Protest at Belated Entry Causes Spokane Champion to Retire-Mrs. Northup Wins From Mrs. Harrigan-Wickersham Victor.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT. Unless some osteopathic miracle occurs there will be no challenge round for the state men's singles tennis cham-pionship following the tourney now nearing a close on the Irvington courts L. K. Richardson, present state cham-pion, announced yesterday that he would have to default his title to the winner of the finals because of his bad

Champion Richardson was out yesterday trying to work the kinks out of his sprained ankle, but the kinks of his sprained ankle, bu refused to be ironed away. "I'm afraid I'll have to give it up," said he. "Footwork is almost as important in tennis as the arm work, and

I find I cannot navigate very well on one foot. I received the injury at Sell-wood Park when I stepped into a bad hole in the grass about 10 feet back of the court." Day Full of Features.

Champion Richardson's announce-ment, the disqualification of Joe Tyler, of Spokane, a late entry, after he had taken on and defeated three opponents in one day, and the defeat of Mrs. F. E. Harrigan by Mrs. W. I. Northup in the women's singles, were the outstanding features of yesterday's play at the Twenty-second and Thompson - street courts.

Officials of the Irvington Club tried to straighten out the misunderstanding regarding Tyler's non-appearance on opening day. Players with whom he had been scheduled agreed to playoffs, and these were crowded into the programme thick and fast yesterday. The Inland Empire champed the straight of the programme thick and fast yesterday. Inland Empire champ downed Rees, then MacVeagh and finally Shives. In the meantime protests were lodged at the irregularity of his entry. In the face of these Tyler picked up his duds and left the courts.
