

SENATOR STONE IS PORTLAND VISITOR

Missouri Statesman Thinks Women's Suffrage and Prohibition Will Carry.

METHODS ARE CRITICISED

Increased Military and Naval Strength Advocated as Preparation Against War—Re-election of Wilson Foreseen.

"Why, they are just going to stay at it until they get it," philosophized Senator "Bill" Stone, of Missouri, with a characteristic drawl, while visiting with friends in Portland yesterday.

MISSOURI STATESMAN WHO IS CONVERT TO CAUSE OF WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE.

SENATOR STONE.

Quick Resort to Education.

"It's too bad that those women should be subjected to such treatment," he commented, "when the whole thing is so absurd."

"Do you mean to tell me that you are in favor of suffrage?" he asked his wife.

"Mrs. Stone confided that while she was not of the militant variety of suffragist, she certainly would vote if she had the opportunity, and that her two daughters and her daughter-in-law would vote, too."

"That settled it with me," explained the Senator, taking a fresh nip on his cigar. "From that time on I was neutral on the suffrage question. Now I am so that I believe that women ought to have the right to vote if they want to vote."

"However, I don't think it is important enough to be a National issue in the campaign next year."

"By gosh, they are trying to vote Missouri dry," he declared, straightening up in his seat and displaying a keen interest. "Now, what do you think of that? The wets beat them the last time almost two to one, but I learned before I left home that the dries were going after them again, and I suppose they'll stay right at it until they win."

"One of the most important problems before the next Congress will have to deal with, he said, is Army and Navy improvements."

"This country ought to prepare for emergencies," he declared. "It should not prepare for war, but prepare against war. To do this we should have a military and naval strength capable of combating the powers of the Old World."

"President Wilson," he says, "will have no opposition for the Democrats in the next election, and I don't know who the Republicans can put up that is strong enough to beat him."

Senator Stone was accompanied on his Portland visit by Mrs. Stone, their daughter, Miss Mabel Stone, and their son-in-law, John G. Parkinson, of St. Joseph, Mo. They left last night for San Francisco.

12 TO BE IN GUARD TEAM

GENERAL WHITE DECIDES ON ENTRY IN NATIONAL SHOOT.

Oregon, Through Rating in 1913, Will Be in Class A in Competition in Florida.

Adjutant-General George A. White, of the Oregon National Guard, decided yesterday that a team of 12 men, two alternates and three team officers will be sent to the National matches on the state camp grounds, near Jacksonville, October 15 to 22.

The men who will compose the team that will represent the National Guard of Oregon will be chosen at the state shoot at the Clarkamas range September 29, 30 and 31.

Other matches will be held on the same range before the National matches begin. Some of these include matches of the Florida State Rifle Association, the South Florida Association and the National Rifle Association.

The National matches draw entries from all over the United States, and are open to one team each from the United States Army infantry, cavalry, the United States Navy, United States Military Academy, the United States Naval Academy and the organized militia from each state and territory and the District of Columbia.

All universities and colleges in the country are invited to participate and are restricted to one team each.

The teams that will compete will be divided into three classes, according to the standing made in the National matches of the 1913 season. The team from the Oregon National Guard will have the distinction of taking third place in a field of 48 entries at the 1913 meeting and consequently will be placed in class A.

There will be held National individual matches and the National team match. Oregon will have entries in all these three shoots.

TALE OF WOE IS FILED

CROSS-COMPLAINT IN DIVORCE SUIT IS DRAMATIC.

Widower of Mrs. Osborne of 28, and Now Alleges She Seeks Only His Property.

Usually legal documents are considered dry and uninteresting reading. But a cross-complaint filed in County Clerk Coffey's office yesterday is a dramatic tale of marital troubles. Written in the style typical of attorneys, the story sounds like a fable. Lillian G. Osborne is suing Charles Willett Osborne for divorce. It was the answer and cross-complaint of Mr. Osborne that was filed yesterday. It tells the story graphically.

"The plaintiff herein is a young grass widow," says the cross-complaint, "of about 35 years of age, a comely blond, with bewitching eyes and fascinating manners, weighing about 115 pounds; very intelligent, a young woman with a great deal of this world's experience, having had the advantages of a great deal of travel."

"The defendant, Mr. Osborne, says he is 48 years old. His first wife died in 1912. He is a shipping clerk and has an invalid brother, besides a daughter, to support."

"Last January the plaintiff entered upon the duties of housekeeper for this defendant and his daughter. She treated the defendant in the kindest and most considerate manner possible."

"She resorted to every known subterfuge in order to win the confidence and admiration of the defendant. On April 8, 1915, she was married to the plaintiff."

"Some time during the first part of May the plaintiff, in conversation, stated that she did not 'mix' with the rich old folks, and that she was yet young and could yet have two or three 'old ginks'."

"The new wife did not 'mix' with the rich old folks, and young daughter and trouble arose, according to Mr. Osborne, and she began to curse him when he came home from work in the evening."

"One evening, after the defendant had returned home from his work and after the plaintiff had cursed him in the usual manner, she went into the bathroom, opened the window, and began screaming and howling that she was being murdered. She was taken to the hospital, and there she was kept for a number of days, until she was able to get home and there I entered the regular service."

"Wherefore," Mr. Osborne wants the divorce granted to him and wants to keep all of his property.

COLONEL MORROW HERE

JURIST'S BROTHER IS EN ROUTE TO PHILIPPINES.

Army Judge-Advocate Says Portland Has Grown Remarkably Since Visit in 1905.

On his way to Manila to become Judge-Advocate of the Philippine Department of the United States Army, Lieutenant-Colonel Henry M. Morrow is in Portland for a few days visiting his brother, Circuit Judge Robert G. Morrow. He will sail from San Francisco September 7 for the Philippines. Previous to receiving his present assignment, Colonel Morrow was Judge-Advocate of the Eastern department, stationed at Governor's Island, N. Y. "Yes, the Morrow family seems to run to the law and the Army, and sometimes to both," said Colonel Morrow yesterday. "Previous to entering the Army I practiced law in Omaha for a number of years. At the time of the Spanish-American war I joined Colonel Bryan's regiment. Later I was transferred to the volunteer service in the Philippines, and there I entered the regular service."

Three members of the Morrow family are officers in the Army and none of them are West Point graduates. Besides Colonel Morrow, there is Major William M. Morrow, of the Eleventh Infantry, now stationed on the Arizona border, and Captain Frank Morrow, of the Sixth Cavalry, at Leavenworth, Kan. "It has been ten years since I was in Portland," Colonel Morrow said, "and the changes in the city really are remarkable. I was in Portland in 1905 on an important court-martial case. Now I would scarcely know the city, but I was also here in 1902, when the Northern Pacific was opened. That time Portland was a city of 25,000 people. Today I find it has ten times that population, or more."

DEFENDER CHANGES ROBE

Evidence Given Against Speeder Clinches Case and Brings Fine.

David Robinson, public defender in the Municipal Court, stepped out of his official capacity yesterday to assume the role of prosecutor in the case of attorney for the defense. His testimony clinched the case against W. O. Mountain, a speeder, and a fine of $10 was levied.

With patrolman Ed Burke, Tuesday, Mr. Robinson took a little ride in the automobile police patrol. They were bowling along at a fast clip, when a truck driven by Mr. Mountain shot past the patrol wagon at a speed that would cover nearly two blocks to one traveled by the patrol.

"I'm going to take that fellow's number and report him for speeding," said Patrolman Burke. He did so.

ACCEPTANCE OF PEACE RECEIVED

Reply, Now in Hands of Agent, to Be Delivered to Secretary Lansing Today.

CARRANZA WILL HOLD OUT

Principal General Reported to Have Agreed to Make Similar Rejoinders, Declaring They Will Maintain Stand.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18.—The reply of General Carranza to the Villa American appeal for peace will be placed in the hands of Secretary Lansing of the State Department tomorrow. Villa's rejoinder received today by Enrique C. Lorente, the Villa agent here.

The text of the reply has not been made public, but it is understood to accept the offer of the conferees to aid in restoring peace in Mexico.

The first answer to the appeal to reach the State Department came today from General Carranza, Villa governor of Lower California, telegraphed through the American Consul at Ensenada. This is said to be favorable and in line with that of General Villa himself. A similar reply will be made by Mr. Lorente on his own behalf tomorrow when he presents that of his chief.

Carranza to Ask Recognition.—General Carranza's response has not yet been received, but it is known to be in course of preparation. That he will endeavor to convince the conferees that recognition of his government is a wise course to pursue and the only way to establish peace in Mexico is generally understood here. Before the reply is forwarded, General Carranza is expected to make an strenuous attempt to capture Villa's stronghold at Torreon. Carranza agents here say the city will fall by Saturday.

May 1 announced tonight that all of the principal Carranza generals have entered into an agreement to make similar replies to the appeal sent them. Each one will describe conditions in the territory he controls and declare that he holds it for "the constitutionalist government" and he proposes to maintain that attitude.

Generals Join in Plea.—Among the generalis aduersus, who it is declared will join within a week in a plea for recognition of the Carranza movement, are: Obregon, now in the city of Torreon, who lays claim to control of territory north from Mexico City to Aguas Calientes and Zacatecas and east through San Luis Potosi, and the United States; the citizens of Gonzales, Coahuila, at Mexico City and vicinity; Trevino, at Monterey; Nafarrete, at Matamoros; Arriola, in Yucatan; the inhabitants of Aguilar, at Vera Cruz; Calles, who is attacking Villa's forces in Northern Sonora, and Mucel, in Campeche.

"May I assure you and through you the American Government, that I have for the President of the United States, his Government and the citizens of this country, the highest regard and sincerest friendship, and I am quite sure that if they knew my plans and purposes they would give me their fullest sympathy and their cordial appreciation."

Dr. Henry Allen Tupper, special area commissioner in Mexico, of the International Peace Forum, who arrived in Washington today from Tampico, said the foregoing message was dictated by General Carranza, who desired to have it delivered to the American people.
