"How do you do, Miss Albrich," said Mr. Smead, yesterday afternoon as he recognized a young woman who had come from Kennewick as a buyer for S. D. Lynch Company last year.

The young woman sat down and registered calmly: "Mrs. A. D. Abbott, Kennewick,

"I have changed my name since was here a year ago," she explained, and Smead hastened to extend congratulations while he hunted for a visitor's badge for her.

"I have always been used to order out of Seattle," he said, "but I decided to take advantage of Buyers' week and come down to Portland to see what relations I can establish here. Thus far I have been glad I came."

T. W. Sapper, of Hermiston, brought the junior member of his firm down with him in the person of little Miss Margaret Anna Sapper, aged nine months, and H. D. Aden, of Wilsonville, was another buyer who brought the youngest member of the firm, Dwight Aden, aged five months.

Among the men and women who came, the registratics was largely from east of the Cascades, and everyone of them brought an optimistic story of the commercial, financial and crop outlier for the commercial standard and crop outlier.

the commercial, financial and crop outlook for the coming season.

From every section of the big grain country to the East comes the same glad news of bumper crops of wheat and barley, with prices now offered between $5 and 25 cents. No contracts are heing signed by farmers, and it is the general opinion of merchants that the farmers are waiting for $1 at least for every bushel of the wheat crop.

Wallows Crop Largest Ever. Wallows Crep Largest Ever.

"Wallows County has the biggest grain crop in its history, mostly on the dry lands, the county has sold $40,000 worth of horses this season, there are 59 automobiles in Joseph, one for every 12 persons, and believe me, there is prosperity up there," said J. T. Resch, who arrived from there on one of the early trains.

SEWER EXTENSION FOUGHT

Council to Act on Petition Against East Side Work Tomorrow.

A petition to the City Council pro-testing the extension of the sewer on Thirty-first avenue Southeast, between East Forty-first street and East Forty-East Forty-first street and East Forty-third street, will come up for consideration at the meeting tomorrow. Commissioner Dieck, of the Department of Public Works, will recommend against granting the petition. The petitioners point out that the sewer work should wait until the street is brought to grade.

Commissioner Dieck points out that the petition is signed by only four property-owners of a total of 21 interested in the proposed extension. He also says that the street is only two feet above grade.

day. He has conferred with Sitney drivers and also has been studying ordinances in use in other cities. His proposed ordinance will differ from the one passed by the people. One of these changes is the climination of the provision for fumigating vehicles. Another change will be the insertion of a section providing for inspection of not only jitneys, but also taxicabs and other vehicles which are for hire.

Several Changes From Ordinance Invalidated Preposed, and Pica for Street Grades Are Up.

Commissioner Daly is still working on a draft of an ordinance for the regulation of jitneys, to supplant the one which was invalidated by the Supreme Court and it is possible that he will have it ready for submission at the next meeting of the Council, Wednes-
