Local Persons Provide Sight-Seeing Trip Over Portland for Party Going to Fair as Guests eff Big Eastern Newspapers.

There are 100 of them-pretty, capable, intelligent young women from points between the rock-bound coast of New England to Manitoba, Canada. They are representatives of the various newspapers of the East, which awarded to them the trip to the Panama-Pacific Exposition for gaining the most subscriptions to the papers for which they worked. They arrived in Portland yesworked. They arrived in Portland yesterday at 2:40 and will leave today at 2 o'clock for Flavel, where they will take the steamer for San Francisco.
They are chaperoned by Mrs. G. L.
Skinner, a newspaper writer of Winnipeg; Miss Beulah M. Spur, formerly of the faculty of Alma Ladies' College of St. Thomas, and Mrs. Ethel Ingraham, of Nashua, N. H. The manager of the trip is E. S. Secord, advertising manager of the Montreal Daily

Governor Addresses Visitors.

Governor Withycombe spoke briefly to the young women at the station on their arrival, and they gave him a hearty ovation. They were then whicked to the front of the depot, where they put on their best smiles for the photographers.

Boston was the best represented city, with 25 girls. Detroit was represented by a number of dashing, vivacious young women.

Miss Ethel Weish, of the Detroit Times, said, between broken, ecstatic laughs, that she thought Portland roses were the most wonderful flowers she had ever seen, and posed for her picture with some of Portland's choicest Caroline Testouts close to her beaming

Of course there were so many others that it would be impossible to tell about all the individuals. There is one girl, a dainty little Italian girl, who is gir, a dainty little Italian gir, who is a grand opera singer. The rest of the party didn't find it out until they were far West on their journey, and still they are talking about the way Rose Cassazza sang one of the arias from "La Boheme" op a starlight balcony in Victoria.

One Is Woman Sleuth.

There are women from almost every profession in the party. One woman has 403 girls under her in one of the large department stores in the East; another is a secret service agent, and still another is a happy, "slangy" but from almost every city represented is

"They don't profess to be beautiful," said one of the chaperones, "but I am going to tell you that they are every one capable, sensible and bright."

The girls are all delighted with the trip. They say they have seen so much and heard so much about places that they haven't been able to eat or sleep.

Not a one has said she is anxious to get back home, although there is a pensive little girl, Beatrix Smith, of Holland, Manitoba, who is to be married September 8, who looks things.

There is much good-natured rivalry between the Canadian girls and those from "the States." This was evidenced last night, when, after the orchestra at the Oregon Grill had finished playing a medley of patriotic airs and all good Americans came to their feet in good Americans came to their feet in "The Star Spangled Banner" the Canadian girls all arouse and of one voice sang "God Save The King." Not to be outdone, the valiant United States girls took up the air and brought roars of cheers from other diners on "America."

STREET EXTENSION ASKED

Proposed Opening of East Water Is Opposed by Commissioner.

A petition from the East Side Business Men's Club, asking for the opening of East Water street from East Ash street to the Burnside-street bridge, and also one from the Commission of Public Docks, urging the opening of the same street from East Ash street to East Ankeny street, will come up for consideration before the Council at its meeting next Wednesday. Commissioner Dieck, of the Department of Public Works, will report against the granting of the petitions. Mr. Dieck says it would be difficult to finance the extension and that the street would be dangerous, as it would pass through the Southern Pacific railroad yards. A petition from the East Side Busi Fillamook and Oklahoma, Men Waylay Mrs. R. R. Lakin, of Lincoln County, Robbing and Maltreating Her in Woods.

NEWPORT, Or, Aug. 6.—(Special.)
—Twenty-four hours after having waylaid and mistreated Mrs. R. R. Lakin, aged 19, of Blodgett, near Chitwood yesterday, Charles Reynolds, 27, of Tulsa, Okla., and Frank Jones, 28, of Tillamook, Or., were sentenced today to life imprisonment in the penitentiary by Judge Hamilton.

The two men committed the crime at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon and were captured at 7 o'clock. They were arraigned before the grand jury at Toledo this morning, made a voluntary confession of guilt and were sentenced at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The men were indicted on two counts, one of attack on Mrs. Lakin and the other of assault and robbery with intent to kill.

Mrs. Lakin was riding on horse-back alone from Nashville, her home, to Toledo early yesterday when she was first accosted by the two men. They asked her to stop and eat lunch with them. She declined and proceeded.

Woman Gagged and Bound. Woman Gagged and Bound.

On her way back in the afternoon she was again accosted by Reynolds and Jones. This time they drew revolvers, forced her to dismount and then marched her before them into the woods, leading her horse. Once in seclusion they gagged, bound and robbed her, after which they subjected her to indignities at their leisure.

indignities at their leisure.

Finally the two men left Mrs. Lakin, still bound, and proceeded leisurely on their way, thinking she could not set herself free. Mrs. Lakin did free herself, however, and dragged herself to the road, where she fell unconscious and was found later by William B. Barnett, of Independence, who carried her in his auto to Chitwood.

As soon as Mrs. Lakin could tell her story. Sheriff Bert Geer was notified, As soon as Mrs. Lakin could tell her story, Sheriff Bert Geer was notified, and with a posse went in search of the assailants. The men meanwhile had been arrested by farmers, and though hoth were still armed they offered no resistance. When turned over to the Sheriff and questioned closely they adnitted their guilt. Farmers Threaten Lynching. Sheriff Geer started at once for Foledo with his prisoners, and at one Toledo with his prisoners, and at one place was forced to drive at full speed through a crowd of men who had gathered, and who were threatening summary vengeance. After guarding his prisoners overnight the Sheriff took them today before Circuit Judge Hamilton, the grand jury, which was in session, having meanwhile indicted them on charges of attack and assault with intent to kill.

After a scathing denunciation of the pair, Judge Hamilton sentenced them to 20 years' imprisonment on the attack charge and to life on the charge of assault with intent to kill.
