Rube Gardner saved the morning game for the Oaks by a great throw to the home plate in the 10th inning Middleton and Gardner earned an extra cut of sirioin for their pegging in the planches. Jimmy Johnston pulled the same stunt on Hillyard in the afternoon, but not at a critical time.

Doane is developing into a great pinch hitter. Twice yesterday Doane bagged pinch hits, and earlier in the week he hit a couple of balls awfully hard when rushed out with men on bases.

Walter McCredie is somewhat "up against it" for an infielder. His release of Militon Reed, now with the Oaks, was a bit hasty, and the Beavers are in a pickle with a regular infielder.

Heavy hitting on the part of Garden Home was responsible for the 12 to 1 defeat administered to the Oids. Wortman & King contingent at Garden Home Sanday. This made the ninth straight win and all have been by comparatively large scores. Captain Cronquist, of Garden Home, is another one who is after the McMinnville Yelobans.
