SALEM, Or., July 23.—(Special.)—
Potitions bearing the signatures of 352 voters of the county for the recall of Joseph K, Starr, District Attorney of Wheeler County, were received by Secretary of State Olcott today. Charges in the petition against the official are as follows:

"He is both corrupt and incompetent He indulges very freely in strons drink, rendering him incompetent to attend to the duties of his office, and does not prosecute violations of the local option law. He does not enforce the plain provisions of the law alike on all offenders. His inability makes his administration expensive and causes the county a great deal of unnecessary expense."

Under the law 201 petitioners are sufficient for the calling of a recall election in the county. In connection with the proposed election attention was called to an amendment to the election laws made by the last Legis-
