Nearly four months ago the Vernon club of the Coast League made its first and only appearance of the season in Portland. Happy Hogan was the manager of the Tigers on that memorable occasion. This afternoon the Vernons will make their second stand of the year in Portland and, as Happy Hogan is no more, it will be the debut of the Vernons in this section under the new manager, "Doc" White.

The Portland club will not arrive until 1:50 this afternoon, but there should be no appreciable delay in the starting hour. BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Two new players will be unloaded on the Portland fans—Second Baseman Hammond and the brush no-hit pitching phenom, Dave Gerrick. The latter arrived in the city yesterday and worked out for a few minutes at Recreation Park with Bobby Davis, Injured Shortstop, Who Davis, by the way, insists that his wrenched knee is as good as new, and his return to the hox scores likely will result in some shift of the inner works.

Hammond has been hitting so well that Mack hardly will bench him for anybody unless his heralded Theumatics' are bothering him. Walter said something the other day in Loss Angeles about benching Fred Derrick and using Hammond at first base for a while. Fred, however, has been hitting better the last week and such a move might entail international complications. New Tossers to Make Debut.

Portland and Vernon fighting it out for the remaining first-division honor. Possibly next Sunday the prophets will take another guess.

One thing sure, if Portland expects to finish in the first division the Miss Directed Wins Feature Event Reavers will have to show something this impending three weeks solours home. All the teams are bracing the home stretch, and even old Salt Lake, with Brief and Quinlan added to the flock, isn't going to prove the soft ginger snap for the Beavers any longer.
