GIFTED PORTLAND GIRL ANNOUNCES ENGAGEMENT TO SEATTLE MAN.

MISS FLORENCE WESTENGARD, who went to Seattle a few weeks ago for a visit, returned yesterday and announced her engagement to Dr. S. Malmgren, a prominent specialist of Seattle. The news of the attractive Portland girl's betrothal will come as a complete surprise to her many friends here. It was a case of love at first sight. The couple met at a social gathering, at which Misses Florence and Melba Westengard were the honored guests. They will be married next month at the home of the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. J. C. P. Westengard, Maywood drive, King's Heights. A trip to the fairs at San Diego and San Francisco will be made and a tour of California by auto will constitute the honeymoon. The Misses Westengard were entertained in Seattle by Mrs. Edward Everett and other friends. The girls are both charming and popular. They were educated abroad, attending a fashionable finishing school and studying music with some of the masters of the continent. Florence Westengard plays the piano remarkably well and her sister is a violinist. Together they frequently appear at charity benefits and at social and musical gatherings. The bride-to-be is considered one of the loveliest girls of her set. Dr. Malmgren came from Atlanta, Ga., and has many friends throughout the Northwest.

Mount Tabor Presbyterian Church was the scene last night of one of the prettiest church ceremonies of the summer. Banked in Oregon greenery, palms, hydrangeas and daisies, the church auditorium afforded an attractive setting for the marriage of Miss Monica Montgomery and Francis Wilson Benefield. The church was filled with a large gathering of friends of the couple. At the appointed hour Miss Evelyn Ewart, wearing the traditional white dress, came in with the bride and groom. The bridesmaids appeared at the front of the church and walked singly toward the main entrance, whence they formed in two and led the way to the altar, parting for the bride and her father, the Rev. A. J. Montgomery, to take the vows. The ushers meanwhile had approached by the side aisles and the party formed in a semicircle while the vows were exchanged. Dr. Benefield officiated, assisted by the pastor of the church, the Rev. William Graham Moore. The bride was lovely in a girlish gown of fine net and a quiet lace fashioned over white silk. Her veil was held in place with a cap of white tulle that had been worn by her mother and her grandmother on their wedding days. A shower of white sweet peas, which were carried by the bridesmaids, fell about the bride and the ushers were William Montgomery, John Benefield, C. D. McColl, Roy D. Armstrong and Lewis Wanner. A supper and reception followed. Mrs. A. J. Montgomery, the bride's mother, was handsome in a gown of black net, elaborately beaded with jet and made over black silk. Mrs. Benefield, mother of the bridegroom, was distinguished in green crepe de chine. Mr. and Mrs. Benefield were the recipients of many handsome gifts and messages of good wishes.

They will be away for a few days on a short trip to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel May.

Mrs. S. J. Gorman, of Edmond, Canada, is visiting her mother, Mrs. H. J. Mansfield. Later in the season Mrs. Gorman and Mrs. Mansfield will go to California for a trip to the two fairs.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

WOODLAWN PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION has planned a noon picnic for tomorrow at Peninsula Park. The members will take basket lunches and enjoy the day. In the afternoon many of the girls and their mothers will go in swimming. A discussion of plans for the "back-to-the-home" work outlined by the Portland Parent-Teacher Association will be a feature of the meeting. It has been decided that under the system arranged all Campfire Girls will be eligible to get credits for their home tasks. The club will be organized by Charlotte Anita Whitney of the Congressional Union. The speakers will be Miss Fanny McClean, of Berkeley; Mrs. Sarah Bard Field, of San Francisco; Miss Gail Laughlin and Edwin Markham, the poet.

The eyes of those interested in National suffrage are looking toward the East. The election in New Jersey will be October 19, that in New York, on November 2. To help the cause along some of the prominent Western men and women are planning to send telegrams on July 29 asserting the sanity and helpfulness of suffrage for women.

HOOD RIVER, Or., July 27.—(Special.)—Judging from present interest and latent talent that may be developed, the proposed activities of the new musical department of the Hood River Woman's Club bid fair to eclipse anything ever undertaken by the organization.

It will be a year of music for Hood River, if proposed plans are carried out. The first meeting of the club after the summer vacation, to be held the first Wednesday in September, will be devoted to a history of music and a study of the lives of great composers, all to be illustrated by music. The club will meet thereafter alternate Wednesdays. The second meeting will be a concert or recital by guests and club members.

The special summer meetings of the club will be devoted to addresses and lectures by prominent visitors. Professor F. X. Arens, conductor of the New York People's Symphony Orchestra, will speak, and lectures will be delivered by Professor George, a member of the musical faculty of Columbia University, and Mrs. J. K. Weller, the latter of Portland. Both Professor Arens and Mrs. Weller are Hood River ranches and both will spend a portion of the summer here.

A branch of the new musical department, which admits to associate membership, will be for the children. Mrs. C. H. Henney, who has charge of music in the city schools, will supervise the activities of the branch. In the course of the year a pupils' recital, including the pupils of all local teachers, will be given.

STATE FAIR POSTERS OUT

Attractive Work, Done in Oregon. Tells of Exhibit September 27.

Attractive posters have just been printed advertising the 54th annual Oregon State Fair to be held at Salem September 27 to October 2. The work is done in three colors—black, yellow and red—and presents in a most typical view of previous fairs. A tinted drawing of the familiar dome of the State Capitol at Salem appears in the background, sprays of Oregon grape and typical Oregon grains and fruits form a decorative border.

For the first time since this style of advertising was adopted by the fair board, the work was done in Oregon. Bushong & Co. being the successful bidder. A large number of the posters will be printed and distributed throughout the Northwest.

SHORTHAND HAS NUMERALS

New System Worked Out by Court Reporter Adds to Speed.

Roscoe F. Hunt, court reporter in Circuit Judge Davis' department, has worked out a method of writing numerals in shorthand using the Gregg system. Already the method is in use among reporters in the Multnomah County Courthouse.

Hereafter Arabic numerals were used in shorthand work. The complaint has been that these were slow. During several years in the courtroom in Portland Mr. Hunt has been devising a method of writing figures of his own. Friends urged him to have his system copyrighted and published. A booklet describing the system has just been published by a local book house.

"We'll just put him on Sanatogen"

What a happy thought prompted that decision! He wasn't his "old self" at all—and try to mask it as he might, his face showed only too well how poorly he felt. And so when a friend—with conviction born of experience—spoke of Sanatogen, they "put him on Sanatogen."

Sanatogen—combining the tissue-building properties of a FOOD with the invigorating qualities of a TONIC—rejuvenated his appetite, improved his digestion, brought rest to his nerves, made good the over-drafts upon his energies—and little by little brought back that old-time vigor and sprightliness and joy in living.

Perhaps you have not yet had this happy thought—perhaps you haven't yet "put him on Sanatogen."

Then simply let us tell you this: Over 21,000 physicians have testified in writing to the value of Sanatogen after having observed its effects in daily practice. So, too, have hundreds of famous men and women whose very names must be convincing—people who know from personal experience the restorative help that Sanatogen gives. It is a verdict that cannot be mistaken.

When will you give Sanatogen the opportunity to help him, or her, or you?

I could have increased my vitality, as I have done, without this Sanatogen opening up the digestive organs and so on."
