

JEWELERS RESENT TOO HIGH GUARANTY

Convention Tomorrow to Consider Remedies for Some of Evils of Trade.

CONTRACT PRICE ISSUE UP

W. F. Woodward to Explain Bill to Protect Manufacturers in One-Price Effort—Annual Reports and Programme Features.

Is your watch guaranteed? If it is, who guaranteed it? These are some of the questions that answered at their annual convention which opens in Portland tomorrow.

Contract Goods to Be Topic. The meetings will get under way at the Chamber of Commerce convention hall at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning with informal greetings by local jewelers and city officials.

Reports to Be Submitted. The annual reports of the president and the secretary-treasurer will be delivered before luncheon. Adjournment will be taken at 12:30 o'clock and all the visiting jewelers will join with the Portland jewelers in luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce.

Guaranty on Watch Problem. One subject in which there is a growing volume of interest is the guaranty practices among unscrupulous watch manufacturers in stamping "guaranteed for 25 years" or "guaranteed for 15 years" on their products.

President Staples predicts that fully 150 members of the association in various parts of the state will attend the convention. The other officers of the organization are: First vice-president, C. H. Morris, Dallas; second vice-president, Miss Ella Wood, Albany.

Trips Fail to Attract. The convention of the American Society of Osteopathy is essentially a working convention. That much was discovered and remarked by the railway people, the reception committee and the representatives of the Chamber of Commerce who tried to lure them with arrangements for numerous sight-seeing excursions and other forms of entertainment.

Bonneville Excursion Today. They even begrudged giving up Wednesday afternoon for an excursion up the Columbia Highway, said Mrs. F. E. Moore, of the reception committee.

ranged are the trip up to Bonneville today and the reunions that will be held tonight after the return. Every hour of the rest of the convention will be devoted to solid study and business.

President Responds to Mayor. Dr. Upton presided at the formal opening yesterday morning, giving the response to the address of welcome by Mayor Albee, and the remainder of the sessions were taken over by the vice-president.

Drs. Carl P. McConnell, of Chicago; George Loughlin, of Kirksville, and Vvelyn Bush, of Louisville, were the principal speakers in the forenoon, and in the afternoon the addresses in the main hall were by Dr. S. V. Robuck, of Chicago; Dr. C. H. Spencer, of Los Angeles, and Dr. H. H. Fryette, of Chicago.

Clinical demonstrations were given under the direction of Dr. Fryette, Roscoe Lyda, G. W. Good, C. P. McConnell, George Laughlin, D. W. Young, Dain Tasker, E. K. Smith and others. Dr. Otis Akin gave several clinical demonstrations in surgery at the Good Samaritan Hospital.

Reunions to Be Held at Night. Sessions this morning will be devoted to eye, ear, nose and throat clinics under Dr. T. J. Ruddy and W. V. Goodfellow, with addresses in the main hall by Dr. George Still, George Conley and J. Foster McNary.

The delegates will leave from the Union Depot this afternoon for Bonneville over the O. W. R. & N. and on their arrival at Bonneville will be guests of the Chamber of Commerce at a salmon barbecue. They will walk on the Columbia Highway from Mist Falls to Bonneville and enjoy the scenic attractions on that section of the road. The party will return at 6 o'clock tonight and the remainder of the day will be given over to class and club reunions.

PARTY LIVES IN AUTO

LOS ANGELES OSTEOPATH AND FAMILY COME BY MOTOR.

Machine Is Prepared for Long Trip by Converting Rear Seats into Folding Berths.

With their automobile "Pullmanized," so that the rear part of the machine can be folded back and full length beds made up, Dr. R. D. Emery, Mrs. Emery and their son Clyde motored from Los Angeles through the various National parks on the way, arriving in Portland Monday night to attend the Osteopathic convention.

The trip to date has taken them 1500 miles, and when the convention is over the party will continue on to Puget Sound, taking in the Rainier National forest and surrounding scenic places. They will return by automobile to Los Angeles, via Eureka and Crescent City.

"We found the roads pretty good except for several places as we neared Portland," said Dr. Emery. "On an average we did better than 100 miles daily, making 200 on some days. We found a bad stretch near The Dalles. We visited Yosemite and Crater Lake National Parks and made detours to all the scenic places around Mount Shasta, coming up through Oregon by Bend."

Dr. Emery and his family camped out all along the trip, carrying sufficient equipment to be comfortable.

STATE MARRIAGE RULE URGED

Women's Department Discusses Child Disease Elimination.

That disease of children in a large measure can be abolished from the race was the opinion expressed at a meeting of the women's department of the Bureau of Public Health of the American Osteopathic Association at its sectional session yesterday.

In furtherance of the work for this end, it was recommended that the Osteopathic Association contribute to the movement by the opening of free children's clinics in every city of the United States, and by encouraging the observance of "Health Days" in the schools and churches to attend the educational phases of the work.

Among the methods whereby conditions may be improved for the health of children are "Better Baby" congresses, educational campaigns to bring about better sanitation in homes, education against the use of alcohol and other drugs.

Careful supervision of marriage by the state was recommended also, as one of the means by which the health of the coming generations of children may be conserved.

HEALTH PREFERRED TO VOTE

Osteopath Says Race's Emancipation Depends on Women Being Well.

"The emancipation not only of woman, but of the human race, depends more upon the health of woman than their privilege to vote," was the assertion of Dr. Evelyn K. Bush, of Louisville, at the osteopathic convention yesterday morning.

"While I am in hearty sympathy with the woman suffrage movement, I also believe that when by self-knowledge and self-discipline women shall gain clear understanding, easy and habitual control of their bodies, they will have achieved a far more important emancipation both for themselves and the race."

TOOTHBRUSH CALLED MENACE. Dr. R. Kendrick Smith Also Says Handkerchief Spreads Germs.

"Toothbrushes and handkerchiefs are a greater menace to health than any of the other evils against which the government and scientific bodies are battling," is the expression of Dr. R. Kendrick Smith, of Boston, who is one of the leading operators in the clinical and general sessions of the American Osteopathic Association convention, and director for the association of the department of National health education.

"Recent experiments prove that these two articles of universal use are spreading disease constantly, faster than all the physicians and hospitals can take care of it."

"Living germs are found in the handkerchief as it comes fresh from the domestic laundry, and the toothbrush is a veritable nest for the collection and propagation of all kinds of bacteria, which are daily scrubbed into the gums by the bristles, which wound the delicate mucous membrane and then infect it."

"If you must use a brush for your teeth take a new one every time, but it is better to use a piece of sterile gauze and burn it afterward. Handkerchiefs should be made of tissue paper and destroyed after use."
