HONORS DUE MUSICIANS

THREE YOUNG MEN JUMP IN AND SAVE DAY AT EMPRESS.

Elizabeth Chapin, Portland Girl, Is Attraction in Dances and Howard Sisters Are Favorites.

The honors due the success of the Empress show yesterday belong right-fully to the three young musicians who played the accompaniments and the in-cidental music with all the dash and vim of a veteran vaudeville orchestra. It was "some job" to jump right in and save the day for the hundreds of peo-ple who were seeking pleasure by at-board, which holds the property. More than 600 people were present. Rev. Mr. Sandstedt opened the serv-ices by words of welcome. He ex-pressed the hope of the friends of the hospital that the institution would be-come a blessing to the city. Then fol-lowed the opening song by a choir. A metallic box, containing the history of Emanuel Hospital, the Portland papers and some other records, was placed in the cornerstone and sealed. Rov. Mr. Sandstedt delivered the prayer and rit-ualistic services and then pronounced the benediction.

fare of suffering humanity. Purpose is to Save Life. "While we are assembled here this afternoon," said Secretary Lofgren, "as interested co-workers in this charitable undertaking, millions of people in the world about us are suffering untold agony as the result of a war brought on By ambition for power and greed for national aggrandizement. The pur-pose for which this building is to be erected, in contrast to the programme carried on by the powers of Europe, is to save human life and alleviate suf-fering of mankind. This is a small beginning of what we hope some day will be an important institution in this community. "We are Americans in the full sense
