James E. Chandler Defeats Candidate of Al Kader Temple for Outer Guard-Buffalo Chosen for Next Gathering.

SEATTLE, Wash., July 15 .- The Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, having com-pleted the business of the imperial council, began tonight to fold their tents like the Arabs, but not to steal away silently. Instead, the caravans departed with bands playing and banners flying. All the uniformed pa-trols and bands will visit the Panama-Pacific Exposition, and many will go on to the San Diego fair. Some will go south by train, some by steamer.

Atlanta Temple Has Owa Train. Yaarab Temple, of Atlanta, went away in the complete train, manned en-tirely by Shriners, which brought the delegation to Seattle. India Temple, of Oklahoma City, also left in its spe-cial train. Many of the other nobles travel in private cars. All the seats on the Imperial divan were filled by promotion except that of Imperial outer guard, for which nine contestants strove, this office being the gateway that leads in 11 years to the throne of potentate. James E. Chandler, of Kansas City, triumphed, but George Filmer, of San Francisco, and W. C. Bristol, of Port-

Francisco, and W. C. Bristol, of Port-land, Or., made such a good showing that one of them is likely to be elected guard at next year's convention which will be held in Buffalo, probably in September. Buffalo had no real opposi-tion for the honor of entertaining the Nobles next year.
