Congressional Union Leader Visits for Few Hours.

Miss Elsie Hill Declares Aid Given by Western Women in Campaign Invaluable to Cause in East.

MISS ELSIE HILL, member of the National executive committee of the Congressional Union for Woman Suffrage, was in Portland for a few hours yesterday.

"You know," said Miss Hill, "the support that the Western women are offering to give us Eastern women, who are struggling against the odds of mosback conservatism, is like salvation to a drowning man. You can't imagine what it means to us."

Miss Hill is daughter of Representative Ebeneser J. Hill, of Connecticut. They are touring the West with their cousin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hill.

Miss Hill has just returned from a week's trip to South Carolina. She declared that the Southern women are becoming impatient with the slow process of gaining the ballot state by state.

"They are beginning," she said, "to look longingly at the Federal amendment. Many of them have already pledged their support."
