GLADSTONE PARK, July 12 .- (Spe cial.)-Stirring martial airs, patriotic addresses and a general atmosphere of the days of the Civli War enveloped Gladstone Park today. Patriotism ran rampant, and all because several hundred of the "old boys," with their fife and drum corps, their badges and brown buttons, their flags and fulldress regalia, were guests at Chau-tauqua. They came with their wives and lunchbuskets at an early hour this morning from Portland and Oregon City, and up to a late hour tonight had everything much their own way.

At 1 P. M. the grizzled warriors marched up on the auditorium platform, and the veteran musicians played vigorous music. Several of the men bers made speeches, too, so that when the time arrived for the addresses of the day the patriotic germ had inocu-lated 2000 members of the Chautauqua. Dr. W. H. Head was the speaker of the day for the Grand Army boys. He lined them up in the first four rows across the auditorium, and the battle began. His subject was "Ideal Patriotism." and as fast as the doctor fired hombastic bouquets at the veterans, the veterans hurled back volleys of ap-plause. Mr. Head dwelt upon the inplause. Mr. Head dwelt upon the in-estimable service the boys of the 60's had rendered the country, and then called their attention to the present greatness—in wealth, resources, possi-bilities and peoples—of the country which they had fought, bled and died
