

SOCIETY NEWS

WITH the Liberty Bell in the city yesterday and the Sons of the American Revolution to arrive within the next few days, society is showing great interest in patriotic festivities.

On Monday several luncheons will be given for the wives and daughters of the delegates who will attend the convention of "sons" Mrs. H. C. Cabell is chairman of the special committee of Portland society women who will extend a welcome to the women in the party. Several luncheons at the homes of the various hostesses will be given by the committee and others who are assisting. Among those who will preside at luncheons will be Mrs. C. Shevlin, Mrs. William C. Alvord, Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Mrs. Wallace McCamant, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. James Gamble, Mrs. Winthrop Hammond, Mrs. Charles F. Beebe, Mrs. Cabell. Monday night will be made memorable by the elaborate reception that is to be held at "Rockholm," the beautiful home of Mrs. A. E. Rockey. A number of prominent women will assist in receiving and serving at the tables. Mrs. Rockey is a prominent member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Multnomah Chapter.

On Tuesday afternoon the local women will entertain the visitors on an auto trip which will visit the tops at the Waverley Country Club. All of the features of a social nature will have the co-operation of the local women's committee, including Mrs. Cabell, chairman; Mrs. A. E. Rockey, Mrs. W. C. Alvord, Mrs. William D. Wheelwright and Mrs. Wallace McCamant.

Miss Estelle M. Castle, society editor of the Joliet Herald-News, is a visitor in Portland. With her mother, Mrs. D. W. Castle, she is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Reed in Laurelhurst. A trip through the Cascade Rockies has been enjoyed by the Castles. They will leave tonight for San Francisco.

Mrs. Owen Summers and children left last week for the beach, to be the guests of Mrs. Summers' mother, Mrs. Morgan, for the summer. Miss Lillian Morgan is spending this week in Seattle and will join the family late in the week.

A pretty home wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wentz, 236 Monroe street, yesterday when Miss Fay Wentz became the bride of William Thomas Welch. The large living-room was beautifully decorated. The ceremony took place before a bank of palms, maiden-hair fern and hydrangeas, Rev. C. C. Barick of Central Methodist Episcopal Church, officiated.

Miss Meta Brown sang "Beloved, It is Morn." Mrs. Lena Day played the "Bridal Song, Wedding March," from "Lohengrin," and "Salut d'Amour." The bride wore a gown of georgette crepe, trimmed with silk veils and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. She was given away by her father.

Miss Edna Wentz, as flower girl, was attired in a French frock and carried a basket of carnations and Cecile Brunner roses. After the ceremony Miss Brown sang "It is All That I Can Say."

Miss Lela Richardson and Mrs. H. J. Miller cut ices and were assisted in serving by Miss Lela Day, Miss Ruth Clark, Miss Mildred Frye. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful gifts.

The Waverley Country Club will be the scene of a social gathering on the parties tomorrow night when society will assemble for a delightful informal evening. A feature will be exhibition dances by R. A. Bowley and Miss Rose, who have come from the Castle School and have been pupils of Carlos Sebastian. They exhibition exhibition dances in various large cities of the East and are passing the Summer of the Pacific Coast visiting friends in Portland at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Nathan Teal will entertain today at dinner at Crown Point Chateau for Miss Virginia Scully, Miss Ruth Teal, Roosevelt Thompson and Harold Taylor. On Saturday night they will give a dinner for the same group of young people. The latter festivity will be at the Waverley Country Club.

Miss Genevieve Thompson will entertain at a theater party tomorrow afternoon at the Hellog for Miss Scully and Miss Teal.

Mrs. Albert Fellers will be hostess this week-end to a jolly number of prominent society folk at her charming country place on the Willamette.

Mrs. Robert Berger, president of the Overlook Woman's Club, joined Mr. Berger in San Francisco Sunday to spend ten days visiting the fair. Mr. Berger and Mrs. Berger are the son-in-law, Charles Sutro, at the St. Francis Hotel.

Mrs. Drake, of Seaside, entertained her daughter-in-law, Mrs. J. Francis Drake, of Portland, with an informal tea at her home Monday afternoon. New magazine articles and Woman's Club topics were discussed over dainty refreshments.

Among those present were: Mrs. J. Francis Drake, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. W. B. Hall and Mrs. Harrison M. Ogden, of Portland, and Mrs. Van Mar, Mrs. Leo Ball, Miss Virginia Drake and Mrs. Drake, of Seaside.

Mrs. John C. Munk and three interesting children, Johnnie, Mary and Margaret, are domiciled at the Munk cottage in Ocean Park, Wash., for the season.

Mrs. Leonard Blakely and children, Dorothy and Leona, will be in town Monday for Seaside, where they will spend the Summer with Mrs. Charles Blakely at Yorkshire cottage.

Mrs. W. O. Munsell has opened the O. M. Scott cottage on Eleventh avenue, Seaside, which has been closed for several years. Mrs. Munsell has as her guests Miss Augusta McCormick and Vivien Pollett, of Portland. Miss McCormick is a student of the Carnegie Art Institute, Pittsburg, Pa., and will resume her studies about September 1. Mr. and Mrs. Scott will go down in August.

A pleasant surprise party was given in honor of Miss Blakely Tuesday night, at her Almsworth-avenue home. The evening was passed in dancing, games and music. Dainty refreshments were served.

OLD LIBRARY IS RETAINED
Alberta Association Decides Not to Lease New Quarters at Present.

Present quarters of the library for the Alberta district, at East Twenty-third and Alberta streets, will be retained for the present, according to the action taken by the Alberta Association. Owing to friction in the district, the association did not take any definite action toward leasing a building that may be erected this year. The Parent-Teacher Association urged that a bungalow building similar to the one in Sellwood and Lents be leased from an owner who would build according to the plans. Miss Isom, the librarian, said yesterday that the need of new quarters for the Alberta Library is recognized and that it is hoped that the association will be in a position to erect a building of its own next year in that district. It is estimated that between 10,000 and 12,000 people are tributary to the Alberta Library.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

By EDITH KNIGHT HOLMES.

THE regular official letter of Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, opens with words of praise for Portland and for the women who worked so ably for the council. Then follows a commendation for Mrs. Josephine Corlis Preston in her work in establishing school manases for the country school teacher. Mrs. Pennybacker says:

Mrs. Josephine Preston, the superintendent of Public Instruction of the State of Washington, told in convincing terms and with a certain eloquence that she who had made a dream of school manases come true scattered over the rural districts of Washington are now more than 100 in number. She said that she had never seen more in a single year than she had seen in a single year in the State of Washington. She said that she had never seen more in a single year than she had seen in a single year in the State of Washington. She said that she had never seen more in a single year than she had seen in a single year in the State of Washington.

The Women's Civic Welfare Club voted yesterday to appoint the following committee: Municipal, Mrs. H. C. Uthoff; school, Sarah Hinds Wiltcher; social welfare, Mrs. William R. Scott; Mrs. R. Latimer spoke on "Unity and Harmony."

Members of the Monday Musical Club have been invited to take part in Club Women's day at Chautauqua tomorrow. The members of the chorus especially are requested to be present and lead the community singing. The sing will take place in the afternoon, but the program continues on through the evening. "Take your lunch and spend the day," is the invitation.

The Auxiliary to the Railway Conductors held its annual picnic Tuesday at the Oaks. Mrs. Morrison, Mrs. Bradshaw and Mrs. Bullard entertained the guests with a comely specialty. The afternoon was passed in enjoying the attractions of the Oaks.

The first branch of the Lavender Club will meet in the auditorium of the East Side Library today at 2 P. M. for business. At 3 P. M. L. L. Lepp will address the club on the location for a community center. This meeting is open to the public. All are welcome.

"The use of the word 'women' is awkward and superfluous." This club wishes to follow the social custom, which is not to specify the sex of the members in the club title.

That is the way that Laura Billings Lee, president of the Women's Cosmopolitan Club, New York City, explained to the Supreme Court, in a petition filed recently, the desire of the members to be permitted in future to denominate either organization the Cosmopolitan Club.

If such action were taken here, the Portland Woman's Club would be simply "Portland Club."

THE SANDMAN STORY

By MRS. F. A. WALKER.

A VERY small boy, with a large, hard Dutch name, which, as you and I could not possibly pronounce it, we will call Hans, lived in a quaint old village. For any boy who wears his hair "girl fashion" and such bloomery pants, with room for miles of pockets and clattering wooden shoes, should be called Hans, and Hans he shall be.

His mother had to work very hard all day in the tulip beds while Hans and his little donkey peddled milk in the city. So when night came she was very tired and hardly had strength enough to take off her 17 petticoats.

One night when Hans returned, fed the donkey and polished the big shiny milk cans, he found his mother quite sick. For a whole week, night and day, she could not close her eyes to sleep. The tussy old Dutch doctor came and said she must sleep, but his biggest

VASSAR GIRL IS BRIDE
OSCAR M. ANGIER, OF Y. M. C. A. SCHOOL, TO WED TODAY.

Miss Florence E. Hutchinson, on Way From Boston, Is Devotee of Athletics—Romance Begun in East.

To become the bride of Oscar M. Angier, superintendent of Y. M. C. A. school of trades and a Boston capitalist, Miss Florence E. Hutchinson, also a Boston, will arrive in Portland this morning after a 2200-mile trip across the continent.

A simple ceremony at the church house will be performed by Dr. John H. Boyd, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, at 5 o'clock today. Frank Farmer, of Portland, an uncle of the bride and a Government mining engineer, will be the only relative present.

The romance is one of the links and tennis courts, of which both are devotees. A master tennis player and winner of a number of trophies in champion stakes, Miss Hutchinson also is devoted to golf, hunting and other sports. She is the daughter of Rev. Franklin Hutchinson, for 32 years pastor of the First Baptist Church of Farmington, Mass., and is an accomplished musician. Both were active workers in Dr. Hutchinson's church. She is a Phi Beta Kappa, of Vassar, and has been instructor in history, Latin and Greek in the high school at Farmington. In September she will take up similar work in the Y. M. C. A. schools.

Mr. Angier is president of the Angier Automobile Supply Company, which owns a chain of stores through the New England states. He gave up the active management of the company to become superintendent of the association, trade schools and has made a remarkable record in the few months that he has been in charge.
