VISION COMES ON STREET

Auto-Suggestion Is Credited With Bringing Back Use of One Eye After Victim Has Spent 15 Years in Darkness.

PENDLETON, Or., Aug. 3.—(Special.)
—The happlest man in Oregon tonighs is Kari Guiott, who for 15 years has been known as the blind musician.
The sight of his right eye was partly restored by an apparent miracle yes-terday, while he was lalking along the

Mr. Guiott kept the fact secret for an hour while, he walked around view-ing the city, then he cansulted Dr. T. M. Henderson, and on learning that the recovery of sight is likely to be permanent, he hastened to his home to get the first real look he ever had of his wife, whom he married nearly 12 years ago, almost two years agter his sight failed. Mr. Guiott was born with weak eyes. His sight failed completely while he

STATE ENGINEER SAYS WASTES CAN BECOME PRODUCTIVE.

Water Running to Goose Lake Canal and Construction Work on Dam and Reservoir Progresses.

SALEM, Or., Aug. 1.— (Special.)—
John H. Lewiz, State engineer, after an examination of land in Eastern Oregon, announced today that the peat marshes, if properly drained and irrigated, would be found to be as fertile as any land in the state, according to information from men who have made a study of conditions.

Mr. Lewis, accompanied by James

Mr. Lewis, accompanied by James, Chinnock and George T. Corcoran, of the Water Board, and John DuBois, engineer for the State Desert Land Board, made a careful investigation of areas of marsh land.

areas of marsh land.

Mr. Lewis said that in connection with the adjudication of water rights on the Chewaucan. Silvies and Lost Rivers, the amount of water which can be beneficially used on marsh land of a peary nature must be determined. Soil samples from tracts totaling several hundred thousand acres were taken for analysis, the information gained to be used in deciding which of the numerous conflicting statements the numerous conflicting statements in testimony before the board should be given weight in making a decision.

Mr. Lewis further said:
"The Federal and State Agricultural Departments should undertake the collection of reliable data for this class of land, not only for the protection of settlers, but also to encourage the cut-ting up of those large holdings if conditions justify. Railroads will build if development can be assured. "Water was found flowing for the first time in the canals of the Goose Lake Irrigation Company near Lake-view, and heavy construction work was progressing on the 60-foot dam on Drews Creek, so that the reservoir could safely impound 62,000-acre-feet The main canal is practically complete and construction work progressing on the first unit of the lateral system ul-timately to cover about 58,000 acres."

Friends of Executive Say Unnamed Objectors Are Unjust and Do State All Facts in the Case.

SALEM. Or. Aug. 3.—(Special.)—
Friends here of Governor Withycombe are somewhat incensed over the criticism of the Executive for granting a conditional pardon to A. Wolfman, of Portland, sentenced to the penitentiary on a perjury charge. They say the criticisms are not fair and do not give all the facts. One of them today made the following statement:

"What is back of this criticism of the Governor I do not know, but it is certainly unjust. Wolfman was acquitted of the charges of arson in Circuit Judge McGinn's court. He was then indicted on a charge of perjury.
