SALT LAKE, July 20.—(Special.)—Stanley Coveleskie was mighty near the whole show on Skipper Blankenship's ball lot this afternoon, and when the curtain dropped after the performance the score stood 6 to 1 in favor of Stan and his followers.

Not only did the young man from Poland have everything that first-class pitchers carry in stock, but he did valiant duty with the stick by poking one over the fence for a homer, grabbing a single, a base on balls and pilfering a sack.

Bees Make but Four Hits.

In all, 32 Bees faced Coveleskie. Four of these managed to connect safely and two others were given free transportation, but dub plays at opportune times cut down all hopes of the home fans after the third inning. Not a single hit was garnered from Stan's delivery after the fourth inning, and, with the Beavers playing glit-edged mall behind him, only two men reached first in the last five innings. Fittery walked in the fifth and Barbour in the ninth.

It was a bitter pill for the Salt Lakers, as it was the first time that the Bees have failed to cop the opening game of a series on the home ground.

Beavers Find Schmutz.

Charley Schmutz started for the Bees and did nobly for two innings, but in the third his fence ball seemed to be about all he had left and Paul Fittery was called to the rescue. Fittery pitched great ball and was never in danger except in the ninth, when two Beavers were on with none out. But he was equal to the occasion, and left the two visitors stranded on the bags.

After Carlisle fanned in the first and Speas singled and Derrick scored on Bates' sacrifice fly; Salt Lake came right back and tied it up in the same inning. After two were out Zacher rattled the boards for two bases and Ryan sent a scooter over third for two bases that scored Ryan. Each side grabbed a hit in the second, but the third was the big show for the McCredie clan.

Beavers Enjoy Swatfest.

Schmutz tried to get Coveleskie to bite at wide ones and got into a hole. He stuck one over and so did Stan, only Stan poked it over the left-field fence. Carlisle walked and Derrick attempted to sacrifice and dropped a little fly behind the pitcher, and both men were safe. Speas fouled and Bates skied to Shinn. Then Bill Stumpf hung one on the knob of the clubhouse door, scoring Carlisle and Derrick. Stumpf scored a minute later on Fisher's single, and Hillyard ended the agony by fanning.

The Beavers came back in the fourth. McArdle fouled to Hannah, Coveleskie walked and stole second. Carlisle fouled out and Derrick walked. Speas singled to center and Coveleskie scored, and Schmutz went to the showers. The remainder of the game was a pitchers' duel between Fittery and Coveleskie. Fittery yielded three hits, but neither pitcher was scored on. The score:

SEALS TAKE COLORLESS GAME

Angels Err Frequently and Scores Come, Too, on Bunched Hits.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 20.—San Francisco defeated Los Angeles today 6 to 2 in a somewhat colorless game. Wolter lined out a home run for the Angels in the first, and two walks and a hit and an error by Fanning gave the men from the southland their other run. The Seals started in in the fourth, and in the fifth bunched three hits for three runs. Errors gave them the other runs. The score:

VERNON SLAUGHTERS OAKLAND

Tigers Win Slugfest, 19 to 7, Total of 34 Hits Being Made in Game.

LOS ANGELES, July 20.—Several of the Vernon and Oakland sluggers fattened their batting averages in a slaughter of innocents which Vernon won today, 19 to 7. A total of 33 hits were made by both teams, which included seven triples and three doubles. Jack Ness got a single in the eighth inning and a triple in the ninth, making the 48th consecutive game in which he hit safely. Score:

PLANK PITCHES 4-HIT GAME

Veteran for Sloofeds Defeats Baltimore, Outpitching Indian Bender.

ST. LOUIS, July 20.—A pitchers' duel between Plank and Bender, in which neither walked a man, and which the home team won, 4 to 1, was the treat given St. Louis today in a double-header which the locals divided with Baltimore. In the first game Plank held Baltimore hitless until the seventh inning, when Knabe doubled and on Duncan's single and Tobin's fumble brought in the run which saved Baltimore from a shutout. In the second game Davenport and Crandall opposed Conloy and Quinn, and the latter pair, by granting St. Louis only four hits, helped Baltimore defeat the home team, 7 to 4. Both teams played errorless ball in this game. Score:

First game—

Batteries—Finneran and Simon; Brennan, Prendergast and Wilson.

What the Box Scores Show About Players You Know.

GENE KRAPP, ex-Beaver, went in for the Buffeds as a relief pitcher and stopped Pittsburg, winning his game.

Dave Bancroft, ex-Beaver, got one hit and handled seven fielding chances in his own peculiar style and scored a run for the Phillies.

Jack Graney, ex-Beaver, made one hit in one time at bat for Cleveland and then retired.

Rip Hagerman went in in the tenth inning for Cleveland and the ex-Beaver held Washington and then won the game in the same inning.

Bill Rodgers, ex-Beaver, failed to hit for Cincinnati, but handled five fielding chances, keystoning one double play.

Kid Williams, the recent Spokane busher, made two hits, one a double, in three times at bat for Cincy and scored a run.

McKenry, Northwestern Leaguer, had his baptism in big league circles, holding Boston to one run and five hits in six innings for Cincinnati. He went in after the Braves had piled up a good lead. He fanned two and walked two.

Bill Steen, ex-Beaver, pitched eight and two-thirds innings for Detroit, beating Philadelphia. He retired when he started to blow up in the ninth and Dauss stopped the Athletics, Steen getting credit for the win.

Peckinpaugh, ex-Beaver, scored a run, stole a base and made one hit in three for the Yanks, also handling four fielding chances.

CHAMPION IS HURT

L. K. Richardson Sprains Ankle in Tennis Play.

SEVEN EVENTS SCHEDULED

Indications Are 75 Men Will Play in Singles and 30 Teams in Doubles---Three Cups Offered Require Three Winnings.

State Tennis Champion L. K. Richardson may have to forfeit his title this year. He is nursing a sprained ankle, the injury having been received on the Sellwood Park courts Saturday evening at the Kenilworth Presbyterian picnic. Mr. Richardson, while running at full speed, caught his foot in a hole near the base line of the courts and severely twisted his left ankle. He is attended by Dr. E. Vernon Sheafe, who regards his patient's chances of defending his state tennis title as slight.

Mr. Richardson has been getting in trim to defend his title and has been playing his usual strong game, but this accident may mar his tennis hopes for the 1915 season.

Many Entries Received.

Among the entries received yesterday were those from Miss May McDonald, woman's champion of the University of Washington, and also of the Inland Empire, and Carl Byrd, also a star at the University of Washington.

Chairman Shives, who has named F. H. V. Andrews, veteran tennis enthusiast, as referee, has been busy accepting congratulations in procuring Mr. Andrews' services. Mr. Andrews is conceded by Northwest tennis men as one of the best referees who could have been found.

Entries for the annual tournament, which will be held under the auspices of the Irvington Club at East Twenty-fourth and Thompson streets next week, will close tomorrow night.

Entry List to Be Large.

From all indications Chairman Shives will have more than 75 entries in the singles alone, and about 30 in the doubles. The tournament is open to all amateur players and three matches will decide, except in semi-finals, finals and challenge matches of men's singles and doubles, which will require three out of five sets to decide.

Seven events have been scheduled, men's singles, men's doubles, women's singles, women's douobles, mixed doubles and consolation singles for both men and women. The consolation singles are open to players beaten in first match of men's singles and in the first match of women's singles.

Bowl Offered 16 Years Old.

Following are those who have had possession of the bowl since it was offered 16 years ago: 1899, W. A. Bethel; 1900, W. A. Goss; 1901, A. T. Goward; 1902, W. A. Bethel; 1903, L. R. Freeman; 1904, R. B. Powell; 1905; G. H. Bush; 1906, W. A. Goss; 1907, Joseph Tyler; 1908, W. A. McBurney; 1909, B. H. Wickersham; 1910, Nat Emerson; 1911, C. E. Foley; 1912, William Johnston; 1913, E. R. McCormick; 1914, L. K. Richardson.

H. V. Johns and R. Roberts, the San Francisco boys, won the men's doubles during the 1914 campaign, and at present are holding the Multnomah cups, presented by the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club in 1908. These cups must be won three times before becoming the permanent property of the holders, and have been won as follows: 1908, Tyler and McBurney; 1909, Wickersham and Goss; 1910, Wickersham and Gorrill; 1911, Foley and Lewis; 1912, Johnston and Fottrell; 1913, Andrews and Richardson; 1914, Johns and Roberts.

PHILBROOK NOT TO GO SOUTH

Noted Athlete Can't Get Away on Account of Business.

Because of business cares, George Philbrook, captain of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic Club track and field team, will be unable to represent the Pacific Northwest Association at the Far Western and National championships at San Francisco. This announcement was made yesterday, and, with the inability of Vere Winnagle and Wallace Kadderly to see their way clear to leave for the South, the chances for the Northwesterners to capture the Far Western events were sent farther to the winds.

George is and has been one of the best all-around weight men that ever wore the Winged "M," and he had been counted on to secure his share of the points at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition meets. In 1912 as a member of the Cleveland, O., Athletic Club, he attended the Stockholm Olympics. He has a record of 142 feet 11 inches in the discus, made in the Spring of the same year while a student at Notre Dame University.

All the athletes of the Pacific Northwest Association must arrive in Portland by Sunday morning says T. Morris Dunne, secretary-treasurer of the organization. At present, several members of the Multnomah Club and the University of Oregon are working out on Multnomah Field getting into condition.

INDIAN HURLER WILD, LOSES

McCarl Forces in Two Runs and Then Vancouver Men Smite Call.

VANCOUVER, B. C., July 20.—With two Canucks on the paths in the fourth inning of today's game between Vancouver and Spokane, Callahan walked Killilay, forced in a run by walking McCarl, and hit Brinker, the next man up. To get the ball over at all, he had to groove it, and when he did so the Canucks fell on him for four hits, the combination netting six runs. Score:

Tacoma 9, Aberdeen 6.

TACOMA, July 20.—With the score 6 to 1 against them at the end of the second inning, the Tacoma Tigers came from behind and won today's game from Aberdeen, 9 to 6. Errors by Lavine and Vance, of the visitors, coupled with 13 safe hits off Engle and Hughes, won the game for the locals. Kippert knocked a home run the first time up. Hagedonn, a City League player, cleaned the bases of three runners in Tacoma's third with a two-base hit. Score:

PHILS AGAIN DRUB CUBS

POOR PITCHING AND ERRORS LET QUAKERS INCREASE LEAD.

Pirates Stem Dodgers' Streak—Boston Wins From Reds, Who Use McKenry. Cards Turn Tables on Giants.

PHILADELPHIA, July 20. — Bad pitching and fielding by Chicago in the eighth inning enabled Philadelphia to score six runs and win today's game 8 to 6. For five innings the home team did not get a man to first base, but four hits off Lavender in the sixth produced two runs. Chicago tied the score in the seventh and took a lead of three runs in the eighth.

With one out in the home team's half of the eighth, Zabel, who took Lavender's place in the seventh, gave Byrne a pass and was succeeded by Pierce. An error and a pass filled the bases, and Cheney went in to pitch. Cravath's single and Niehoff's double scored four runs, and Cheney's wild throw on Whitted's bunt and Cheney's two wild pitches sent in two more. Demaree succeeded Rixey in the ninth and yielded one run. Score:

Pittsburg 6, Brooklyn 2.

BROOKLYN, July 20.—After winning 17 of the last 21 games played, having lost three and tied one, the Brooklyn Nationals today struck a snag in Pittsburg, who had interrupted the winning streak by taking the first game of the double-header on Saturday. Harmon had the Brooklyns at his mercy today and Pittsburg won easily, 6 to 2. Douglas was attacked vigorously in the first inning when triples by Collins and Wagner and a double by Hinchman netted two runs. Errors by Miller and O'Mara and three singles produced three runs in the seventh.

Getz' wild throw on Collins' grounder, Johnstone's sacrifice, Hinchman's out and Wagner's hit scored another run in the ninth. A pass to O'Mara, Wheat's triple and Cutshaw's single earned Brooklyn two runs in the seventh. Myers had made a hit in 22 consecutive games until Harmon stopped him today. Score:
