the consolation cup.

CREWS AWAIT STARTER

YALE AND HARVARD BELIEVED TO BE EVENLY MATCHED.

Annual Races Today Attract Largest Through in Years—Crimson Wins Both "Scrub" Contests.

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 24.—The largest through in many years is assembled here tonight, preparatory to the annual regatta of the Yale and Harvard and Yale tomorrow. With all hotel rooms engaged, porters were placing pots and pans on the tables and a crowd of guests was put into nearby cottages.

The streets were gay with throngs sporting New York and Philadelphia colors. On the harbor hundreds of boats twinkled with lights. Near the railroad bridge lay the American cup-defense yacht Resolute, while far out was the superdreadnought Utah, awaiting the arrival of Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels, at right-angle, toward the Dolphin for tomorrow's races.

It was generally conceded by race followers that both varsity and minor crews of the rival colleges were evenly matched for the contests over the four and two-mile courses. Betting was light and confined mostly to friendly wagers.

Harvard scored a double victory over Yale in the scrub races rowed at dusk tonight. The freshman row race rowed five miles in 31-3 minutes, the varsity in a win for Harvard in 6 minutes 21 seconds. In the gentlemen's or graduation race at half a mile the Crimson alumni finished one and one-half lengths ahead in 3 minutes 5 1/2 seconds.

Both camps sent their varsity and second eights out for light paddling tonight.

CHAMPION HIGH JUMPER QUILTS

Beecon, Record Holder, Finds He Is Now Too Heavy for Leaping.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—(Special.)—Eddie Beeson has made his last high jump. The present world's record holder has notified Coach Frank Foster, of the Olympic Club, that he would not be able to get into shape for the national championships to be held at the exposition in August, and, furthermore, he said he was through with athletic life.

The retirement of Beeson marks the passing of one of the greatest high jumpers the world has ever seen, and is a loss to the honor of world's record holder. The taking on of too much excess weight is the cause of Beeson's retirement.

Boxing Stopped in Michigan.

LANSING, Mich., June 24.—Governor Ferris today put an end to boxing matches in this state when he sent letters to 83 sheriffs telling them to enforce the law against glove contests.

What the Box Scores Show About Players You Know.

IVOR OLSON, ex-Beaver, singled once for Cincinnati and handled five chances at second.

Stanridge, ex-Seal, made two hits in two times at bat, scored a run and gave two hits in 3-1-3 innings, walking none and fanning one.

Bert Wabing, ex-Seattle, made one hit and scored a run for the Phils but skipped around out of eight fielding chances at short.

HAYNE WINS FROM MACAN OF VICTORIA

H. Chandler Egan and Jack Neville Meet Today in Golf Semi-Finals.

MRS. BEAN HAS 89 CARD

Neville and Miss Temple Carry Off Mixed Foursomes From Egan and Miss Maise MacMaster, of Portland, by Two Strokes.

BY H. CHANDLER EGAN, Ex-National Amateur Golf Champion. TACOMA, Wash., June 24.—(Special.)—There were no great surprises or upsets in the match play rounds today in either the men's or women's championship of the Pacific Northwest Golf Association. The weather was light yesterday, a cool, gray day with light showers after luncheon.

The hardest and closest battle was the
