Militia Brings Target as Tropsy.

One of the targets on which the Oregon Naval Militia made its record in the recent practice at Port Angeles, on board the cruiser Albany, was brought back to Portland and will be hung as a trophy in the green room of the Chamber of Commerce. This particular target is one in which the guimers of the naval militia made 12 bits out of 12 shots, running at high speed in a rough sea. The great strip of canvas, about 12 by 15 feet, was placed at a distance from the ship where it looked no bigger to the gunner than a cailing card, but in spite of this every shot cards.
