Ralph Gruman Makes Fine Impres sion in East, Where He Is Regarded as Comer -- Dave Jordan Sure Drew Served Him.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

An Eastern sport scribe asserts that Jack Ness will be remiss in his duty if he doesn't send cigars to all the official scorers in the league. Possibly so, but up in this end of the woods Jack has no obligations because he didn't need any charity from the official scorers to keep his remarkable consecutive batting streak intact.

The closest thing to charity that The closest thing to charity that cropped out during the Oaks' visit here, when Jack was just about nearing Ty Cobb's mark, occurred in that memorable morning game of July 5. Ness went ten innings without his bingle and in the 11th Walley McCarlle

Raiph Gruman will do ever so nicely, Mr. Coffroth. It was the California promoter who sent Raiph on to us for the purpose of the once over, up and down and through and through. Wednesday night Raiph sot his first major league chance with Joe Azevedo, and through his attounding caution almost caused his manager, Billy Roche, to expire of expectation during the first six rounds when he was the original will o' the wisp. Azevedo thus made every round except the second a winning one through aggregativeness alone. But it was a different tale when Raiph unbuckled. He's got everything, and if Roche watches him he's going to be a corking lightweight.

We know a couple of newspaper golfers who make 63s nearly every week—over nine holes, however, and they are good trapshots. If Jim Corbett goes through with his plan of matching Tow Cowler against Shamus Coffey, of County Bronx, New York, no one can say that Corbett is looking for something soft and spongy. Corbett evidently believes in beginning at the top and working down, because Coffey is really a very tough trial horse.

It is almost a cinch that if these two big fellows climb into the same ring for ten rounds somebody will drop before the final bell.

When the eminent thespian picked Cowler up off the streets of Portland last Fall he looked about as much like a sterling silver heavyweight as a lima bean resembles a maraschino cherry. Cowler had the build and the speed, but was lushing around the free lunch emporiums and was in no shape at all.

If Corbett has been able to divorce him from the free and easy stuff Cowler may some day put Cumberland on the map.

DETROIT, Mich., July 20.—Detroit Americans made it four straight from Philadelphia today, winning a hard-fought game, 6 to 5 In the ninth inning Steen weakened and filled the bases after two were out and one run had been scored. Dauss came to the rescue and on his delivery, pitched a low ball that bounded off Stanage's glove and landed a few feet in front of the plate. Konf tried to score but the plate. Kopf tried to score, but Dauss recovered the ball and tagged him out. A great stop by Bush in the minth averted a tie score. The victory puts Detroit in second place. Score:
