USE OF PARK LIGHTS URGED.—Use of the lighting system about the reservoirs in Mount Tabor Park is urged by residents of the district. In a communication sent to the Council yesterday by R. G. Littler, it is declared that a lighting system was installed some time ago at a cost of $1800. The system, it is complained, is not used now even in the summer time. The petition requests that the city forthwith provide for the lighting of the system for the artistic effect possible.

REMOVAL OF WALL DEMANDED.—Charles Schmidt is insistent upon the city removing the east wall of a fire station at Sixteenth and Washington street because the wall extends 37 feet onto his property. Notice to this effect was sent to the City Council yesterday. The city has not decided what to do. Surveys as made recently show that the firehouse wall is on Mr. Schmidt's property. He intends to erect a building on the ground.

FOURTH OF JULY AT TAYLOR-ST. M. CHURCH.—This patriotic occasion will be observed by the members of this church on Sunday morning at 10:15 A. M. at their usual outdoor service in front of its locked doors. Addresses will be made by ex-Congressman M. C. George and J. A. Peppi, and "The Star-Spangled Banner" will be sung by Miss Harriett Leach. All attending this service are requested to wear flags.

RATIONALIST MEETING ARRANGED.—"The Development of Reason in the Child" will be the subject of the lecture to be delivered on tomorrow night in the Public Library hall by Sam Atkin son. This is the second in the series on natural education. Questions will be courteously answered at the close. The meeting is called under the auspices of the Portland Rationalist Association.

GO TO MOUNT SHASTA WITH MAZAMAS.—All persons interested in outdoor life are invited to join the Mazamas on annual outing and climb of Mount Shasta. Registration can be made in Mazama headquarters, 213 Northwestern Bank building, and including July 6. This is a very attractive, inexpensive trip and can be made conveniently en route to California exhibitions.—Adv.

EASTERN TEACHER TO TALK.—Miss Virginia Arnold, former teacher in the public schools of Washington, D. C. will give an address at the regular meeting of the Oregon Single Tax Association to be held in Room H, Central Library, tonight at 8 o'clock. Miss Arnold will take as her subject, "The Most Urgent Needs in the Home of Today." Mrs. Lora C. Little will give a reading.

SPECIAL SERVICES SET.—Special Independence day services will be held at the Salvation Army, 243 1/2 street, Sunday at 11 A. M. and 8 P. M. At the evening service Mrs. Elizabeth Lehu of the Pacific Coast Rescue and Protective Society will speak on the subject "Independence." Appropriate music will be provided by the Corps No. 1, Songsters Brigade. The public is invited.

JUNE POSTAL RECEIPTS $91,442.—Postal receipts at the Portland Postoffice for June were $91,442.34, a decrease of $922.09 from June, 1914. This announcement was made by Postmaster Myers Thursday after the books for the month had been laid. The decrease is only 1.6 per cent, and is the best showing made in any month in 1915.

FIRECRACKER DISPLAY CAUSES ARREST.—For displaying a huge pile of firecrackers at his place of business, at 88 Second street, in violation of the city ordinance prohibiting the display and sale of fireworks, Wm. Gow was arrested yesterday by Patrolman Cason and Fire Marshal Stevens.

COLUMBIA PARK CELEBRATION SET.—Preparations for the Columbia Park Independence day celebration next Monday have been completed. It will be under the auspices of the Protestant churches of the Peninsula and St. Johns, and the arrangements were made by a committee of 30 representatives from these churches, with C. A. Datson as chairman. George Dearlove, chairman of the parade committee, reports that the parade, which will start at 10:30 A. M., will include many competitive floats. Prizes will be given for the best displays in the parade, which includes floats by the churches, colleges and civic organizations, drills by the cradle rolls, primary and boys' and girls' classes. The parade will be led by the drum corps of the Sons of Veterans. Luncheon will be enjoyed in the park after the parade and that exercises will be held at 2 P. M. Governor Withycombe will deliver an address. Miss Margaret Nelson will recite the Declaration of Independence. Children of the Portsmouth and Sunday schools will sing. McElroy's band will give a concert. A held meet under the charge of the park directors will take up the remainder of the afternoon.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION INITIATES.—The Sacred Heart School in Benedictine Heights initiated the following 7000 day night at a meeting held at Gregory Hall: Frances Wager, Anna Furrer, Frances McGill, Frances Rager, Clara Lehman, Elizabeth Schneider, Bernard Reverman, Casper Schwarmuth, Emil Goldman, Joseph Schwietzer, Octave DeComan, Helen Menger, Gillis Powers, Teresa Cassidy and Magdalen Merkena. Charles Lair and Joseph Senti presided jointly. The commercial graduates attended a trip to Mount Angel during the week. They visited the academy building and grounds. In this party were Misses Margaret Friedhoff, Marie Weber, Carrie Sechem, Mary Gilroy, Thekla Becker, Elizabeth Schneider, Eleanor Regnor and Clara Scherzinger.

D. M. DONAGH RECOVERS.—D. M. Donagh, formerly an attorney of this city and resident of Sellwood, is recovering his health at his home at Bairdside Station, on the Troutdale electric railway. When Mr. Donagh went there he had little hope of recovery, and his friends and physician had none at all. He had employed a skilled physician and traveled widely, but received no benefit, and as a last resort, he went to Mount Angel, a ranch near Fairview, and in about three years, sunshine and the out-of-door life have effected a complete transformation in his health. This information was an early teacher in the first Portland high school and then entered the law.

13 TAKED CITY TEACHERS' TESTS.—The city teachers' examinations given at the Lincoln High School the past three days have been completed. Only 13 applicants took the test. This is the last time that teachers' examinations will be given by the city, the board having decided that the work could be done better by the state. The state examinations which are in progress at Washington High School will be completed today.

CHURCH TO HONOR MISSIONARY.—On Sunday at 2:30 o'clock, a communion service for Miss Marie Elizabeth Church will be held in Centenary Methodist Church. Miss Church recently was appointed missionary to the women's Foreign Missionary Society of the branch of which Mrs. Thomas W. Lane is in charge. Miss Church is well known and popular as a high school teacher. She will sail from San Francisco on the first of August, accompanied by several other missionaries on July 31.

Frank Healey, Mrs. Ella Kissel and Mrs. Agnes Foster. Mr. Healey was an old resident of the city. Funeral services will be held today at 2:30 from the residence and the Holy Rosary Church, East Third and Clackamas streets.

FIRECRACKER ARRESTS ORDERED.—Trouble is in store for boys who shoot firecrackers on July Fourth. Word was received yesterday by Mayor Albee that firecrackers are being sold to boys in Milwaukie and other towns near Portland. Instructions have been given to the police to arrest all persons shooting firecrackers within the city.

OLD FINE REMITTANCE RECORDED.—On March 15 of this year, Glenn E. Hoover was fined $10 for contempt of court by Judge Davis. The fine was remitted. Yesterday the court order was signed and the proceeding made of record. Hoover is the Seattle attorney who appeared in defense of Socialistic agitators and other disturbers of the peace.

WILLIAM POPE'S WILL FILED.—The will of the late William Henry Pope, a former Columbia River pilot, was filed for probate yesterday in the office of the County Clerk. The will was executed June 2, 1915, and Mr. Pope died June 9. The estate, the amount of which is not named, is left to the widow, Mrs. Sarah A. Pope.

$112 INHERITANCE TAX PAID.—A state inheritance tax of $112.22 was paid yesterday to the County Treasurer by Mrs. Josephine M. Miller. She is the widow and residuary legatee of the late Joseph Martin Miller, who died April 4, 1914. The estate amounted to $20,880. PRESIDENT SENDS THANKS. Indorsement of Policy by Catholic Foresters Appreciated. M. J. Malley, of Portland, has received a letter from J. T. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, thanking him for a resolution adopted by the Catholic Order of Foresters, of which Mr. Malley is past state chief ranger, indorsing the President's attitude in the European war situation. The letter reads: "My dear Mr. Malley: The President has decided that the work of making it to have all film exchanges take their films to the municipal theater and have them run off by a municipal operator. It is intended to have viewers on hand daily from 9:30 A. M. to noon and from 1 P. M. until 5 P. M. If the plan goes through the Board proposes to charge 25 cents a film, which, it is said, will defray all expenses and leave a surplus. Colonel Blithen Has Slight Rally. SEATTLE, Wash., July 2.—Colonel Aiden J. Blithen, editor of the Seattle Times, is holding his own today, having rallied yesterday. His condition is critical, however.

Thrifty Alexander. "ALEXANDER RESISTS TEMPTATION" No. 8 of a Series. Our young hero stands in doubt, His appetite some candy craves. "To buy some sweets, or go without?" Strong purpose wins; the dime he saves. Sometime YOU have got to learn that success means giving up a few things in order to be able to enjoy better things later on. You never saw anybody gain any real good by having everything he wanted. A "whim" which costs a small coin to gratify is a good thing to subdue. A growing savings account, made up of trophies of that kind of victories, is almost a written guarantee of big success in the future. Anyway, Thrifty Alexander found it so, and if you go along with him, you will surely be repaid, many times over, for all the sacrifices you make. Poster Stamp No. 9 will be released today.
