Bock, Portland. NEW RESERVOIR FOUNTAINS PLANNED. Commissioner Daly and Water Superintendent Kaiser are working on a plan for the substituting of rainbow foun-tains for the ones now in use at Resertains for the ones now in use at Reservoir No. 6 at Sixtieth and Hawthorne street. The fountains throw a single column of water straight up in the air and the officials are of the opinion that a fountain throwing a fanilke stream and covering the greater part of the reservoir would be preferable. Mr. Kaiser has announced that the change will probably be made next month.

RECREATION NEEDS ARE INVESTIGATED.

--Commissioner Baker and Park Superintendent Convill are making a survey of the park and recreation center needs of all districts of the city with a view to future development work. Commissioner Baker is of the opinion that there is a great need particularly in some sections, for recreation centers and playground centers, and especially apparatus and swimming pools. He believes that this need is greater than for large park sites. DIVA AGREES TO SING AT CONCERT IN LAURELHURST PARK.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS NEAR COMPLE-TION.—Contractors are rapidly complet-ing improvements on East Nineteenth street from Sandy boulevard to Oregon street. The street has been graded and new curbs put in. A bituilthic pavement is being laid. Oregon street also is being improved from East Nine-teenth to East Twentieth street, thus affording a new hard-surfaced con-nection between Sandy boulevard and the Twenty-first-street bridge across Madame Jeanne Jomelli is to sing for the people of Portland at the concert of the Municipal Band at Laurelhurst Park, Thursday night, August 12. Commissioner George L. Baker ex-tended to Madame Jomelli the invita-tion to give to the people of the city, with whom she has made herself so well-beloved in numerous concerts within the past year, the privilege of the Twenty-first-street bridge across Sullivans Guich.
