Ness Hits for 44th Consecutive

Time, Again Breaking Record. SAN FRANCISCO, July 16 .- Oakland made 12 hits in today's game with Salt Lake, but could put over only one run, and lost, 6 to 1. The Bees got to Ables in the sixth and landed on him for four hits and four runs. Schmutz, the for-mer Brooklyn National Leaguer, got a Domana home run in the ninth. Ness hit safely again, for the forty-fourth consecutive game, breaking the world's record, which he had set. Score: Salt Lake-| Oakland-BHOAE for Denver shortly to meet Stanley Toakum. Jack King is strong for Tom Cowler, the beavyweight picked up here by Jim Cor-bett. King says Cowler will knock the sox off Gunboat Smith in New Tork the last of this month when the two are scheduled to clash. Cowler worked out at King's place before taken to Australia by Corbett. Bud Anderson is still at it. He has been matched for a bout with Sammy Good in Tacoma for the near future. Sammy has been campling on Bud's trail ever since he was a championship costender. If Bud shows up like he did recently at Pendleton there is little hope for him against Good, although Sammy has been out of the game almost a year.
