Noon yesterday was the occasion of boosting taiks on representative cities in all parts of Portland's trade ter-ritory at the luncheon given in honor of the visiting huyers by the Ad Clob at the Multnomah Hotel. Owing to the great attendance, the management of the Multnomah arranged for the luncheon to be held in the ballroom on the messanine floor. Even with this great room the crowd was so large that overflow luncheons had to be held in adjoining smaller rooms. A. G. Clark was chairman of the day, and the speakers were given two
