GLADSTONE PARK, July 9.—(Special.)—Arthur A. Franke, a 27-year-old orator from the sagebrush of Montana, gripped the attention of 3000 Chautauquans at Gladstone Park in his masterly lecture, "The Matchless Book," this afternoon. The theme can be easily guessed, but his handling of his subject was not a sermon, nor a religious address in any sense of the word. It was a careful analysis of the Bible from the standpoint of the student, and the young man from Montana persuaded his hearers that he knew whereof he spoke.

LEWIS DEFIES STATE ROAD COMMISSION

State Engineer Will Not Place E. J. Cantine in Direct Charge of Construction.

BOARD IS DETERMINED

Contractors Require $3000 More for Rex-Tigardville Road and Dispute Centers Round Working of Highway Contract.

ONE WORD TO THE LADIES

In my stock are about 70 Dresses—the most advanced styles shown in the city. I desire to close them out in ten days; to do this I will make such drastic cuts in prices that they should all be sold in that time—in short you may have them at exactly one-half my usual modest price, which means $7.25 for a $14.50 Dress, and $24.25 for a $48.50 garment. No values equal to these are shown elsewhere.

BEN SELLING

Morrison at Fourth

Highway Engineer, said the contractor's interpretation of the terms of the contract for the work agreed with the former engineer's intention when he called for bids and drew up the contract.
