CALIFORNIA TENNIS STAR IS WINNER

Opening of Oregon State Tournament.

JOSEPH TYLER DEFAULTS

Wickersham, Morton, Wolford and Goss Go Through First Round Nicely; Small Gallery on Hand to See Players.

Despite leaden skies and the usual lack of color in the preliminary sessions, the Oregon State tennis championships opened most auspiciously yesterday forenoon on the Irvington courts at Twenty-second and Thompson streets. In all 41 singles matches were cleared off the boards, so it can seen that the entry list far exceeded the customary limits.

Brandt Wickersham, former state champion; O. P. Morton, Catlin Wolfard, W. A. Goss—these and other well-known favorites survived the eliminations. William Marcus, one of the California cracks, met and decisively defeated E. A. Noyes by scores of 6-1 and 6-0. He showed enough class to reward the small gallery for its faith-Joe Tyler Defaults.

Van Dyke Johns, the other California expert, drew a "bye" and will not appear on the tally sheet until today.

Joe Tyler, Spokane, champion of the Inland Empire, defaulted his match to Kelly Rees, so it is apparent that does not intend to appear in the Oregon championships.

One of the interesting set-tos of the opening day was that between W. A. Kearns, well-known hockey and tennis expert, and Mortimer Brown, the 17-year-old Jefferson High wizard of the racquet. The youngster eliminated Kearns in three sets, 6-2, 3-6 and 6-4. Two able exponents of the court game put out of the running yesterday were J. F. Ewing and Donald E. Lance-flield, the latter being the Reed College champion. Catlin Wolfard eliminated Ewing in straight sets, 6-4 and 6-2, and Lancefield was unfortunate enough to draw the Irvington crack, O. P. Morton. Morton won, 6-2 and 8-6.

Match Hard Fought. The marathon match of the afternoon was that in which E. C. Smith, of Hood River, defeated R. F. Ross, 2-6, 11-9 and 10-8.
