

We Have Two Days of Grace Only in the Expansion Sale

TODAY AND WEDNESDAY WILL BE DAYS OF UNUSUAL OPPORTUNITIES

Thursday We Move Linens and Wash Goods to the Second Floor

Millinery to the Third Floor, Silks, Dress Goods, Coats, Waists Must Be Condensed Until Alterations Are Completed

—For the past week an army of carpenters and fixture men have taken possession of our various floors. Everything has been topsy-turvy—sales that were planned weeks ahead had to be withheld owing to the confusion and noise.

—For this we apologize, but through it all, you become the gainer.

—So well organized are the forces which the contractors placed at work, that by today they will be two weeks ahead of schedule. We offered premiums for quick and efficient work.

—We had planned that no departments be moved until August 1st.

—The contractors will be ready Thursday to make the big move, which gives us Tuesday and Wednesday to accomplish the disposition of all Summer merchandise in Millinery, Linens, Wash Goods, Dress Goods, Waists and Wearing Apparel.
