

Invest the game.
Dr. John G. Abley, acting city health officer, championed the Lincoin Park districts to so the affair, but he lives in the neighborhood and knows nearly everybody who lives there. Questioned in formation.
If think the whole trouble arose or racial differences," he said. "I think the whole trouble arose over racial differences," he said. "I think the whole trouble arose over racial differences," he said. "I think the park a few minutes while the game was going on. I heard the cloues the other diverses the source and the boys don't like to be ranged on national lines.
"I don't think that park, since time and set all. I don't think the point the fenced at all. I don't think the point and send a plain

THE DALLES GIRL SCREAMS

Miss Lang Rouses Neighbors and Police When Lock Is Refractory.

Screams from the attic of a house at 292 Tenth street roused the neigh-borhood shortly after 9 o'clock Tues-day night. The police were summoned Motorcycle Patrolmen Tully and Morris following the sound, found a small attic door. It was locked. "We'll smash it." said the officers. With their revolvers ready, the patrolmen broke the door. A dignified young womap rushed out.

"Who are you, and what's the mat-ter?" demanded the police. "O, I'm Miss J. L. Lang, of The Dalles," responded the girl casually, "I was alone in the house, and I came to my room. I locked the door, but when I tried to unlock it i could Dalles.

in the building were at the band con cert in the South Parkway.

Action "Villainous Proceeding." CLEVELAND, July 28. — Charging that she had been defrauded of $10,000 in a stock deal, and that she had been beaten and injured and falsely arrested who a she triad to gat her manay back when she tried to get her money back, Mrs. Betha M. Leland, a former res-taurant casher, has filed suits aggre-gating $1000,000 against Frank Rocke-feller, brother of the "oll king." Rockefeller tonight characterized the action as a "villainous proceeding." and

William Jennings Bryan has aban-doned the idea of resting two hours at the Portland Hotel between the hour of his arrival in the city Friday even-ing and the time of his appearance at must accommodate 1500 children, should he fenced at all. I don't think the po-lice department should send a plain park. No uniformed officer ever had any trouble out there." Since she was released by Circuit Judge "Mrs. E. D. Jones" was the name igned to the epistle, in which the former Mrs. Tackels said that she had married a young marine engineer em-ployed by an oil company in San Diego.

former Mrs. Tackels said that she had married a young marine engineer em-ployed by an oil company in San Diego. Hibbard had knocked him sense-WORMY FRUIT DEFENDED

Washington State College Entomologist Criticises Inspectors. STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., July 38.—A, A. Melander, professor of ento-mology at Washington State College, in an address today before the California barten den the saloonman. Coyne testified that he had been threatened by Hibbard with a batter when he endeavored to per-but when I tried to unlock it, I could not. So I screamed." Miss Lang says she arrived from The Dalles yesterday. The other residents In the building ways are at the tries of the tries of

and Both Are Saved.

FRANK ROCKEFELLER SUED John D.'s Brother Calls Woman's STRAIGHT

less and robbed him of $190 last Friday night, shortly be-fore the saloon closed. Hibbard was arrested Monday morning charged with the assault, and John Doe warrants were issued for two men alleged to

GOLF CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP.

Practice and Deserves to Win.

witnesses by the state.

The streets about the South Parkway Tuesday night were a jungle of automobiles, and the crowds of pedestrians wedged in between the machines, filled the benches and flowed out over

and Depart After Trip Along

Columbia Highway.

adjacent blocks, waiting for the open-ing of the concert by the Foru Motor Company's Band, that visited Portland mology at Washington State College, in an address today before the California state fruitgrowers' convention on "The Abuses of Horticultural Inspectors," criticised inspectors and commissioners in Washington and California. He said they were responsible for big losses to growers and increased prices to consumers through the con-from the bank that day on his pay check His three friends were made to leave the saleon before Cullname, they sald, and waited across the street for Cullname's appearance. They never saw him leave, for he was taken, appar-ently, out the rear of the saloon. In default of $50 ball each, Sloane, McCoy and Coyle are being held as ine director answering the continuat clamor for encores with snappy selec-tions from the latest popular hits. The close of every selection was the signal for a long-drawn uproar of hundreds of automobile horns that quite drowned automobile horns that quite drowned out the hand-clapping applause of the crowd in the benches and on the park strips. Especial favorites were the solo selections by Albert Vincoli, bari-tone, and by Byron Hooper, cornet soloist. The programme was closed with the famous "Ford March" (Zickel). The Ford band consists of 55 men. At times the director brought out of his band the deep, mellow effect of a great organ and the brass snarled or sang in answer to the varying moods

WILHELM BEATEN FOR PORTLAND in answer to the varying mood

State Title Holder Is Off Game, but The Ford band was entertained all day by a committee headed by F. B. Norman, manager, and W. S. Mo-Namara, chief clerk of the Portland Victor Shows Effect of Hard the Portland Hotel between the hour of his arrival in the city Friday even-ing and the time of his appearance at the Hellig Theater, where he will lec-the Hellig Theater, where he will lec-the Hellig Theater, where he will lec-tat Albany Friday afternoon, reaching Portland over the Oregon Electric at 6 o'clock. From the moment he reaches his hotel until he is hurried to the theater he will pass the time meeting friends in and Nevada have no usury law.

this city.

COLECTOR TO BE PEDDLER Unclaimed Goods Held for Duty at not yet known whether the body of his sister has been recovered. The sister, Ruth, 21 years old, was an employe of the Weatern Electric Company, and, accompanied by her mother, had joined the pionickers for the day's outing. Mr. Hubbard will leave for Chirago as soon as he can be relieved here. RELIC FOUND NEAR ECHO FORD BAND WELCOMED THRONGS APPLAUD CONCERT GIVEN

BY PARTY ON WAY TO FAIR. RELIC FOUND NEAR ECHO Visitors Are Entertained at Reception

> Ployed-Up Cannon Ball Believed From Old Fort Henrietta.

ECHO, Or., July 11.-(Special.)-An interesting relic of early days was miles above Echo, being a four and one-half miles above Echo, being a four and one-half fourth-pound solid Iron cannon ball three and one-fourth inches in diamince and one-could increas in diam-eter. In early days Fort Henrietta stood just across the Umatilia River from where the town of Echo now stands. The two brass cannon were thrown into the well and the well filled up at the the the fort man abandand by the the time the fort was abandoned by the

BUNGALOWS

Also story-and-half and two-story homes designed and constructed by this organization are distinctively better. And

The Oregon Home Builders

13th Floor Northwestern Bank Bldg.

the cost is less. WE WILL FINANCE IT Come in and talk it over.

Oliver K. Jeffery, President

machine

Custom-House to Be Sold.

collector of customs, announced re-cently a sale at the United States Ap-

CHICAGO, July 23 .- Rivers McNeill,

You Are Sure of a Good Time machine, sardines, cement blocks, ment and Resinol Soap, Samples free, booth wash, 47 bottles of champagne. Dept. 32-R, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

There is immediate relief for skins itching, burning and disfigured by ecema, ringworm or similar tormenting skin trouble, in a warm bath with Resinol Soup and a simple application of Resinol Ointment. The soothing, healing Resinol medication sinks right into the skin, stops itching instantly and soon clears away all trace of eruption.

even in severe and stubborn cases where other treatments have had no.

effect. After that, the regular use of

AT NEWPORT

All-round Summer resort. On Yaquina Bay and Pacific Ocean. A place of charm and beauty. Delightfully restful atmosphere.

Newport offers wide variety of recreations and entertainments. There are plenty of hotels, boardinghouses, cottages and camping accommodations.

Low Round-Trip Fares

from all points on

Two trains a day from Albany.

Through Sleeping-Car from Portland every Saturday morning at 1:20 o'clock. Returning, leaves Newport Sunday evening

City Ticket Office, 50 Sixth Street, Corner Oak,

John M. Scott, General Passenger Agt., Portland, Or.

