TACOMA. Wash., July 4.—Taking the lead at the start and holding it, except for a brief visit to the pits in the 114th mile, Guy Ruckstell won today's 250-mile Montamarathon automobile Tace at the Tacoma Speedway. The race was marred by the death of Paul Franzen, mechanician for Billy Carlson, and the injuring of Carlson, when a tire blowout on a steep curve huried the car from the track, throwing Franzen against a stump and breaking his back. Franzen was 27 years of age, and is survived by a widow in San Diego, Cal.

Ray Lentz' car burned, putting him out of the race on the first lap.

The bearings of Lentz' car burned as the result of the car being overheated. The car had an aeropiane engine and was without a water-cooling system.

Tomorrow morning the century race, 100 miles, will be run, and tomorrow afternoon the Potlatch trophy, 200 miles.

Cooper had won the Montamarathon twice in the past, and Ruckstell's vic-tory today nosed him out of permanent possession of the trophy.

With the winning of the Montamarathon, Ruckstell, in his Mercer Wasp, averaged 84.8 miles an hour, while Cooper, last year's winner and taker of second money in today's classic, averaged 73.44 miles in 1914. It was during the last few miles of the 129 laps that the brush for first honors and money came. Ruckstell, maintaining his lead, was forced to go into the pits once while Cooper, in his Stutz, pushed him hard. At the finish Cooper was slightly more than a lap in the rear, while Eddie Pullen, in a Mercer, was close behind. The pace hit during those last few miles was terrific, the speed amounting to more than 100 miles an hour, while the fear-exhibition game for charity at the Polo

Sidelights and Satire

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. EL BAKER, Portland boy, who is at Ing behind the bat for Detroit, pulled an odd one in a recent game. A Detroit writer tells the story:

"Del Baker on Tuesday entered the Hall of Fame established for those who make freak plays, pulling an error not seen before this ecason. Waish opened the inning with a double. Shotton bunted at the first ball, but missed it. Waish had taken a big lend off second, to advance with the sacrifice, and was caught flat-footed midway between sacks.

"Baker hesitated an instant, as between Bush and Vitt for the throw. Then he lost himself and threw straight at Waish. The runner had to jump in the air to escape being hit by the ball, which went to left field. Waish stopped at third, and was thrown out at the plate on Austin's grounder to Bush, after Shotton was hit.

"Maybe Del was thinking of the old rules. In baseball's infanch you could put a runner out by hitting him with the bail."
