QUEEN OF CHERRY FAIR CHOSEN BY VOTE OF COMMERCIAL CLUB

MISS ANNA YANTIS.

SALEM, Or., June 27.—(Special.)—Miss Anna Yantis, employed in a department store, was elected yesterday Queen of the Cherry Fair. She received 92 votes, 16 more than her nearest competitor. Only members of the Commercial Club were allowed to vote. Other candidates were Miss Cary Howard, Miss Barbara Steiner and Miss Priscilla Fle ming. Miss Yantis will select her maids next week. She is an attractive and popular girl. Heretofore Cherry Fair queens have been selected by popular vote, but this year it was decided that the voting be confined to members of the Commercial Club, inasmuch as the club will have direct charge of the fair.

A few days later, August 23, the victorious Germans entered Namur and began an attack on Mons, defended principally by the first British expeditionary force. The next day the British troops began a retreat from their position and from then on until September 12 the German troops drove through France under the leadership of General von Kluck. The French government fled to Bordeaux.

The Philip Morris Success

Many have found a most plausible excuse for complaint of unsatisfactory business conditions in the world's chief events, in the last three years.

They may be surprised to hear that, during the very same period, the Philip Morris Cigarette business has increased to such an extent as to oblige Philip Morris & Co. to double their manufacturing facilities by securing the entire seven-story building at No. 72 Fifth Avenue, New York City.

The first "open secret" of this remarkable success is the fact that the incomparably excellent quality and the uniformly delicate flavor of
