EAGLES TO ATTEND SPOKANE MEETING

Portland Aerie Prepares to Take Part in National Convention of Order.

PARADES TO BE FEATURE

Quartets and Bands to Have Numer ous Contests in Open Air and Thousands of Marchers to Be in Procession.

Members of the Portland aerie of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will meet thousands of their brothers from all parts of the United States and Canada at the grand aerie gathering in Spokane August 2 to 7. A number of Portland Eagles plan to attend the sessions. This will be the largest gathering of Easterners in the history of the Inland Empire, N. E. Nuzum, chairman of the arrangements committee at Spokane, predicts. "Our order has a membership of more than 400,000," he says. "and the annual meeting provides an outling for thousands of our members every year.

"From the time the meeting opens Monday, August 2, until midnight the following Saturday, Spokane will hum. Carnival to Be Staged.

"We are arranging to stage the best features of the Powwow or Summer Carnival held in Spokane in 1913. This task will be made easy because of the presence of numerous uniformed marching clubs, bands and choruses of Eagles from all parts of the country. The downtown streets are to be turned over to the merrymakers for four days, commencing Tuesday, August 3. On that day 60 quartets of Eagles from as many cities will engage in song com-petition in the open air. This contest will be continued over four days at the leading hotels, cafes and public meet-

"The Eagles' bands will participate in a similar contest Wednesday morn-ing. In the afternoon the Pacific Coast parade will take place, with floats and other spectacular features entered by the different Pacific Coast aeries of the order. The day will be closed with a grand ball, fireworks display and the finals of the band contest, all at Natatorium park.

Thousands to Be in Parade. The official Eagles' parade will be held Thursday morning, participated in by thousands of uniformed mem-bers. At night high carnival will reign at the Mardi-Gras parade and celebration, closing with a confetti battle in which the public will take

On Friday morning every Eagles' drill team will compete in a drill contest. That night the visitors will get a glimpse of pioneer Western life. A secret order, 'The Knights of the Pack Saddie,' has been organized by Spokane citizens to reproduce an early day mining camp with all its features.
