To make a brief story as congested as possible, Vernon cracked the alleged slants of three Portland pitchers to all corners of the quadrant and won, 8 to 4, in the opening game of the series.

The Portland flinging trio consisted of Lush, Krause and then Higgin-botham in the foregoing order of precedence—or putrescence, if you'd rather have the unadulterated facts.

Without's Homer Scores Three.

Wilholt's Homer Scores Three.

Without signed Lush's death warrant in the taird inning, when he drove the ball over the right-field fence for a home run, scoring two ahead of him. Krause relieved his southpaw kinsman in the fifth, and a home run by Risberg and Rader's triple put him to the bad in two more torrid innings of base

Ray Hates belted the ball over this same right wall in the sixth inning for Portland and started a rally, but 'twas no use. Joison, by the way, was an interested spectator at the game. If the

Elmer Lober also broke into headline material in the fifth liming. As a sensational fly-glommer there are few in the business with anything on Lober, and his catch yesterday—a one-hand atab off Kane up against the deep center fence—was as pretty a piece of work as this young southpaw has negotiated in many agenceiters.

Notes of the Game.

Vernon secured 15 hits to eight for the Beavers. Don Rader, Risberg and Purtell bagged three apiece, Risberg receipting for single, a double and a bomer in five playingage. Stumpf was the only Portand battmar with two safe blows to his credit. The first of Rill's hits was a two-bagger than bounced off the left-field fence

Donne and Bayless sat on the bench because Doe White uses the two righthand litters Kane and Risberg, when southpaw pitchers are working against him.

Dave Gerrick, the new brush pitcher, was in a Portland uniform and exercised his alars wing a few moments under Walt Korreibe's scruticy.

"My leg is as good as new," Bobby Davis confided in McGredie hefore the game. And Bobby's actions during the warming up pre-iminaries did not belie his words. Davis 1000 president of the same will be back in the lineup today at third base. Bates is a matural first acker and will be switched to first. This will leave Hammond at second and Stumpf at short

Derrich complained of illness before yes erday's game, but gamely stuck it out Dup Ruder looked mighty sweet at third me the stattors. He appears to be a much improved player over last season. Rader is Medford product.

Perhaps it wouldn't have been good base-ball but Johnny Lush undoubtedly wished he had passed Wilhelt in the fateful third. Lush began by walking Mitchell. Rader out him along on a single to left. Kane surificed and Risberg fanned for the sec-cord out. Wilholt then pasted his home-tood for three runs, and as soon as the laries to Derrick.

In Kendall's workouts at the Empress it is noticeable that his sparring part-ner, Earl Micbus, lands his left on the big fellow quite frequently. Indignantly denying a reported interview in Los Angeles that "Portland was out of the pennant fight" and that "It's the cellar for us, I guess." Walter Mc-Credie brought his Portland Coast club back home yesterday for a fresh start. His first day at home didn't show much forward progress, but Mack de-clares he'll get the winning combina-tion yet.

"Of course, the pitchers are not hold-ing up we'll." said he. "However, the

Today I think I will play Bates at first base and use Davis at third. This ought to give us a much stronger line-up in the innerworks. Bates formerly played first base and has the natural build for a first baseman.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 10.—Today's game between Salt Lake and San Francisco was a shutout for the Seals, 5 to 0. Baum, who pitched a five-hit game, held the Bees safe all the way.

Corhan drove in three runs for the Seals in the first by knocking a two-bagger with the bases full. Schaller helped with a home run. Score:

We've had a lot of tough luck and have played some bad ball, but we're not out of the pitching staff yet, by long odds. Give us a little steadiness on the part of the pitching staff from now on and we'll go good, I believe."

"Are you satisfied with the Carlisle-Doane trade?" Mack was asked.

"Perfectly satisfied," came the reply.

"Perfectly satisfied," came the reply. "Doane needed a change to make him do his best and so did Carlisle. Doane had the first laugh, as he broke up a couple of games against us, but Carlisle has been playing consistent ball. I think Carlisle is a better field-1 1 0 00

"On this trip away from home Bill Stumpf at short and Fred Carisch be-hind the bat have been the stars, without question. Hammond is a sturdy youth, and although his arm is a little lame he looks like a good fielder and a dangerous batter."

Like all first-class managers, "Doc"
White, the Vernon steward, was equally willing to concede that Vernon would be in the fight at the finish.
"We are going steady now and while
I don't think our club possesses anywhere near the offensive strength of the Portland club, I think we will finish higher up the table," said he. "Our pitchers are better. Give us a couple of runs and we will win a majority of Gleichmann Is Booster. "One man on the Vernon team who has been generally overlooked by the critics in the reckoning is Gleichmann, at first base. Gleichmann is the shiftiest first baseman in the league and combines speed and hitting strength with his fielding. Rader is holding up well since annexing the regular station

Although the open season for deer does not become effective until next Sunday, a number of hunting parties already have left for the timbered districts of the county. Five Portland parties have chartered accommodations at Tiller and will arrive there late in the week. Tiller is one of the late in the week.
