

ASPIRANTS BEERGE FOR STATE OFFICES

Presidential Race is Not Expected to Detract From Interest in Oregon.

MR. WELLS IS MENTIONED

Insurance Commissioner Denies Intention to Be Candidate Again. Secretary of State Job to Be Biggest Plann.

Although the Presidential race will attract the major attention of the voters next year, it is apparent that there will be no lack of interest among office-seekers for some of the more important honors that the people of Oregon will have to distribute.

It is understood that Ben W. Olcott, the incumbent Secretary, will be a candidate to succeed himself, although it is too early for him or anyone else to make a formal announcement of intention to run.

Ed D. Baldwin, Prospective Candidate. Another prospective candidate is Edward D. Baldwin, secretary of the Republican state committee, who is receiving much encouragement from Republican leaders in various parts of the state.

Harvey Wells, State Treasurer. Harvey Wells, State Treasurer, has been mentioned in many quarters as a candidate in many quarters, but Mr. Wells persists in denying that he will be in the race.

Mr. Coffey's Name Mentioned. Then there is the possibility that John B. Coffey, County Clerk of Multnomah county, will be running.

Under the law passed at the last session of the Legislature one Commissioner must be elected from Eastern Oregon and the other from the state at large.

Several aspirants already are in the field for the Republican nomination in Eastern Oregon. Principal among them are James M. Kyle, who has been Mayor of Stanfield ever since the town was organized.
