

HALF DAY FOR ALL TO SEE BELL ASKED

Mayor Urges Business Men to Permit Employees to Visit Relic Tomorrow.

CITY TO LEAD IN MOVE

Entertainment for Officials, Guard for Memento, Children's Part in Parade and Other Phases of Day Are Arranged.

MAYOR ALBEE'S LIBERTY BELL PROCLAMATION.

To the People of Portland: Portland will be honored next Thursday morning by the presence of the Liberty Bell, one of the most highly prized possessions of the United States.

FAMOUS LIBERTY BELL GREETED BY OREGON'S GOVERNOR AND CITY OFFICIALS AS IT ENTERS BAKER, WHERE UNUSUAL DEMONSTRATION IS HELD WITH BIG PARADE.

Make tomorrow morning a half holiday. This is the plan of Mayor Albee and members of the committee in charge of arrangements for the visit of the Liberty Bell to Portland.

The Mayor says he has hopes that his plea will induce the majority of employers to let their employees off long enough at least to see the bell and the parade.

The city will take the lead. Mayor Albee will ask the Council at this morning's meeting to let all city employees off for a part of the day.

Nothing in the way of arrangements remains undone. The bell, with the special train of officials from Philadelphia, will reach the city at 6:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The bell will be taken to the Courthouse, where it will be uncovered for inspection by the public. Platforms will be erected on each side of the bell car and the public will walk over these platforms.

The visiting officials, upon their arrival in Portland, will be taken in charge by a reception committee and hurried in taxicabs to the Portland Hotel, where a breakfast will be started at 8 A. M.

The breakfast will end at about 9 A. M., when the visitors will be taken for an automobile sightseeing trip about the city.

The children's and military parade will be the principal event of the day. Besides the exhibition of the bell, the Oregon National Guard, now in camp at Gearhart, will march tonight and bivouac until about 3 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The line of march of the parade will be as follows: Form at Tenth and Yamhill streets, east on Yamhill to Broadway, north to Oak, east to Sixth, south to Taylor.

Group 1—Liberty Bell girls, form at Lincoln High school building, Broadway and Market streets.

Group 2—Southeast section, form on West Park, between Market and Clay, facing on Clay street.

Group 3—Brooklyn section, form on West Park, between Market and Clay, facing on Clay street.

Group 4—Holladay section, form on West Park between Columbia and Jefferson, facing on Columbia.

Group 5—Highland section, form on Park street, between Market and Clay, facing on Market.

Group 6—Form on Park, between Clay and Columbia, facing on Clay.

Group 7—Form on Park, between Columbia and Jefferson, facing on Columbia.

Group 8—Chinese section, form in Ladd School building.

Group 9—Ladd School section, in Ladd School building, West Park and Madison side.

Arrangements have been made by the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company for special cars to carry the children from the schools free of charge.

The cars will be taken by the children as follows: Arleta school, 150 children, will board two cars on the Mount Scott line at Arleta station at 9:30 A. M.

Highland school, 250 children, four cars at Union avenue and Wygant street, Union-avenue line, at 9:30 A. M.

W. H. Crawford will leave today for Seattle to meet the bell and its official party and tell them of the entertainment plans in Portland.
