Postoffice Employes Let Out.—In the interests of economy, according to Postmaster Myers, three old employes in the Portland Postoffice building have received notices of dismissal, effective July 1. They are: Wilbur Collins, engineer, and Angus McLennon and Archie Cummins, firemen. They are dismissed. Mr. Myers says, because steam heat from the mains of the Northwestern Electric Company has been installed in the building. The postmaster asserts this will bring about a saving of $1000 a year in the administration of the building. In addition to being dismissed, these men have had eight days taken out of their pay in accordance with the "eight-day furlough" without pay ordered by the Treasury Department, "eight-day furlough" without pay ordered by the Treasury Department, also in the interests of economy.

St. Johns Club to Meet.—The St. Johns Council will hold two more regular meetings before the consolidation of the town with Portland, tonight and next Tuesday night. One of the most important questions to be settled is the petition of the St. Johns Commercial Club for a deed to the Smith property, at the corner of Burlington street and Willamette boulevard, the tract to and Willamette boulevard, the tract to erty, at the corner of Burlington street and Willamette boulevard, the tract to be dedicated for a building to be used for social and club purposes. A special committee was appointed to investigate and the Council appeared to favor the proposition. The club plans to start a campaign for a building fund and large membership at once if the property is secured.

Address is Published.—The Current events class of Westminster Presbyterian Church has just issued in pamphlet form the address on "Child Development," delivered by M. L. Fratt before the class several weeks ago. It was desired that teachers and parents generally should have opportunity of reading this address and getting the suggestions made in it for child development. The class ordered at the business meeting Sunday that copies be sent to all teachers in the Irvington district. Professor Pratt formerly was a principal in the Portland schools.
